THE GREAT WAR.

PRESIDENT'S PLEA PRODUCES RESULTS.

Both Russia and Japan are Pleased to Make Preliminary Exchanges.

Mikado Will Present His Peace Terms for Czar's Inspection and if Latter is Suited With Them Oyama and Linevitch Will Give Way to Plenipotentiaries of the Two Powers—Japan's Demands.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The following dispatch was sent by the President, through diplomatic channels, to the Japanese and the Russian governments:

"The President feels that the time has come when, in the interest of mankind, he must endeavor to see if it is possible to bring to an end the terrible and lamentable conflict now being waged. With both Russia and Japan the United States has inherited ties of friendship and good will. It hopes for the prosperity and welfare of each, and it feels that the progress of the world is set back by the war between these two great nations. The President, accordingly, urges the Russian and the Japanese governments, not only for their own sakes, but in the interest of the whole civilized world, to open direct negotiations for peace with each other. The President suggests that these peace negotiations be conducted directly and exclusively between the belligerents; in other words, that there may be a meeting of Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries or delegates, without any intermediary, in order to see if it is not possible for these representatives of the two powers to agree to terms of peace. The President earnestly asks that the (Russian) (Japanese) governments do now agree to such a meeting and is asking the Japanese and the Russian governments to agree likewise. While the President does not feel that any intermediary should be called in with respect to the peace negotiations themselves, he is entirely willing to do what he properly can, if the powers concerned feel that his services will be of effect in arranging the preliminaries, as to the time and place of meeting. But if even these preliminaries can be arranged directly between the two powers, or in any other way, the President will be glad, as his sole purpose is to bring about a meeting which the whole civilized world will pray may result in peace."

An identical note, the above text of which, by authority of the President, was made public late tonight at the White House by Secretary Loeb, has been forwarded to the governments of Russia and Japan by the President.

FINAL BLOW HAS BEEN STRUCK.

When the President left Washington today on a two days' trip to Virginia, he was confident that the result of the international negotiations for peace in the Far East had been successful and the final blow in the Russo-Japanese War had been struck.

So deeply interested is the President in bringing the belligerent nations to a common understanding, that he would not have left the White House at the time when the situation was so delicate until he had obtained assurances that his efforts to bring Russia and Japan into contact in an amicable spirit had been successfully concluded.

While extreme reticence is manifested in every official and diplomatic quarter, it is known authoritatively that the exchanges which have been in progress for the last ten days between the Washington government and the powers of the world, including the two belligerents, have been successful to an unexpected degree.

The President, who has taken the lead in the negotiations, has been accorded the cordial support of the great Continental powers, including Russia's nearest friend, France.

The direct representations made through Ambassador Meyer at St. Petersburg to the Czar were received by Emperor Nicholas in a most friendly spirit. Tokio responded in an equally amicable way.

So near are the two warring powers to amicable contact at this moment that in all Washington circles, official and diplomatic, mere hopefulness has given way to notable optimism.

It is not unlikely that within 48 hours a definite statement of the situation may be issued from St. Petersburg, Tokio or Washington which will throw clear light on it.

It can be said that only Tokio remains yet to be heard from regarding a phase of the negotiations. That the response of the Mikado's government will be favorable, no doubt is entertained.

BOTH WELCOME PROPOSITION.

The foregoing note of the President was forwarded to the Russian and Japanese governments yesterday. It is rendered especially significant by the fact that it was prepared and sent only after assurances had been received from Tokio and St. Petersburg that such a proposition would be welcomed. While both Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, and Minister Takahira of Japan were cognizant of the nature of the note, it was not sent to the respective governments through them. It was cabled, by direction of the President, to St. Petersburg and Tokio, and there delivered directly to the Russian and Japanese governments, respectively, by Ambassador Meyer and Minister Griscom.

In addition to the assurances received by the President from Ambassador Meyer, after his audience with the Czar, and from Minister Griscom, who had conferred with the Mikado's government, the President had indicated to the representatives of the two governments at this capital his intention. He also discussed the subject with representatives of other important powers accredited to this capital.

DIPLOMATS INDORSE NOTE.

While no intimation of the attitude assumed toward the proposition by either Ambassador Cassini or Minister Takahira is obtainable, it is known that other diplomats with whom the President conferred cordially indorsed his intention.

A formal reply to the note may not be received for several days, but, as already made clear, informal assurances that it would be welcomed are already at hand. In view of the significant character of the document and of the attitude toward it which both Russia and Japan have assumed, it is regarded in official and diplomatic circles as the first firm and decisive step toward ultimate peace.

At a late hour tonight, Mr. Takahira the Japanese Minister, had not been advised from Tokio of the delivery of the President's message to the Emperor, but he was expecting a cable dispatch to that effect at any moment. The Minister was able yesterday to transmit to the President a message from the Mikado that Japan was, with Russia, desirous of peace, provided it could be obtained under proper conditions.

KAISER'S SUPPORT ABSOLUTE.

Baron Speck von Sternberg, the German Ambassador, has throughout, been the President's right bower in the negotiations and as the personal envoy of Emperor William has been able from the outset to assure the President of the absolute and hearty support of the German Emperor in any effort to bring about peace. It can be said that for days the German Emperor has been supplementing the efforts of the President with communications to the Czar, urging peace. Through the Grand Duke Michael, who attended the wedding of the Crown Prince, the Emperor sent the most urgent advice to the Czar that peace in the interest of Russia be concluded without further hostilities. The close personal friendship between the President and the German Ambassador has been an important factor in the preliminaries.

Aware of the preference of Japan to communicate her peace terms to Russia directly, the President, in the last few days, has been active in counseling moderation to Japan rather than in endeavoring to draw from Tokio some statement of probable terms.

At the Russian embassy tonight Count Cassini remained without advices from St. Petersburg, and he was unwilling to comment on any phase of the situation.

ANNOUNCEMENT MONDAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 9, 6:15 p.m.—Ambassador Meyer was in constant communication with Washington this morning. He received a long cable dispatch and soon afterward hurried to the Foreign Office, where he had half an hour's earnest conversation with Foreign Minister Lamsdorff concerning the information transmitted to him.

Extreme reticence continues to be manifested, but it is apparent that the great announcement for which the world is waiting will not be made from here or Tokio, but from Washington. It is not likely to be delayed beyond Monday at the latest. No hitch has occurred and the outlook continues favorable to peace.

A council of ministers presided over by the Emperor in person was held at Tsarskoe-Selo this afternoon to discuss the situation. His Majesty's brother, Grand Duke Michael, who has arrived here from Berlin, is believed to be the bearer of a personal message from Emperor William advising the conclusion of peace.

The government is plainly prepar-

MANCHURIA A BUFFER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A private financial cable to a prominent agency here, one connected with the Wall Street Journal, states that the plan of Japan for settlement of the war with Russia, as privately stated by her representatives to leading American interests, is to take formal possession of Korea, to make Manchuria a buffer State and to dismantle Port Arthur and Vladivostok, making them open trade ports for the world.

This is the plan Japan had before ever she began this war and is what she had in mind when she started, ten years ago, to reorganize her army and navy and turn Russia back from the Pacific. This is her plan, aside from the question of indemnity and she will not alter it in the slightest degree.

If this policy is officially declared to the powers pressure will be brought to bear upon Russia for a settlement, especially as it is believed by financiers that Japan can be induced to reduce the amount of indemnity.

TURN TO REPUBLIC.

People of Norway Hold the Reins.

Swedish and Danish Royalty Will Not Furnish Them With a Monarch.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

COPENHAGEN, June 9.—[By Atlantic Cable.] All hope that King Oscar or Crown Prince Gustave will yield to the request of the Norwegian Storthing to place a Prince of the House of Bernadotte on the throne of Norway has now disappeared, according to a high authority. The Danish royal family has also set the stamp of disapproval on the acceptance of the throne by a Danish Prince.

It is understood that arrangements are actually being made for a national convention, and this will inevitably result in the declaration of a republic.

According to well-informed persons here, Russia and Germany will refuse to recognize the Norwegian government until King Oscar consents to the disruption of the union. Strong efforts are being made to secure similar action by other governments, including that of Denmark, and it is said that these efforts are meeting with encouragement. The Norwegian press and people, according to advices received here remain singularly undemonstrative. Premier Michelsen wants no demonstration, and today refused to permit a large procession of Christianians in honor of the session of the Storthing. In refusing, the Premier said: "It is too early to claim a victory which has not yet been definitely gained. Our most serious difficulties are probably ahead."

Thousands of telegrams from all parts of the world are pouring in on Premier Michelsen and the Storthing, many of them coming from the United States and South Africa.

King Oscar is quoted as saying that he would avoid war at any cost. Officials here say that the King and the Crown Prince had been fully prepared for the action of the Storthing by Premier Michelsen, who informed them, prior to His Majesty's veto of the Consular Bill, as to what step Norway intended to take.

TRICOLOR HOISTED.

CEREMONY AT CHRISTIANIA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHRISTIANIA, June 9.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Norwegian tricolor was hoisted today over Akershus fort and throughout the country in place of the union flag. The substitution was attended with great ceremony at the fort where the members of the Storthing and 30,000 of the public were assembled. The garrison was paraded in front of the quarters of the commandant of the fort, and the commandant read the resolution of the Storthing dissolving the union with Sweden.

As the clock in the tower of the fort chimed 10, the union flag, which had floated there since 1814, was hauled down, the troops presented arms, the band played the patriotic air "Sons of Norway" and after only a momentarp interim the first gun of a national salute boomed, the new flag was broken out, and the troops again presented arms. The people then uncovered and cheered wildly, the band adding to the general enthusiasm by playing the popular air, "Yes, We Love This Country."

Baron Von Wedel-Jarlsborg, who has been the Minister of Norway and Sweden at Madrid, and who is a Norwegian, is leaving the Spanish capital today for Christiania. He has telegraphed asking to be relieved from the post, owing to the dissolution of the union. His example will be followed by the ministers at Washington and Rome, both of whom are Norwegians.

The Department of Commerce has furnished the consuls-general with copies of the Storthing's resolution, and has invited them to notify their respective governments of the dissolution of the union.

CHEERS FOR GUSTAV.

OSCAR TO SUMMON RIKSDAG.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

STOCKHOLM, June 9.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Crown Prince Gustav, on his return from Berlin today, was met by the royal family, the ministers and a large crowd of people, who cheered him enthusiastically. The city is decorated with flags.

King Oscar decided at a meeting of the Council of State, today, to summon the Riksdag for an extraordinary session June 30. The Crown Prince was present at the sitting, which had before it the resolution of the Norwegian Storthing which the Premier denounces as revolutionary.

The resignation of the ministers of Sweden and Norway at Copenhagen, Rome and Madrid were tendered by telegraph and accepted.

MINISTER GROP LEAVING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Mr. A. Grop, who has been here since 1889, as Minister from Norway and Sweden, and who is a Norwegian, has engaged steamer passage for next Tuesday. He is returning home to personally learn the situation. When he called at the State Department to take leave of the officials, he had not made up his mind as to his future course of action.

HUNGARY ENCOURAGED.

NORWAY'S EXAMPLE APPROVED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BUDAPEST, June 9.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The members of the Parliamentary opposition party are sending an address to the Norwegian Storthing wishing it success in a constitutional fight, and saying that Hungary, encouraged by the example of Norway, will fight with redoubled strength to secure her national rights.

PRINCE GUSTAVUS' BRIDE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, June 9.—With the departure of King Alfonso, interest in society begins to center in the coming wedding of Prince Gustavus Adolphus, eldest son of Crown Prince Gustave of Sweden and Norway, and Princess Margaret Victoria, daughter of the Duke of Connaught, to which unusual attention is drawn by the present crisis between Norway and Sweden. The wedding guests will begin to arrive next week. The Duke and Duchess of Connaught gave a party at Clarence House today for the display of the magnificent wedding gifts, which formed an amazing display of jewelry, especially rubies, Princess Margaret Victoria's favorite gem.

ROYAL ARCANUM TAX.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Royal Arcanum councils are holding indignation meetings nightly throughout the country over the increase in insurance rates. The matter has been under advisement several years, ever since the officers realized that, as the order grew, the number of deaths became greater and would draw deeply on the insurance funds, if not wholly exhaust them. The tax would fall, it is said, most heavily on the older members, especially those who have passed the 65-year mark, when their monthly payment on $6000 would be something over $16, a prohibitive sum for thousands of old men.

It was thought for a time that what was lost by the taxing of veterans would be more than made up by the accession of young men. But as one of the inducements of insurance to the youngest policyholder is security for his old age, this treatment of the aged would cause them to look askance at the proposition.

MAYOR WEAVER'S CABINET.

Philadelphia Executive Names Fourteen Men Whose Advice He Will Ask During His Term.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mayor Weaver this afternoon announced the following men as members of an advisory committee which he will consult during the balance of his term: John H. Converse, William Potter, Hugh McCaffrey, Rudolph Blankenberg, Charles Emory Smith, W. F. Hagar, Mahlon N. Kline, Francis B. Hoever, William T. Tilden, W. W. Justice, Dr. John B. Musser, John H. Michener, Charles H. Harding and Morris Newberger.

Mayor Weaver said: "I expect to consult them, my advisory, from now on, for the balance of my term, on business matters connected with the city of Philadelphia. Many problems will arise from this time on which they can give me expert advice. I have selected them because of their broad business experience, so that I may submit to them many of the serious questions that must arise during the next two years."

The Mayor's action is believed to be unprecedented in municipal government in this country.

MRS. HAYWARD'S WILLS.

Former Judge Henry Says the Aged Widow, Before Death, Repudiated Oakland Testament.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sensational developments may be expected in the probating of the wills of Mrs. Charity Hayward. The assertion was made today by former Judge Thomas S. Henry of Newark, at whose home the aged widow died, that she repudiated the will alleged to have been made in 1903, which has been ordered for examination of the court at Oakland.

"Mrs. Hayward" said Judge Henry, "was astonished to hear of a will alleged to have been made by her in 1903, and she repudiated it absolutely. If such a document existed, with her name attached to it, she declared to me, she must have been imposed upon, and the will must have been signed by her in the belief that it was some paper of an entirely different nature."

The "Rainer" strike is unjust and the boycott unfair, if for no other reason than that both were entered into without a proper hearing.—[Adv.

Thomas F. Ryan's Syndicate Secures Hyde's Stock.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Equitable Life Assurance Society has been mutualized. Paul Morton is its "overlord" and his election to that position has startled the city, involving, as it does a financial combination that makes familiar Wall-street giants look like dwarfs. He celebrated the election by demanding and receiving the resignations of P. E. Alexander, Vice-President James Hagen Hyde, Second Vice-President Gage E. Tarbell, Third Vice-President George T. Wilson and Fourth Vice-President William H. McIntyre. These resignations Morton now holds. It is expected that he will accept Alexander's and Tarbell's at once.

Hyde has sold a majority of the stock that made him a dictator of the company to a syndicate of policyholders headed by Thomas F. Ryan. This syndicate has in turn invited Grover Cleveland, Supreme Court Justice Morgan J. O'Brien and George Westinghouse to become trustees for Hyde stock. These trustees are to elect all directors, twenty-eight of them, in accordance with instructions of policyholders and the remaining twenty-four according to the trustees' own views. This course is adopted in order that the policyholders and public generally should be convinced that the mutualization of the insurance company was an actuality. No formal statement of the amount paid to Hyde for his stock was made, but it was permitted to circulate that the price was between four and five million dollars.

The effect of the extraordinary proceeding has been rather different from what was expected. The public is more inclined to marvel at the stupendous financial combination that has been made than to consider the force and effect of Hyde's surrender of the Equitable. It has caused more talk of subways than of insurance, though Paul Morton himself has declared that he is now out of the traction business. The circumstance that August Belmont, Czar of the interurban system, seconded the nomination of Morton, the nominee of Thomas F. Ryan, director of the Interborough, is taken to mean that, in smoothing the rough road of the Equitable, the magnates have taken occasion to fasten upon New York City traffic a monopoly that will control the elevated, surface and subways alike, and that will end the struggle for extensions and new subways before the Rapid Transit Commission, and so avoid any competition.

By his purchase of the Hyde stock, Thomas F. Ryan has completed perhaps the most far-reaching deal ever conceived in Wall street. He becomes a financial Colossus like J. P. Morgan. He has brought into direct community of interest financial concerns with resources of $1,446,000,000, not to mention this staggering weight of millions represented by the affiliated concerns. Ryan stands as the unofficial head of this huge combination, which has assets greater than the Steel Trust, and which has more actual money on hand than the United States government. Altogether, it gives the financial world such a shake-up as it has not had for a generation. It shifts completely the center of gravity and lessens immensely the personal influence of the Rockefellers.

It needs but a slight stretch of the imagination to figure out a Standard Oil victory, as Ryan is in many things a representative of that group of capitalists. Some insisted last night that he is only acting for the Standard Oil in this matter, but his closest friends insisted that it was a personal deal, and that he alone was entitled to credit. He and Attorney Samuel Untermyer, have advised Hyde in every move. The largest question yet to be worked out is how long this stock is to remain in the hands of the trustees.

MORTON'S ELECTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—Paul Morton, who retires from the Secretaryship of the Navy July 1, was today elected chairman of the board of directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. His election marks the first and most important step in the reorganization of the society, and was followed by the tender of the resignations of President James W. Alexander, Vice-President James H. Hyde, Second Vice-President Gage E. Tarbell, Third Vice-President George T. Wilson and Fourth Vice-President William H. McIntyre. It is known that Brayton Ives and Charles Stewart Smith, who were from the outset of the controversy on the side of the conservative element, protested against some of the proceedings of the meeting.

The new chairman, to quote Senator Depew, did not consent to take office until he had received positive assurances that he would have a "free hand as to measures and men." Mr. Hyde "divested" himself of the majority control, but, as made clear in his letter to the board, retains a substantial interest in the society.

All of the resignations submitted to the meeting are subject to the pleasure of Chairman Morton, and none has yet been accepted. Just what action Morton will take as to these resignations was not disclosed, but it was strongly intimated that President Alexander and Vice-Presidents Tarbell, Wilson and McIntyre retired with the belief that their executive relations with the Equitable had ended.

The interests to which Hyde disposed of his stock number some two-score individuals, led by Thomas F. Ryan, vice-president of the Morton Trust Company, which has close relations with the Mutual Life Insurance Company, one of the Equitable Society's principle rivals. Ryan is said to be heavily insured in the Equitable, as are, according to reports, many of the others who acted with him in the purchase of the Hyde holdings.

The price paid for the Hyde estate stock which is to be trusteed practically in perpetuity, was not disclosed, but estimates vary from $3,500,000 to $5,000,000. In addition to the 502 shares held by the Hyde estate, which includes the widow of Henry B. Hyde, founder of the society, and his daughter, Vice-President Hyde is said to hold between one hundred and sixty and one hundred and seventy shares, and it is these holdings which Untermyer refers to as the "substantial interests" which his client retains.

The men reported to hold the majority stock by Ryan are former President Cleveland, George Westinghouse of Pittsburgh, and Morgan J. O'Brien, recently elevated to the Chief Justiceship of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of this district. Ryan is the acknowledged head of the Metropolitan Traction Company, and only a fortnight ago induced Morton to ally himself with this interest as the operating chief of the New York City Railway Company, by which title the Metropolitan surface lines and their affiliated companies in Manhattan and the Bronx are corporately known.

Concerning the purchase of the Equitable stock and the disposition of it, Thomas F. Ryan said:

"In connection with some other policyholders who, like myself, have never had any relations with the Equitable, except as policyholders, I have purchased from Mr. Hyde a majority stock of that society. We have made this purchase for the sake of putting an end to the present unfortunate condition of the company's affairs, not only in the interest of the policyholders, but for the general business interests of the entire country. We propose, upon receiving the stock, to immediately divest ourselves of all voting power, and accomplish in substance and effect the plan of mutualization already approved by the Superintendent of Insurance. We propose to do this by conveying the stock to a board of trustees, composed of men of such character as to command universal confidence, and having no connection with Wall street, with power to vote the stock for the election of directors —as to twenty-eight directors in accordance with the instructions of the policyholders of the society, and as to the remaining twenty-four directors in accordance with the uncontrolled judgment of the trustees.

"These will at once accomplish the object of putting the control of the company in the hands of the policyholders, and will eliminate entirely the one-man power to which so much objection has been made."

The selection of Morton, in the opinion of those who have followed events is in the nature of a compromise and a victory for the Hyde faction. Untermeyer said: "Mr. Hyde has sold a majority of the stock to a representative of the policy-holders represented by Thomas F. Ryan, and of whom he is one. Mr. Hyde retains a substantial stock interest, and will continue to be identified with the company."

This evening Ryan made public a letter to Cleveland, named as one of the trustees. Copies were also sent to Justice O'Brien and Westinghouse. After reviewing Equitable affairs in the letter, Ryan asks Cleveland to accept a place on the Board of Trustees, saying: "I beg you to act as an agent of this board with other gentlemen who shall be of a character entirely satisfactory to you. I should not venture to ask this of you on any personal grounds, but to restore this great trust, affecting so many people of slender means, to soundness and public confidence would certainly be a great public service, and this view emboldens me to make the request."

Morton's election is believed to mean the solution of the controversy which began between the Hyde and Alexander forces and the establishment of the reforms demanded.

HYDE AND HIS STOCK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—The following statement was given out today at the Equitable Life Assurance Society offices on behalf of James H. Hyde:

"Any statements to the effect that I intend to sell my stock in the Equitable is untrue."

Notwithstanding Hyde's denial, it is learned that negotiations for some form of transfer of the Hyde holdings are in progress.

A conference has been held, says the World, lasting until an early hour this morning, at which negotiations for the purchase of the stock control of the Equitable Life Assurance Society owned by Hyde, were made by George J. Gould on behalf of a syndicate of financiers and business men.

"When the conference ended," the World asserts, "satisfactory progress had been made, and it is expected that the sale of Mr. Hyde's stock will be ratified before the meeting of the Equitable directors, which will take place at 1 p.m. today.

"The greatest secrecy concerning the conference was maintained. It began early in the night in the home of one of Mr. Hyde's lawyers, and from there the conferees went to another place. Mr. Hyde, attended by his lawyers, Samuel Untermeyer, Elihu Root and William C. Gulliver, was present. The price offered was a sum said to be in excess of $4,000,000 and less than $5,000,000 for the 502 shares, which have a par value of $50,200, and which were valued at the time of Henry B. Hyde's death for the purpose of fixing the State inheritance tax, at $250 a share, or $125,500.

"Mr. Hyde is said to have expressed a willingness to sell on certain conditions, these included:

"First—That the stock should be trusteed by the new owners and voted so that the policy-holders should elect twenty-eight directors and the stockholders twenty-four directors.

"Second—That he should be given his own time to retire as a director of the Equitable, but that if the new owners so decided he would surrender the office of first vice-president.

"Third—That neither E. H. Harriman nor Henry C. Frick should have any direct or indirect connection with the purchase of the stock.

"Mr. Hyde is said to have remarked, in connection with the last stipulation, that rather than allow one of the men named to obtain control, he would make a bonfire of his stock.

"Who is behind Mr. Gould in the reported negotiations could not be learned. It is believed that he is merely acting in the matter as an intermediary for others, because of his friendship and influence with Mr. Hyde."

Valentine P. Snyder, a director of the Equitable, and president of the National Bank of Commerce, was examined by Superintendent Hendricks today in the department's investigation of Equitable affairs.

Capital Joins Moscow in Demanding Assembly.

The Zemstvoists and Mayors Await Czar's Reply.

Government is Preparing to Time Proclamation.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Municipality of St. Petersburg has decided to give its adhesion to the address to Emperor Nicholas adopted by the All-Russian Zemstvo Congress at Moscow and has appointed a number of its members to join the deputation from the Moscow congress which will present the address to the Emperor.

WAITING FOR REPLY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 9, 6:45 p.m.—The important fact developed today that the Moscow meeting of zemstvoists and Mayors has not finally adjourned but only temporarily adjourned to await the Emperor's answer to the deputation dispatched to him with the sensational addresses telegraphed from Moscow yesterday, demanding the immediate convocation of a national assembly.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 9.—The government, in the present emergency, is acting with great wisdom. It is preparing to time the proclamation of a national assembly with the announcement that peace negotiations have begun. The Committee of Ministers is hurrying its examination of the Bouligin Rescript Commission's project for the "Gosadarstvennaia Dula" ("imperial duma") scheme already outlined in these dispatches, its consideration having commenced yesterday and continuing today.

Practically no alterations are being made in the text and the Associated Press learns from a prominent Russian Statesman conversant with the situation that the review of the Bouligin commission's project is purely formal, as a manifesto promulgating a law giving the Russian people a voice in legislation is already drafted. The informant of the Associated Press claims to have seen the original and he expects the law to be proclaimed early next week.

HUNDRED SHOT AT MINSK.

MASSACRES ARE RESUMED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Reports have been received of rioting at Minsk, in which nearly a hundred persons were shot. Other telegrams describe the resumption of the massacre at Erivan on Wednesday.

LIBERALS FORCING THINGS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10.—The commencement of formal peace negotiations, especially if coupled with the prompt announcement of the convoking of a national assembly, may avert the threatened crisis which the liberals are forcing on the government, or it may only serve to precipitate it.

Moscow is now a perfect hotbed of protest against the existing régime. The address of the All-Russian Zemstvo Congress has been brought to St. Petersburg to be presented to the Emperor. It fairly stunned the members of the Government. Nothing approaching such language used in the document from men of such standing as those who signed it has ever before been heard in Russia. There is a peremptory ring about it which is ominous.

Those bearing the address come to St. Petersburg claiming to be the plenipotentiaries of the Russian people, delivering an ultimatum, not begging terms, but demanding rights and almost threatening the government with civil war if it does not yield.

What is more ominous still is that the body which this deputation represents has not left Moscow, but has only adjourned awaiting the Emperor's reply.

POLICE USE DRAWN SWORDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MOSCOW, June 9.—Police with drawn swords charged a mob of 2000 workmen here yesterday, wounding many of them. The workmen refused to disperse when ordered and the police fired blank revolver shots at them. The mob stood firm whereupon the police charged and scattered it. There were no further disturbances.

Congress Irrigation Committee is Shown Things.

Put in Big Day Around Yuma and Start Along.

The Party Will Arrive in Los Angeles Sunday Night.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

YUMA (Ariz.) June 9.—The Senate and House Committee on Irrigation, engineers of the reclamation service and press correspondents and photographers arrived in Yuma early this morning, where they were met by an enthusiastic delegation consisting of Gov. Pardee, Senator Flint, Congressmen McLachlan and Kahn and Representatives of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, the California Promotion Committee, the United States engineers in California and others.

The entire party, about fifty, was driven through the surrounding country, where they were shown the marvels that irrigation has already accomplished in a once desert region. Five thousand acres of land are now under irrigation. A visit was made to the Blaisdell ranch, where oranges, figs and grape-fruit grow close to great fields of luxuriant alfalfa, and also to the experimental station recently established by the United States Department of Agriculture for date culture.

At a public reception, Senator Newlands stated that the Yuma irrigation project would probably be finished in two or two and one-half years. This project contemplates the irrigation of 87,000 acres through a diversion canal taking water out of the Colorado River ten miles above Yuma. In event the government takes over the Imperial systems, this canal will be extended twenty miles. Three million dollars has been set aside from the reclamation fund for the Yuma project, one million dollars of which will be devoted to the construction of headgates.

MONDELL'S PLEDGE.

Chairman F. W. Mondell, of the House Committee on Irrigation, pledged the support of the irrigation committees to the development of this great country "west of the West." Of the members of the present party, said Mr. Mondell, five were among the seventeen who drafted the Reclamation Act and all had worked for it.

The party took the steamer Searchlight to the lower headgates of the Imperial systems as guests of the United States Reclamation Service. The Colorado River this spring threatened to use these canals as a main channel but the situation is now well under control and it is anticipated that there will be no further difficulty. It is believed that the Southern Pacific Railroad company will shortly engage in active work in its cooperation toward improvement of the Imperial systems.

Unusual interest is taken by the Congress party in the California situation. "In the southern part of the State of California," said Elwood Mead, of the United States Department of Agriculture, "water is more valuable than anywhere else in the world. It is put to marvelous use and brings wonderful results. It is our purpose not only to render more waters available for agriculture but find means for a greater economy in the waters now used."

WANT TO SEE SACRAMENTO.

All members of the party are anxious to see the great Sacramento Valley, which presents all phases of the irrigation question, including irrigation of semi-arid lands, reclamation of swamp lands, drainage, and the improvement of navigation.

"In the Sacramento Valley, we will have the whole situation. It is the largest reclamation project in the United States and all members of our party are looking forward to our visit through there and in wonderful Southern California," said Mr. Blanchard, of the Reclamation Service, who has charge of the party.

Tomorrow the Congress committee and guides will visit the Imperial district, leaving here by special train at 9:30 tonight. A drive of seventeen miles will be made through Imperial Valley. J. B. Lippincott of the United States Geological Survey, has a corps of competent engineers explaining technicalities and features of the situation.

MANY SURPRISES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

IMPERIAL JUNCTION, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The westward trip of the committee has brought many surprises to the delegates, both as to the work already accomplished by the Reclamation Service and that which may be realized in the future. They are amazed at the fertility of the soil under irrigation and do not hesitate to voice their approval of the work as it is being carried on by the Reclamation Service.

At the dinner given tonight at Yuma by local officials of the Reclamation Service and members of the Water Users' Association, Senator Newlands of Nevada, known as one of the fathers of the Reclamation Act, addressed the water users at some length, assuring them that the reservoir at the Laguna damsite would be built, and that if there was any question as to water rights that could be settled later.

J. B. Lippincott, supervising engineer of the Reclamation Service, also addressed the assembly, speaking especially of the rights of the United States to divert the waters of the Colorado River and touching upon this aspect of the case with regard to the attitude of Mexico.

The Southern Pacific has placed at the disposal of the committee a special train of five Pullmans and a buffet car. Two special cars brought the delegates from Kansas City, and were combined at Yuma with the three coaches from San Francisco and Los Angeles, carrying Gov. Pardee and the California welcoming committee.

ESPEE COURTESIES.

The railroad has made up this train, running on special schedule, both for the convenience of the committee and to allow at the same time prominent California men, representing the leading interests of the State, to meet and accompany the eastern delegation.

The reclamation service is represented with the Congress committee by C. J. Blanchard, Chief Statistician, who is engaged in pointing out the features of the work especially to be noted and discussed.

Besides Gov. Pardee and party, the committee was met at Yuma by Senator Flint and General Superintendent Ingram of the Southern Pacific, who will accompany them to Los Angeles. George A. Parkyns, assistant general passenger agent, is also representing the Southern Pacific and looking out for the welfare of its guests.

In his address tonight, Senator Newlands wished especially to correct the impression of government paternalism in irrigation projects. He declared the people themselves are doing it all, the government simply financing the proposition, as a banker might a business proposition.

Tomorrow will be spent visiting irrigated lands in and about Imperial, Calexico and Holtville, and will include a run down across the Mexican border, on the new line to Yuma, as far as rails have been laid. The special will reach Imperial tomorrow morning and Los Angeles at 6 o'clock Sunday night.

BUTTE COUNTY CANAL.

HEAD GATES ARE OPENED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GRIDLEY, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With the opening of the head gates and the turning of water into the Butte County canal today, what is probably the most important irrigating enterprise in Northern California is now in working order. There were no hitches or accidents, the river pouring its water into the canal as the gates were raised.

The canal is 14 miles long, 30 feet wide on the bottom and carries 25,000 inches of water, equivalent to 500 cubic feet per second, and will irrigate 80,000 acres. What was formerly an exclusive grain-farming section is rapidly being transformed into a region of diversified farms and settlers from the East are rapidly coming in.

EVIDENCE OF MURDER.

GHASTLY FIND NEAR SUISUN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VALLEJO, June 9.—The body of an unknown man, who is believed to have been murdered, was found this morning by a train crew, lying beside the railroad track, a quarter of a mile this side of Suisun. At first, the members of the train crew believed that the deceased had been run over, but on investigation found that his head had been battered to a pulp by a stick found close by, covered with blood.

Most of the clothing had been stolen from the corpse, only the underwear, an outside shirt of dark material and the shoes being left.

The officers who are investigating the case believe the dead man may have been murdered by one of the prisoners who recently escaped from the jail of Fairfax, and took the opportunity to change the clothing of his victim for prison garb.

There is no clew to the identity of the deceased, who had evidently been dead about ten hours when found. He was about 30 years old, and was 5 feet 10 inches in height.

BIG STRIKE OF GOLD.

RICHEST EVER AT THE ROYAL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] What is believed to be the largest and richest strike ever made in a California mine was uncovered early this morning at the Royal Mine, Hodson, Calavaras county, when, on the 160-foot level, a cross-vein, which has been traced to the surface, was located. It is about forty feet in width on the 500-foot level, and assays from $10 to $50 per ton. This is of immense value, as it lies above the flat vein, or what is called the "mother" vein, and places in sight many thousand tons of high-grade ore.

The Royal Mine has been a profitable piece of property for years, but most of the ore has been of a low grade, and has seldom run over $3 ton. Of recent years the mine has been the cause of much litigation. It was originally bonded for $400,000, but of late years it is estimated to be worth $4,000,000. An English syndicate, represented by J. C. Kemp Vane, controls it.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Severe Northwester Delays Vessels.

ASTORIA (Or.) June 9.—The steamship St. Paul, with passengers and cargo from San Francisco, arrived here today, twenty-four hours overdue, as the result of a severe northwester. The oil tank steamer Whittier arrived off the bay ten days late, having been delayed by the same gale.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—The Board of Bank Commissioners has issued licenses for the establishment of the Security Savings Bank and Trust Company at San Diego, and the Security Savings Bank of Stanislaus County, at Modesto. The first-named institution is capitalized at $125,000 and the other at $25,500.

SACRAMENTO, June 9.—The Bar Association of Sacramento County has appointed a committee to contest the Saturday half-holiday law as applied to city and county offices, taking the position that it is unconstitutional.

Jury Acquits Maestretti.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—The jury in the case of F. W. Maestretti, president of the Board of Public Works, brought in a verdict of acquittal tonight. Maestretti was charged with subornation of perjury in connection with the case of Wyan, charged with violating the primary election laws.

Alleged Counterfeiter Arrested.

SANTA ROSA, June 9.—John Duffy, who has resided in this city several months, was arrested today on the charge of counterfeiting. Several spurious coins and three moulds for making silver dollars were found in his rooms. The arrest was brought about in a peculiar manner. Duffy accosted an officer and said as he expected to be arrested he preferred to have a friend perform the act.

Auditor Won't Draw Warrants.

MARYSVILLE, June 9.—Mandamus proceedings have been commenced against County Auditor Gunning to compel him to draw warrants for the salaries of the constables and justices of Yuba county. The last Legislature passed a law giving these officials in Yuba county salaries instead of fees and the Auditor refused to draw warrants, on the ground that the salaries do not go into effect during the terms of the present incumbents.

Discuss Blasdel's Disappearance.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—Lieut. William G. Blasdel's mysterious death was fully discussed today on board the revenue cutter Rush by the commission appointed from Washington to investigate the circumstances of the officer's disappearance and probable drowning from that vessel early last Tuesday morning. It was the opinion of the commission that a slight lurch of the vessel precipitated Lieut. Blasdel into the water, and that he was drowned.

Boy Shoots His Grandmother.

SALINAS, June 9.—A report from Chualar to the effect that a fifteen-year-old boy named Roberts had shot Mrs. William Moore, his grandmother, caused the Sheriff to go to Chualar tonight. From the slight information obtainable it seems that ill-feeling existed between the families, and that Roberts had often threatened Mrs. Moore. During a quarrel this afternoon, the boy, who had the rifle, shot Mrs. Moore in the head. Neighbors notified the officers, but as they have telephoned that they will not be back till morning, full details are not obtainable.

Big Warehouse Deal Consummated.

STOCKTON, June 9.—The Oakdale Milling Company today consummated a deal whereby it will take over and operate all of the twenty-three warehouses formerly owned by the Haslacher-Kahn Company, under what was known as the "H. & K" Company. The buildings are located in San Joaquin, Stanislaus and Merced counties, and are along the Santa Fé and Southern Pacific railroads. Al Haslacher, who is in charge of the Oakdale mill, will manage the warehouses.

Salinas Banker Seriously Injured.

SALINAS, June 9.—While driving a colt which had only been lately broken, James H. McDougall, president of the Salinas City Bank, and James Webster, another prominent citizen, were seriously injured. The horse took fright at a locomotive and ran away. The buggy upset, throwing out the occupants, and McDougall was kicked several times by the horse. The ankle of his right leg was shattered and his right thigh broken. Besides, he was injured internally. Webster was injured internally. Physicians fear that McDougall will not survive.

Teamsters Try to Reopen Peace Negotiations.

Chicago Employers Through With Shea's Crowd.

New Jersey Paupers Go on a Short-lived Strike.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, June 9.—Aside from one or two feeble efforts to open peace negotiations, there were no developments today in the teamsters' strike. The attempts at peace failed utterly. The chief effort toward a settlement was made by a committee of the teamsters which attempted to open separate negotiations with the large State-street department stores. Every effort of the strikers in this direction has heretofore produced no result whatever, and the move of today met with the same fate as did its predecessors.

STRIKERS FEAR TRICK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, June 9.—Disappointed by a sudden turn of affairs that resulted in President Shea being subpoenaed to Wheaton, Ill., today, leaders in the teamsters' strike paused in forcing definite peace moves. They feared some sort of trick in the unexpected demand upon the chief executive of the brotherhood of teamsters.

Shea had just reiterated his belief that a conference of strike leaders and employers might be brought about with bright chances for a settlement if both himself and Attorney Levy Mayer, counsel for the employers, were not included in the make-up of the conference. While still talking, Shea was served with a legal paper demanding his presence in a court in the neighboring county, in the "Panhandle railroad case," he said.

Previous to the departure of Shea, a committee of the Department Store Drivers' Union had reopened negotiations with department store employers, looking for another general conference with representatives of the employers' association. Attorney Mayer had given his positive assurances that he was ready to meet a committee of the teamsters any time it had a proposition to offer, so that when the strike shall have been ended no striker may say that the drivers were refused a conference.

The matter requiring the presence of Shea at Wheaton had seemingly no bearing upon the teamsters' strike. He was said to have been asked to identify a document signed by E. V. Debs in connection with the American Railway Union strike of 1894. Shea declared that he could not supply the required identification. Shea had been called as a witness in a damage suit for $500,000 brought against the City of Chicago by the Panhandle Railroad. The railroad company declares this sum indemnity for the burning of 700 cars at Fifty-eighth street during the strike of 1894.

NO FURTHER CONCESSION.

Another attempt to arrange for a new peace conference has resulted in a reiteration by the employers that they will make no further concessions.

Announcement was made today by the employers' Teaming Company that men were reporting daily to its agents in seven cities, and that it would be possible to rush to Chicago 400 men a day in the event of a further extension of the strike.

The garment workers, the original cause of the present strike, have come to the conclusion that the teamsters have forgotten the "sympathy" which two months ago prompted them to strike in aid of the tailors. At a meeting of all the special order locals the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, that in the event of the teamsters union calling off their strike it be the sense of the organization that such action shall not terminate in any way the struggle which the garment workers are carrying on against the National Wholesale Tailors' Association, unless the teamsters' settlement carries with it a satisfactory settlement of the garment workers' question."

George J. Jackson, a tallyman employed by a lumber company, was attacked last night by three union "sluggers" and probably fatally injured. His assailants, who escaped, accused him of being a strike-breaker.

PLAN TO AMALGAMATE.

GARMENT WORKERS COMBINE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—The International Woman's Garment Workers Union, now in convention here, has appointed a committee to confer with the United States Garment Workers and the Journeymen Custom Tailors Union, with a view to amalgamation of the trade bodies. If successfully carried through, the combine will make an international organization of clothing workers with a membership of 300,000. The Custom Tailors Union and the United Garment Workers have already appointed conference committees. A plan of amalgamation will be prepared and submitted to a referendum vote.

The Union also decided to levy a per capita tax of ten cents a month on every member, for a strike fund.

PAUPERS GO ON STRIKE.

MERRIMENT IN ALMSHOUSE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—Considerable merriment has been caused by a strike of paupers in a county almshouse just outside Jersey City. The men detailed to act as bakers organized and elected a walking delegate who notified the county board in charge of the institution that his fellows would not kneed the almshouse dough until their names were put on the pay-roll with the attendants and other employés.

The delegate explained to the board that the bakers were entitled to pay, because, unlike many other paupers, they do not desert the institution during the summer months to recuperate at the seashore and in the mountains, but remain at their duties in the bake shop and work faithfully for the county.

The board refused the demand and informed the strikers that they would be put to work in the stone quarries if they do not return to work in the bake shop.

Eight-hour Conference Opens.

CHICAGO, June 9.—The eight-hour conference of the International Typographical Union in the central district, which includes Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri, opened here today. Where the book and job shops have been working a nine-hour day the union asks an eight-hour day.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS ELECTION.

TOPEKA (Kan.) June 9.—The Royal Neighbors of America have reelected Mrs. N. D. Watts of Omaha Supreme Oracle and Mrs. Emma O. Reave of Athol, S. D., Supreme Vice-Oracle. Among the Supreme Physicians named is Addie F. Kirkpatrick, M.D., Whatcom, Washington. Supreme Marshal, Lulu Case, Pasadena, Cal.; Supreme Outer Sentinel, Mrs. Olive Weightman, Laramie, Wyo. The convention endorsed the consumptive sanitarium scheme at Las Vegas, projected by Dr. Warner. The next convention will be in Chicago, in May, 1908.

THIRTEEN BODIES ENTOMBED.

Only One Victim of Sinking of Submarine A-8 so Far Recovered.

Cause of Accident.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PLYMOUTH (Eng.) June 9.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Submarine boat A-8, which was lost off the breakwater here yesterday morning, rests on an even keel in a sandy bottom. Thirteen bodies are still entombed in the boat, divers who worked all day long recovering only one body. It is said that the vessel will be refloated tomorrow.

The dangers incident to the employment of submarine vessels received a fresh illustration at the court of inquiry into the loss of the A-8, which was held here today. The evidence went to support the theory that the accident was due to the deflection of the horizontal rudder while the boat was running lightly on the surface, with her full buoyancy, and the cover of the conning tower open. The effect of the rudder being deflected under such conditions was the cause of the rapid downward movement which has been described as a "dip." This brought the top of the conning tower awash, admitting an inrush of water. The divers discovered that there were no holes in the vessel.

The Pioneer

A SAN FRANCISCO BOOK—BY A SAN FRANCISCO AUTHOR—ABOUT SAN FRANCISCO PEOPLE.

Perhaps the best thing in this new novel, "The Pioneer," is the intimate view it gives of a side of Californian nature which has been recognized as its best—that tenderness bound in roughness which blossomed here in the early days. It is the most distinctly Californian book that has come from the press in many a day.—Oakland Herald.

To those who have known and felt the charm and romance and tumult of California "The Pioneer" will be especially interesting, as the picture it presents of the exciting bonanza days is drawn with a skilled hand, which brings into prominence the people and conditions in one of the most spectacular periods of California's history.—Toledo Blade.

"The Pioneer" is a good love story in three great "scenic panoramas"—one might well call them—the foothill country which ends in the Golden Gate; San Francisco, and the Nevada desert land of the bonanza days of the 70's.—Boston Globe.

CROPS AND THE WEATHER.

Damage in Various Sections of the Country.

Georgia Peach Orchards Suffer Most Severely.

President Going to Virginia. Watershed Plans.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Contrary weather is doing much damage to the fruit crops in various parts of the country. By a strange freak on the part of nature, one section of the East is drying up because of scarcity of rain, while another section is being flooded with too many showers.

Information received by Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture indicates that the Georgia peach crop has been badly damaged by long-continued rains. Reports from government agents in that State say that this year's crop will be only about one-third of that of last year. Up in Northern New York and in New England, the reverse is true. The late spring delayed the budding of fruit trees, and now orchards are suffering from insufficient rain.

To the westward, in Michigan and adjoining States, there has been an abundance of rain, too much, in fact, for proper development of the fruit crop. California will have a light crop of peaches and oranges this year, on account of adverse climatic conditions. While the peach crop of the Eastern States will not be remarkable for size, the prospects for an apple crop are brighter.

RUSSELL'S TESTIMONY MILD.
MINISTER BOWEN'S OFFER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 9.—In the presence of Assistant Secretary of State Loomis and Minister Bowen, Secretary Taft today heard a statement from W. W. Russell, the American minister who has been transferred from Bogota to Caracas and who was secretary of the legation under Loomis at Venezuela, regarding matters connected with what is known as the Bowen-Loomis controversy. The inquiry today concerned chiefly the Mercador claim and Loomis's connection with it. The testimony of Russell was not of a sensational character. Its effect on the case cannot be learned at the War Department.

At the close of the inquiry, Mr. Bowen filed the following request: "I now have the honor respectfully to suggest that if any doubt remains in your mind as to the culpability of Mr. Loomis, I be ordered to return to Caracas, and that, with Capt. Parker and Consul Hurst, I be instructed to take the testimony of any additional persons acquainted with the facts in this case, and be provided with letters requesting Mr. Loomis's bankers and the Venezuelan government to give to me certified copies of any papers that may tend to prove the nature of Mr. Loomis's transactions while he was minister to Venezuela."

Secretary Taft has not yet acted on this request, and will probably await the arrival of a Mr. Unwin from New York, formerly connected with an asphalt concern in Caracas, who will be queried regarding the check which is said to have been exchanged between Mr. Loomis and the asphalt company.

SAN GABRIEL FORESTRY.

OFFICIAL PLAN FOR PLANTING.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A planting plan for certain important watersheds and reservoirs for the treatment of lands in the interior of the San Gabriel forest reserve, California, have just been completed by A. T. Hartie, of the Bureau of Forestry. This report considers the possibilities of planting on various types of denuded and chaparral-covered land in these mountains, and embodies recommendations as to species which should be used and methods of planting, and loses the slopes which are in most urgent need of attention.

The chaparral growth has been divided into five well-defined types which require special treatment. The most hardy species, such as the knob cone, Monterey and digger pine will be planted in more unfavorable situations, while the more valuable, but less hardy species, such as yellow, sugar and Coulter pine and spruce and cedar will be planted on more favorable sites.

FRENCH HONORS TO JONES.

Torpedo Boat Will Carry Body Down the Seine and Deliver It to American Squadron.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, June 9, 1:20 p.m.—[Atlantic Cable.] The French government has accepted its willingness to assign a torpedo boat to carry the body of Paul Jones down the River Seine from Paris to Havre, where a French squadron will deliver the body to the American squadron. This will necessitate a change in the rendezvous of the American squadron from Cherbourg to Havre, which is now under consideration.

Capt. T. Bentley Mott, the retiring American military attaché here, has received the cross of the Legion of Honor with a letter from ex-Foreign Minister Delcasse, under whom it was bestowed. Capt. Mott's successor, Lieut. Wm. S. Guignard, has arrived here and has taken up his duties, but Capt. Mott will remain in Paris until December, when he will serve on the staff of Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, head of the American mission to the French military maneuvers.

DIES FROM YELLOW FEVER.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Frank O'Leary of Buffalo died at the government hospital on Swinburne Island today of yellow fever. He was taken ill on the former Segurança while en route from Colon to this city and was transferred to the hospital upon the steamer's arrival. The steamer Segurança brought nearly one hundred passengers, many of whom had resigned their positions on the Panama Canal because of the health conditions on the isthmus.

THE GREAT WAR.

ing the public for the announcement that the Emperor has decided to conclude peace and that the negotiations have been begun by permitting the publication of all the foreign dispatches bearing on the subject. The newspapers and the Russian public however, have, until now, had only a suspicion that important moves were going on behind the scenes.

Prices on the Bourse today were strong and buoyant on the peace prospects. Fours rose 5-8.

ONE DISSENTING VOICE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ROME, June 9.—The Italia prints an interview with M. Kroupensky, Chargé d'Affaires of the Russian embassy, who says there is no possibility of negotiations for peace, nor is there a likelihood even of pour parleurs for the cessation of hostilities. M. Kroupensky adds that the result of the naval battle has not changed the situation of the opposing armies in Manchuria, which must decide the fate of the belligerents.

LONG PEACE CONFERENCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 9, Midnight.—M. Boutiron, First Secretary of the French embassy, had a long conference with Foreign Minister Lamsdorf this afternoon and M. Bompard, the French Ambassador, is hurrying back from Paris. France, instead of displaying jealousy at the initiative taken by President Roosevelt with a view to bringing Russia and Japan together for peace, has apparently warmly welcomed it and will give its coöperation. No further development is now expected until President Roosevelt returns to Washington from his trip to Virginia.

Statements in the dispatches that the President's sole aim is to bring the warring powers together in direct negotiations have been confirmed. There has been no undertaking on his part to apprise Russia of Japan's terms, nor, it is believed, to find a preliminary basis for negotiations. The main obstacle to the President's efforts has been removed at the Emperor's acquiescence in his initiative and negotiations are probably now proceeding at Tokio.

When the question of the naming of peace plenipotentiaries is raised, the name of George de Staal, who preceded Count Benkendorff as Russian Ambassador at London and who was president of the peace conference at The Hague in 1899, at once occurs to every Russian.

MUCH SKEPTICISM.

Notwithstanding the progress already made, a great deal of skepticism is manifested in certain quarters as to the result of the President's efforts. The public seems reluctant to believe that the Emperor could have assented to anything like a movement toward peace. Some cynics even try to create the impression that Russia only seeks to ascertain Japan's terms and then, by flaunting the hard conditions imposed in the faces of the representatives of the people when they meet, to arouse the whole nation to resist them. Such talk, however, is mere irresponsible chatter. The Emperor has cast the die and will make peace if Japan's terms be such that Russia can accept them with dignity.

The Emperor, it must be pointed out, has not sued for peace. He has only assented to a proposition submitted by the head of a friendly power, and the matter officially goes no further than that Russia, now as ever, is ready to see if a comman basis can be reached.

USE FIELD GUNS LIKE RIFLES.

JAPANESE TEACH NEW TRICK WITH ARTILLERY.

Instead of Employing Their Big Guns Only in Direct Fire, in Manchuria, They Have Shot up Russians from Over Hilltops and Even Villages.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "The most remarkable lessons that artillerymen have learned from the war in the Far East relate to new uses of field artillery and the return to old methods of making frequent use of field entrenchments. The Japanese and the Russians are the first to employ field artillery for indirect fire, and the success that has attended their efforts in this regard is little short of phenomenal."

This statement was made today by a bureau chief of the War Department who is also a member of the General Staff of the army. He is an authority on all matters relating to artillery and ordance. He has received confidential reports from American observers with the Japanese armies in Manchuria, explaining the important evolution in the use of field artillery.

Until the present war, field guns have been employed only in direct fire, that is, in shooting in a direct line, with the enemy in full sight of the gunner.

"The Japanese have maneuvered their field guns just as rifles in coast-defence batteries are operated," the chief said. "Instead of bringing their pieces up in plain view of the Russians, the Japanese being located in the rear of villages and in some cases as far back as half a mile, in the rear of hills and small mountains. They shoot over the hilltops and even over the villages, their shells landing with remarkable regularity in the midst of the enemy."

VIRGINIA LAND-OWNER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE (Va.) June 9.—The President today paid his first visit to the Albemarle farm, which Mrs. Roosevelt recently purchased from William N. Wilmer, a New York banker, and which she purposes using for short visits at any time she may feel like leaving Washington for rest and quiet. Small crowds gathered at several points en route.

The President left the train on which he came from Washington at Red Hill, a little station nine miles south of Charlottesville. When he alighted from the train, he was cordially greeted by Wilmer. To the persons on the platform, the President lifted his hat in greeting, and said: "I am glad to meet you, gentlemen. I am glad to become a landholder in your community."

The President rode horseback to the farm of Joseph Wilmer, twelve miles distant, to join Mrs. Roosevelt. The ride was down the Hardware River, which abounds in beautiful scenery. The afternoon was almost perfect. The President will remain in Albemarle until Monday, he and Mrs. Roosevelt dividing their time between the homes of the Wilmer brothers and the modest little two-story dwelling on the 15-acre tract of land which Mrs. Roosevelt recently purchased. This farm is situated one and one-half miles east of Keene postoffice, in the southern part of the county, and six or eight miles north of Scottsville. The residence, which has recently been improved to suit the needs and tastes of Mrs. Roosevelt, is deep in the heart of the woods.

Mrs. Roosevelt reached Red Hill yesterday afternoon, from Washington.

"PREHISTORIC MONSTER."

Congressman Allen's Term for the Old Orchard Carcass With the "Ancient and Fish-like Smell."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Tribune's Boston special says that, according to the statement of Congressman Amos S. Allen of Maine, a scientist, the body washed up on the beach at Old Orchard, Thursday, is that of a prehistoric monster.

"I regret very much," he said, "that we could not keep the body intact until some of the scientists from the Smithsonian Institution could arrive and they determine the class of this specimen. But, of course, the Board of Health has acted wisely in removing the flesh at once, because, in the warm weather, the odor might have induced disease. I am positive this specimen is of prehistoric origin, and must have been incased in icebergs in the North for hundreds of years."

Early today, the Board of Health took formal possession of the carcass. Armed with axes, huge butcher knives and hooks, laborers started to remove the flesh, which was found to be no less than three feet in thickness and varying to more than five feet in some places.

EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GUTHRIE (Okla.) June 9.—At the final session of the National Editorial Association here today, resolutions were passed in favor of Statehood for Oklahoma and Indian Territory and declaring the exclusion of these two Territories from Statehood to be a "reflection on the good faith and patriotism of the national government." It was also resolved that Oklahoma and Indian Territory should be disassociated in consideration from "other entanging alliances."

This refers to the connection with Arizona and New Mexico in the Hamilton Bill, which Speaker Cannon and Senator Beveridge announced will be the one considered at the next session of Congress.

Resolutions were also passed declaring against the proposed general strike of the International Typographical Union, January 1, 1906, on account of their demands for an eight-hour day with nine hours wages. This action, if carried out, the resolutions asserted, would be "revolutionary and demoralizing in its effect on business conditions." The United Typothetae of America were commended for the stand they have taken in favor of maintaining harmonious relations between employer and employé and against combinations and conspiracy.

The election of officers resulted in the following: Col. John Dymond of New Orleans, president; John E. Junkin of Sterling, Kan., first vice-president; Henry B. Varner of Lexington, N. C., second vice-president; L. G. Niblack, Guthrie, Okla., third vice-president; William Ashbrook of Johnstown, O., corresponding secretary (reelected;) J. W. Cockrum, Oakland City, Ind., recording secretary (reëlected;) J. Irwin Steele of Ashland, Pa., treasurer. Indianapolis, Ind., was chosen unanimously as the next place of meeting in 1906.

The convention adjourned this afternoon and the dlegates left Guthrie this evening on a trip through the two Territories and to Portland, Or. Through Texas and California, short stops will be made.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRES.

The trustees of the Massachusets Institute of Technology have decided in favor of the proposed alliance with Harvard, provided there were no legal obstacles.

At San Jose, Police Officer Louis Decarli was accidentally shot through the head yesterday by his pistol falling from his pocket while stooping to lift a drunken man from the sidewalk.

Lightship No. 83, one of the two lightships which arrived a few days ago from New York, will be sent to the station on Blunt's Reef, off Cape Mendocino.

The Chilean cabinet has resigned, according to a New York Herald dispatch from Valparaiso. The cause is said to have been some trifling incident, the nature of which is not stated.

Addressing the Georgia and Florida bankers at their annual meeting, Secretary Shaw yesterday proposed a plan for making the currency system more elastic. He suggested permitting the national banks to issue a certain volume of currency either proportioned on the capital of the bank or on the amount of bond-secured currency; the bank to be charged not less than 5 per cent. interest during the time this currency is out. The government should guarantee the redemption of this credit currency, for the interest charged would vastly more than cover all possible loss.

Secretary Hitchcock denies the published report that he had sanctioned the proposed killing of thirty-five buffaloes at Bliss (O.T.) on the occasion of the gathering there of the National Editorial Association and in celebration by the Indians of that section of their abandonment of tribal relations. He says application was made by Delegate McGuire for permission to allow Chief Geronimo and a hundred Indians to attend the celebration, but that was not granted.

Affidavits have been filed in the Powers case in the Federal Courts of Kentucky from ex-Gov. W. S. Taylor, ex-Postmaster-General Charles Emory Smith, ex-Attorney-General John W. Griggs and Secretary Cortelyou, showing that Taylor was recognized as Governor of Kentucky by the national administration. The affidavits were filed to show that Gov. Taylor's pardon to Powers was valid.

GERMANY'S NOTE MENACE TO FRANCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, June 9.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Germany's note to the powers proposing an international conference on the subject of Morocco is regarded in the highest quarters as renewing the gravity of the situation almost to the point of making it menacing. France has received a copy of the note, showing that Germany acted openly in appealing to the powers, notwithstanding the official statement from Berlin that Morocco invites the conference. The officials here interpret the German note as showing that Germany is the real upholder of the conference. A Cabinet council tomorrow will consider the note. The nature of France's official answer is still in doubt, owing to Premier Rouvier's desire to avoid widening the breach between Germany and France.

KAISER TOASTS FRENCHMEN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, June 9.—Emperor William took the members of the special French embassy at the wedding of the Crown Prince to Doeberitz again today to see the cavalry exercises, and afterward invited them to breakfast. The Emperor proposed the health of the foreign officers, and Gen. De la Croix, head of the embassy, thanked His Majesty and proposed his health and that of the imperial family. Gen. De la Croix also proposed the health of the German officers who were present and who had commanded the troops engaged in the maneuvers.

SITUATION THRASHED OUT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

FEZ (Morocco) Wednesday, June 7.—Gerald A. Lowther, the British Minister to Morocco, had an hour's private audience with the Sultan today, and the political situation was fully thrashed out. The cordiality of the ruler noticeably differed from his attitude at the official reception of the British Minister.

It is still hoped here that an agreement will be reached directly between France and Germany, as otherwise a long diplomatic struggle disadvantageous to all is foreseen.

SPEEDY CONFERENCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, June 9.—The return of Prince von Radolin, the German Ambassador to France, tonight, is expected to be followed by a speedy conference with M. Rouvier, with a view to ameliorating the Franco-German tension. The Cabinet will not act on the German note until after Prince Von Radolin and M. Rouvier have conferred. The semi-official Temps urges that a direct agreement between France and Germany relative to Morocco can accomplish more than a conference of the powers.

A dispatch from Oran, Algeria, reports that the Moroccan transport Turquie, commanded by a German officer, Capt. Karrow, has arrived there with 500 cases of arms, destined for Moroccan troops.

Rumors to the effect that there would be a rearrangement of the Cabinet has brought out an authoritative statement that the portfolios will remain as at present until Premier Rouvier finally decides whether to retain the Foreign Office portfolio for himself or hand it over to another Minister, which decision will not be arrived at for several days.

The Chamber of Deputies today adopted sections of the Church and State Separation Bill, placing the state churches gratuitously at the disposition of the parochial societies for the exercise of religion.

CREST OF FLOOD PAST GRAND RAPIDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

GRAND RAPIDS (Mich.) June 9.—The crest of the Grand River floods has passed. The dike at the north end still holds. A constantly increasing proportion of the West Side is being flooded by water which is backing up from below. Hundreds of residences which were high and dry yesterday are surrounded. The prospect is that the flooded area will extend greatly today, even with the river receding.

RUIN IN TEN MINUTES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LIVINGSTON (Mont.) June 9.—In ten minutes today water destroyed $50,000 worth of property here. For three hours, all the business district was flooded. Rain fell like water pouring from a bucket. A wall of water four feet high came down the narrow valley, tore up the track, and when it reached the station the stream was 1000 feet wide and two feet deep.

TRAIN REPORTS ON RUSSIAN CRUISERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Rear-Admiral Train has reported to the Navy Department that the Russian ships at Manila have been interned. In addition to the information conveyed in Gov.-Gen. Wright's cablegram, Rear-Admiral Train said that the coal supply of the ships has been limited and the officers and men paroled, upon condition that they take no further part in the war.

The text of the dispatch from Admiral Train is as follows: "Secretary of the Navy, Washington. The Russian admiral has been notified that the force under his command must be considered as interned after June 8, noon. Disarmament going on by removing breech plugs. Engines disabled sufficiently for the purpose of internment. The Russian admiral, in accordance with the instructions of the Russian government, expressed his willingness to give his parole and the parole of his officers and men not to engage in further operations during the war."

Secretary Taft has received the following telegram from Gov.-Gen. Wright at Manila: "Russian warships did not leave harbor within the required twenty-four hours; as a result, are now in custody of Admiral Train, who informs me he has taken the necessary steps to intern them. They are now behind breakwater, under the guns of the Ohio and the Monadnock. He will disable their machinery and remove breech locks of guns. He has doubtless reported full details to Navy Department."

CZAR TO ROJESTVENSKY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 9, 4:30 p. m. —Emperor Nicholas has cabled the following message to Admiral Rojestvensky:

"From my heart I thank you for all the officers of the squadron who have honorably done their duty, for your unselfish work for Russia and for me. By the will of the Almighty, success was not destined to crown your endeavors, but your boundless bravery will always be a source of pride to the country.

"I wish you a speedy recovery. May God console you all.

"NICHOLAS."

The peculiar wording of the message is attracting attention. The restriction of the Emperor's thanks to those honorably doing their duty is fanning the ugly talk regarding the surrender of ships and the conduct of some of the crews. The messages of Admiral Enquist and Capt. Chagin of the Russian cruiser Almaz did not contain any intimation of misbehavior on the part of officers or crews.

LINEVITCH'S SUCCESS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 9.—Gen. Linevitch, in a dispatch to Emperor Nicholas, dated June 8, says:

"The Japanese attacked the outposts of our left flank, June 5, but were checked by our advance-post fire. The same day, troops sent to the Tsin Valley pushed back the enemy's advance guards and occupied the village of Santsiatoy. Another force in the Hun Valley advanced southwest from Boyhe and a third force sent southward drove the Japanese from the village of Nanchantchentai so far as Taouangow.

CORRESPONDENTS RELEASED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NAGASAKI, June 9.—Noon—Capt. Cree of the press steamer Industrie arrived here yesterday evening from Sasebo, where he had been detained since the vessel's capture by the Japanese, March 20, while presumably bound for Vladivostok. Correspondent Bannier has been released from the naval prison, where he has been detained.

RED CROSS SCANDAL.

OBITUARY.

Benjamin F. Porter.

SANTA CRUZ, June 9.—Benjamin F. Porter, a well-known and wealthy resident of this county, died suddenly of heart failure, this afternoon, at his country home near Soquel. He was 72 years old. Porter was the owner of large tracts of land in Los Angeles county and Oregon, and was worth probably $500,000. He cut the first telegraph poles used between San Francisco and San José. He was one of the first lumbermen of this county, coming to Aptos in 1857.

"RAFFLES" RETURNS POLICY.

NEW YORK, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After stealing jewelry valued at $10,000 from the home of Chester Jarrett, the burglar who signed himself "Raffles" returned a burglar insurance policy included in the loot and accompanied it with a polite little note in which he expressed the hope that the insurance company is "not offended." The burglary, though committed Wednesday, was not disclosed until the receipt of the note today.

BOY DIAMOND THIEVES.

Youths of Nineteen Commit Hotel Burglary and Confess When Caught.

William Green and J. A. Christie, nineteen-year-old boys, were arrested at 2 o'clock this morning on charges of burglary, a short time after two diamond rings had been stolen from the room of Dr. Ruth Wood at the Hotel Cumberland, Third and Olive streets.

The rings, valued at $350, were found secreted in Christie's shoes at his home, No. 1058 West Thirty-seventh street, where Detectives Hawley and Murphy found him.

When Dr. Wood reported the burglary to Proprietor Richey of the hotel suspicion immediately fell on William Green, the elevator boy. Green implicated young Christie. The boys acknowledged that they entered Dr. Wood's rooms during her absence and stole the rings. They used a passkey. Both were locked in jail.

GROCERIES IN STATION.

Innovation Proposed at La Salle-street Depot.

Travelers Can Shop as They Come and Go.

Important Cut-offs Proposed for Gould Roads.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Patrons of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern and Rock Island railroads, which roads jointly occupy the new La Salle street passenger station, are enjoying an innovation, the like of which is not to be found anywhere else in the country, but which is destined to become popular, with the possibility that it will be established in all the large cities.

The innovation is a strictly up-to-date grocery store in the passenger station, where patrons of the roads may leave a list of their wants on coming to the city in the morning, and pick up parcels on boarding the train for home in the evening. There is a numbering system in connection, and if it is desired, a parcel will be sent out to the home of the buyer by special messenger.

The store is called the La Salle Street Station Store, and is just below the elevated station and connected with it by a bridge. Table delicacies are made a specialty of the new enterprise. All sorts of bottled goods are on sale, and a soda fountain has been put in to quench the summer thirst of the public.

SANTA FE TO REBUILD TRACK.

MANAGER HURLEY SURVEYS THE MESILLA VALLEY SECTION.

Prof. Mayer of the University of Chicago Discusses the Rate Question at the Millers' Convention. Remarkable Record in Tunnel Construction on Chicago Subway.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P. M.]

EL PASO (Tex.) June 9.—An inspection of the sections of the Santa Fé railroad which were practically under water for several weeks, owing to washouts and floods, caused by the overflow of the Rio Grande River, has been completed by General Manager Hurley, the announcement is made that the company will rebuild on higher ground, the entire section of track between El Paso and Albuquerque in the Mesilla Valley. Many miles of track in Southern New Mexico are now being rebuilt.

IMPORTANT CUT-OFFS.

WILL AID GOULD ROADS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Official announcement was made today that several cut-offs will be built soon on the Rio Grande Western, so as to give the Gould roads an opportunity to compete with the Harriman lines for transcontinental traffic. The blue prints show that the first cut-off will be from Westwater, just west of the Colorado line, to a point between Sager's and Thompson's, a distance of about thirty miles. This will shorten the line eight miles.

Extensive improvements are to be made at Cisco, Utah, in the way of a depot and yards. The cut-off is believed to be preliminary to building to the Green River cut-off, which is to extend from Green River Station to a point near Marysville, south and west of the center of Utah, where connection will be made with the projected Western Pacific for San Francisco. However, connection may be made with the Western Pacific at Thistle Junction, or at Salt Lake City.

A. C. BIRD ILL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A. C. Bird, vice-president and general traffic manager of the Gould lines, who arrived in Denver Wednesday night, is seriously ill from an attack of acute bronchitis, and has been removed to the Oakes home. To-day he was resting easily, and his physician's report showed his general condition to be somewhat better.

CHICAGO SUBWAY.

REMARKABLE TUNNEL WORK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A. M.]

CHICAGO, June 9.—Before the 1st of August, the Chicago Subway Company will be handling freight to and from practically all the railroad terminals of Chicago. Work on the bore is being pushed day and night, an added impetus having been given by the teamsters' strike.

A remarkable record in tunnel construction has been made in the last two months, more than five miles of underground passages having been finished. The strike began just before this period of unusual activity. In the last two months, 60,000 cubic yards of material have been excavated. The material hauled through the tunnels to the new workings amounted to 25,000 cubic yards.

The company now has nearly thirty-five miles of bore, interlacing the district bounded by Twelfth and Halsted streets, Chicago avenue and the lake front is being equipped with trolley lines and laid with heavy rails for the use of the electric road on which the merchandise will be carried forty feet beneath the level of the city streets.

MILLERS AND RATES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A. M.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) June 9.—Prof. Lucius R. Mayer of the University of Chicago, addressing the National Convention of Millers today on the question of governmental regulation of railway rates, maintained that whenever the public regulation of railway rates was sought to do more than to prevent secret rebates and to guarantee that rates shall be responsible for it has arrested the decline of rates, and has led to the adoption of the distance tariff.

"The conflicts of interest between rival producing regions, manufacturing centers, are so fierce," he aroused, unless that government shall settle these conflicts upon some hard and fast mechanical basis which permits of no exercise of judgment or discretion."

CHICAGO TO NEW YORK.

NEW FAST SERVICE POSSIBLE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sixteen hours, instead of eighteen, may be the running time between Chicago and New York, as the result of the speed war between the Pennsylvania and the New York Central railroads. It was announced by officials of the Pennsylvania system today that they are prepared to make the run in sixteen hours. This announcement followed the successful speed tests of Thursday, which showed that it was possible to run trains safely at a rate which would insure the making of the 905-mile trip between the two cities in fifteen, or even fourteen hours.

Speed test trains were run over the three divisions between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia today, making the distance of 354 miles in 371 minutes.

LIKES EXPOSITION.

PARKYNS ON PORTLAND.

"I can heartily recommend the Lewis and Clark Exposition as the ideal place for Angelenos to spend their summer vacations this year," says G. A. Parkyns, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, who, with N. R. Martin, district passenger agent of the same system, is among the first to return from a visit to the Oregon fair.

"For its extent and the amount of money expended, this exposition surely is a wonder. The government exhibit, as may be expected, is one of the chief attractive features, and among the State exhibits that of California is unsurpassed. All credit and praise are due Commissioners Filcher of San Francisco and Frank Wiggins of Los Angeles, for the most creditable manner in which they have managed California's interests there.

"While the hotel accommodations are not adequate, the management has secured the use of more than 8000 rooms in private families, and a regularly-appointed committee attends personally to the housing of visitors. In this manner all difficulties in that direction are overcome, and everything is running as smoothly as a perfect piece of machinery. The railway facilities and system for handling incoming passengers are also all that could be asked. One of the California exhibits that is attracting much attention is that of the semi-precious stones from San Diego county.

"The bureau which the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has established at Shasta Springs, where all trains stop to permit passengers for inspection, will prove one of the best advertisements this end of California could have. The exposition, as a whole I think, will prove of great commercial advantage to the entire Pacific Coast."

RAILROAD LOCALS.

Los Angeles beer will continue to irrigate the dusty throats of Las Vegans and the thirsty Goldfield and Bullfrog miners. The rates on beer were fixed yesterday by the freight officials of the Salt Lake line. The rates naturally favor Los Angeles for this as for other commodities. From here to Las Vegas the beer rate is 80 cents a hundred. The same rate will be paid to Moapa. To Caliente the rate is 90 cents, thus placing Salt Lake in a position to cater to the district surrounding that. From Salt Lake the rate is 80 cents to Caliente, 90 cents to Las Vegas.

The visiting members of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce will be escorted to Salt Lake City by Vice-President J. Ross Clark. District Freight and Passenger Agent J. L. Moore will be in charge of the party, so there will be plenty of officials of the road to take care of the visitors. Mr. Clark left for Las Vegas last night. He will lay over there for a day, examining the work being done by the Las Vegas Land and Water Company.

The Santa Fé special train for the delegates to the Imperial Council of the Shriners at Niagara Falls will leave San Francisco Monday night at 10 o'clock. It will be made up of a solid Pullman train of eight coaches, and will carry 125 Shriners. A party of twenty-five will leave Los Angeles Monday night on the Limited and make connection with the special train at the Grand Cañon, proceeding eastward by way of Denver and Chicago.

J. R. Keith, city passenger agent of the Illinois Central at San Francisco, is spending a few days here on business.

W. H. Davenport, formerly in the Los Angeles offices of the Union Pacific, but now general agent of the Colorado Midland at 'Frisco, is in the city.

J. L. Lloyd, formerly in the Los Angeles offices of the New York Central, now district passenger agent of the Salt Lake, with headquarters in the Mormon city, is visiting headquarters here.

The advertising and industrial department of the Pacific Electric has issued a beautifully-illustrated folder setting forth the charms of the southshore beaches, and is distributing copies to visitors in the city.

By a round-trip rate of $40 to Portland the Salt Lake road is trying to meet the competition of the Espee to the exposition. This rate was announced yesterday. It will be available every Friday, and will be good for twenty-one days from the date of issue. The Southern Pacific has a rate of $55, going and returning by way of San Francisco, a special there every Saturday. The Salt Lake road hopes to attract the travel in spite of the Espee rate being $5 less. It holds out the inducement of a stopover in Salt Lake City.

Long Beach is to get still better car service on the Pacific Electric. The Alamitos Bay cars are to run via Long Beach on and after Monday. This will surprise Long Beach people. They thought they were doing pretty well by the last change of schedule. But this change is to give them from fifteen to twenty cars a day in addition.

It is understood the cut-off by way of Willows is not to be abandoned.

A party of sixty Woodmen of the World will leave over the Santa Fé for Milwaukee on Tuesday.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PLAYA DEL REY, June 9.—One of the most brilliant affairs which have been seen at this beach resort was the ball given to the Knights of Columbus tonight. Filling the auditorium the throng of handsomely-gowned women and Knights in regulation white shirt fronts danced and chatted and made merry. The picturesque surroundings heightened the effect of the gathering.

From the outside the scene was notable. The soft music of the band was carried over the waters, sounding above the sound of many feet gliding over the floor. Through the open doorway one caught sight of the festoons and the glittering spectacle of smartly-clad

The patronesses of the ball were Mmes. J. J. Bergin, M. J. McGarry, Allen G. Hancock, L. J. McGuire, S. Gavagan, J. A. McGarry, C. I. Whitney, Joseph Mesmer, A. J. Scholl, Philipson, Barrett, F. G. Haley, C. N. Buckler and Bryson.

One of the pleasing features of the evening was the exhibition drill and fancy rowing of the St. Vincent boat crew in their own boat, the "San Vicente." The crew is composed of Ed Lawton, John Phelps, William Lane, Ed McDonald, George Samples, Vincent Andreas, Henry Murrieta, John Thille, Andrew Tally.

Seldom were the strains of "Home Sweet Home," with which the band insinuated that there was an end to all things, so unwelcome. There were so many features to contribute to the evening's pleasure that it seemed they had none of them had full justice done them. And it was with a pleasant memory to carry back that the visitors toos the last cars to the city.

JEWELS GONE, CASH MISSING.

Singular Robbery from the Westminster Hotel.

Guest's Valuables Disappear in Spooky Manner.

Hotel Safe Tapped in a Way That's Mysterious.

The spookiest burglary that the police have ever been called upon to investigate has developed at the Hotel Westminster.

Mar Hammerschlag, a wealthy clothier of No. 151 Park Grove, New York, and a visiting Knight of Columbus, is the victim, but what Mr. Hammerschlag doesn't know about the affair is astonishing.

Proprietor F. O. Johnson's ignorance of the burglary is appalling; but what the police don't know about it would fill volumes.

According to the story told by the police, Mr. Hammerschlag claims to have deposited a sealed package containing $132 in bills, $500 in New York drafts and about $699 worth of jewelry in the hotel safe four or five days ago when he arrived in Los Angeles to attend the K. of C. convention.

Not until Thursday last did the New York man feel the necessity of drawing on his private bank, but when he went to the desk and asked for his package, no package could be found. Night Clerk C. E. Washington knew nothing of the missing valuables, nor could the day clerk or manager account for the disappearance of the package.

The safe stands behind the cashier's desk immediately in the rear of the clerk's desk, and it showed no evidence of having been tampered with. The little office has only one entrance through the telephone room in the rear; but it would be an easy matter for a smooth sneak thief to vault the counter and reach the safe if no one was looking.

But there's the rub. Someone was looking all the time, at least so the hotel employés assert. The office is never deserted, and if anybody jumped that counter he must have done so when the clerks were fast asleep, with their eyes open.

A spook might have easily floated over the partition while the door was locked and looted the safe while the clerk was saying, "Front! Show the gentleman up to 212."

That's about the only way the employés of the hotel can account for the strange robbery.

Proprietor Johnson doesn't attempt to account for it. He believes in a wood-sawing policy. Asked about the strange burglary yesterday he refused to talk on the subject.

"I don't know of any burglary," he said. "Don't ask me anything about it; I don't know anything, anything, anything."

After repeated questions had been asked Johnson finally admitted that a visiting Knight of Columbus claimed to have been robbed of a "small amount of money and some valuables," but he would not give the Knight's name, nor would he give any of the details of the burglary.

If there is anything in this world that Mr. Hammerschlag hates it is a newspaper reporter—at least, so his actions indicate. When asked about his loss last night the New Yorker threw up his hands in horror and then relapsed into silence. He absolutely refused to talk on the subject, and seemed painfully annoyed to learn that the affair had become public.

The police have made a searching investigation, and some of the hotel employés have been closely watched, but so far no evidence pointing to the guilty party has been secured.

NO PROP FOR PATRICK NOW.

HIGHEST COURT ADJUDGES LAWYER GUILTY OF MURDER.

Slayer of Aged Millionaire Rice Principal in Commission of the Crime Despite Fact That Valet Jones Took the Active Part, Says New York Appellate Judges.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) June 9.—The Court of Appeals today, by a divided court, voting four to three, sustained the lower courts in adjudging Albert T. Patrick, the New York lawyer, guilty of murder in the first degree in causing the death of William Marsh Rice, an aged millionaire, formerly of Texas.

April 7, 1902, Patrick was convicted on an indictment charging him with the murder of Rice by chloroform and mercury administered to him during his sickness, September 23, 1900.

The case reached the Court of Appeals March 14 of this year, when David B. Hill, who appeared for the appellant, based his argument for a reversal mainly on the contention that the condition of Rice's body revealed by the post-mortem examination might have been caused by fluids used in embalming.

The prevailing opinion is by Judge Gray, with whom concur Judges Bartlett, Haight and Warner. There is a dissenting opinion by Judge O'Brien, Chief Judge Cullen and Judge Van concurring. Chief Judge Cullen filing also a memorandum.

Patrick had succeeded in postponing the ultimate decision as to his fate over three years by a display of acumen and resourcefulness that has excited the wonder of the members of the bar and the public at large.

The opinion of the court, written by Judge Gray, is very exhaustive, reviewing the formidable record in every detail and containing upwards of 16,000 words. Judge Gray sets forth that the theory of the people was that the defendant had conspired, with Charles F. Jones, the valet—or, as sometimes called—the secretary of Rice, to kill Rice, and that the defendant also secured Jones to administer chloroform to him while he was asleep, in the accomplishment of their joint purposes.

This purpose, they say, was the motive of the desire to obtain possession of Rice's estate, through a will in favor of the defendant and through various transfers to him of properties, all purporting to have been executed by Rice, but which had, in fact, been formed by the defendant with Jones's aid.

The defense is based upon a denial that Rice's death was effected by violent means or that it was by the procurement of the defendant; and the argument is advanced that the jury was not warranted in finding that the defendant, or, if the evidence warranted the finding that they were, that that act did not necessarily fasten upon him a criminal agency in the murder.

It was not claimed that Patrick personally committed the murder, for the prosecution had the voluntary confession of Jones that it was he who did it, induced and aided thereto by Patrick; but the defendant was a principal in the commission of the crime, under the New York law, if he aided and abetted it, whether present or absent, or if he, directly or indirectly, "counselled, commanded, induced or procured," another to commit it.

TELLS HORRIBLE STORY.

HOW MYERS WAS MURDERED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) June 9.—Frank Hottman, who is under sentence of death for his part in the crime, took the stand today at the trial of Mrs. Aggie Myers, and told the part both he and the women played in the atrocious murder of her husband, Clarence Myers. When Hottman faced the prisoner today it was the first time their eyes have met since the couple were arrested a year ago. Each stared at the other unmoved.

Hottman told of his planning with Mrs. Myers to kill Myers that they might marry. Mrs. Myers, he declared, had refused to elope with him, saying "she had to get rid of him."

"She told me," said Hottman, "of a friend of hers who had a husband she wanted to get rid of, and while he was sick with typhoid fever she gave him some poison in his medicine, and killed him."

Hottman said that he at first refused to kill Myers, but consented finally, after Mrs. Myers had repeatedly insisted. They planned the murder minutely, and o nthe fatal night Hottman went to the Myers home, and was met by Mrs. Myers. Myers was awake and the woman gave him something to put him asleep. After Myers had got to sleep, Mrs. Myers struck him on the head with a billiard cue.

Myers arose, called to his wife for help, and the men began a death struggle.

"While we were struggling," continued Hottman, "she got a bed slat and struck Myers with it.

"Then," said Hottman, "she went back into the bedroom and came out with a razor and cut his throat. I let him down to the floor, and she leaned over him and cut his throat again several times."

Hottman told of Mrs. Myers's aiding him to get rid of the bloodstains, and of her giving him money to flee from the city.

MRS. POTTER TESTIFIES.

CASE AGAINST LAWYER FOSSICK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, June 9.—The further hearing of the charge against Alfred Fossick, a lawyer of Maidenhead, Berkshire, charged with misappropriating $60,000 and who, according to a statement made in court by counsel for the plaintiff in the case, informed plaintiff's counsel that he had lent the money to Mrs. James Brown Potter, proceeded today.

Mrs. Potter testified that Fossick, as her lawyer, undertook to raise from his client a $65,000 mortgage on her property at Maidenhead. The money was required to conduct the Savoy Theater. Mrs. Potter never knew that Fossick personally was advancing the funds.

FORTY UNIONISTS JAILED.

SHOOTING AT THEIR MEETING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—Forty members of the local branch of the National Structural Iron Workers and Bridge Builders' Union were today committed to prison without bail to await the result of the injuries of Edward Joyce, who is said to be dying in a hospital.

Joyce's home is in Washington. He is a member of the local bridge builders' union, and last night attended a meeting of the organization. He was shot during the meeting, but has steadfastly refused to say who shot him, or to make a statement as to the cause of the shooting. The forty other members of the union now under arrest are equally reticent. They were arraigned for a hearing before a magistrate today and all refused to answer questions. Detectives are working on the case.

MAESTRETTI'S CASE.

BUDD CONCLUDES ARGUMENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—Ex.-Gov. Budd concluded his argument for the defense today in the case of Frank Maestretti, Superintendent of Public Works, who is charged with subornation of perjury. District Attorney Byington is closing for the prosecution this afternoon.

In opening his argument, Budd said the only questions asked by him relative to the Citizens' Alliance, the Merchants' Association and San Francisco Republican League at the time the jury was being impaneled were not intended to cast any reflections. It had simply been the purpose to arrive at such feelings and interests of the talesmen as might stand in the way of a fair and honest verdict. Budd denied that the defense had relied on a technicality to save Maestretti. He declared his client was ready to submit his fate on the testimony openly adduced.

HAS TWO WIVES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, June 9.—John Wolfe, 40 years of age, a non-union teamster, employed by the Employers' Teaming Company, has been arrested charged with having two wives. He is wanted in Kansas City, Kan., for bigamy.

Wolfe, the police say, married Mrs. Mary Baker in St. Paul several years ago. After he had taken $1000 from her he disappeared. More than a year ago, she learned that he had eloped from Bradley, S. D., with Laura Stewart, 16 years of age. They went to Kansas City and were married.

Previous to Wolfe's flight from Kansas City, F. M. Stewart, father of Wolfe's last wife, met him in that city and chased him through the streets with a revolver.

KRAUSES FOUND GUILTY.

The defendants were tried on three indictments, embracing fourteen counts, and both were found guilty on five counts, while John Krause was found guilty on two additional counts.

Attorney Noleman, for the Krause brothers, asked for a new trial and was given ten days in which to file a mo-

Bishop Johnson Speaks to the Superintendents.

Creating Sentiment for the Trip to Toronto.

Special Trainload Will Go to Santa Barbara.

Bishop Joseph H. Johnson of the Episcopal Church delivered a practical and interesting address last night before a large body of Sunday-school superintendents of all denominations, assembled around the banquet tables in the Young Women's Christian Association.

The bishop began his talk by saying: "I am sure you all know the old song which says:

'This is the way I long have sought,
And mourned because I found it not.'

"I do not mean by this," continued the bishop, "that I have sought the opportunity to say some things that are on my heart, but I rejoice in the opportunity to speak upon a subject which is of the greatest interest to the city of Los Angeles. I feel that the greatest disaster lies before us unless we can interest men in the matter of Christian education.

"It seems to have thought that the public school system is all-sufficient, and in the days of the old district school we had no fears that any law would be placed on our statute books to prevent Christian education in the schools.

"A great mistake has been made somewhere, and in spite of all efforts to advance education, crime has not diminished. While I rejoice in the efforts of the Christian Education Society, I must say that I have very little hope in that direction, for I believe that the only way to make men good is to teach them to love the Lord Jesus Christ. You may temporize as you will with this subject, but you will never make men moral in any other way. When you teach the boys and the girls you are doing a work that any one else can do, but there is a possibility that we must recognize, that the responsibility for the training of the child does not primarily belong to the public school, but to the fathers and mothers, and they should not be content to put work upon the shoulders of others that they should do themselves. The child is as necessary to them as they are to the child, and they will not done until we have made them feel this responsibility for the child to Christian manhood.

"I find all the ministers here will support me in the statement 'it is hard for a man to be a prophet in his own household.' I suppose it is true that the hardest children to deal with are those of so-called Christian households where there is a certain shrug of the shoulders when education is mentioned.

"I am sometimes we Episcopalians are thought to be narrow, but, on the contrary, we are broad. What are the differences in our creeds, there is a common ground when we come to the Sunday-school, and it ought to grow a Christian citizenship, the influence of which will be felt throughout the world."

The address of Bishop Johnson was received with applause, and W. R. Mead presided at the banquet, expressing appreciation of the gathering of superintendents.

Bishop Talbot and Meredith of New York are in the city to hold a series of Sunday-school institutes, the former unfolded his plans, and the latter sang. They will divide their work between the two cities. In order to give the movement impetus at the start, it will give all schools a chance to participate, for the benefit of the musical festival, 5 per cent. of every Sunday-school will be enrolled on recommendation of its superintendent, with the understanding that everything is to be absolutely free to those enrolled. Institutes will be conducted simultaneously in this city and Pasadena.

Dr. R. A. Healy and Hugh C. Gibbons on the coming trip to Toronto, and resolutions were adopted urging support to the international convention should it be secured for Los Angeles in 1908. The Toronto party will leave on Monday.

ENDEAVOR RALLY.

STATE CONVENTION BOOM.

The State Convention of the Society of Christian Endeavor will meet in Santa Barbara on June 21, and the Los Angeles delegation will leave on a special train at 1:30 p.m. of that day.

There are promises of a large party. In order to make it as large as possible a rally will be held in Central Baptist Church, Twenty-third street and Grand avenue, at 5:30 Sunday afternoon. Rev. A. C. Smither will speak on "Why Attend Convention," Dr. Hugh K. Walker, on "Value of Faithfulness," Leon V. Shaw will give some facts and figures, and Rev. C. C. Brown will urge people to go. Rates for the round-trip will be $2.50, and hotel accommodations will be from $1.50 to $2.50 per day.

EPISCOPAL MEETING.

EVANGELISM AGAIN.

The missionary conference will be held in the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany, on Bichel street, on Wednesday and Thursday next. It will be opened on Wednesday evening with an address by Bishop Johnson, and Rev. Dr. L. Badger of Pomona, president of the convocation, will also speak. At the communion service on Thursday morning at 10:30, Rev. Benjamin Hartman of San Gabriel will preach. In the afternoon a paper on "Evangelistic Methods" will be read by Rev. Mr. Marshall of the Church of the Brotherhood, followed by a discussion of the subject. Simultaneously the Woman's Auxiliary will hold a business meeting in the Parish Hall on missionary questions. At 6 o'clock a banquet will be served at which there will be speeches, and in the evening a missionary meeting will be held, addressed by Dean Wilkins, Rev. Joseph Russell and Rev. William MacLaren.

Bishop Johnson will be celebrant at the Holy festivities at St. John's church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. In the evening there will be a service of song and prayer, when the bishop expects a full attendance of the members of the parish.

The up-to-dateness of the modern system of propaganda is shown by the fact that both on the mission field and in the supporting mission work to home churches the moving-picture machine is used. Effective use of the camera was made in connection with the Pine Flat State outrages, missionaries being, by means of the machine, shown to little children with their parents and the other outrages depicted, the natives thus the BIBLE LESSONS.

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS AND OTHER BIBLE STUDENTS.

SUNDAY, JUNE 11.

Rev. 1, 10-20: "The Message of the Risen Christ."

FOREWORD.

This lesson is taken from John's writings, but from what we call the book of Revelation. John was in prison on Patmos, a rocky island off the coast of Asia, not far from Ephesus, where he is thought to have been living. To cheer the churches of Asia and his people of all places and times Christ unrolls before John's mind a panorama of the struggles and triumphs awaiting his cause. The days were dark and wars and persecutions and disloyalty and the faithful needed this encouragement. The time was either in the reign of Nero and about A. D. 68, or in the reign of Domitian and about A. D. 95 or 96. The latter appears to me the more likely date.

I.

"John Has the Vision of Christ." (Verses 10-16.)

"I was in the spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet saying, What thou seest, write in a book and send it to the seven churches: unto Ephesus and unto Smyrna and unto Pergamon and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And having turned I saw seven golden candlesticks, and in the midst of the candlesticks one like unto a son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about at the breasts with a golden girdle. And His head and his hair were white as white wool, white as snow; and His eyes were as a flame of fire; and His feet like unto burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace; and His voice as the voice of many waters. And He had in His right hand seven stars, and out of His mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword, and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength."

1. Preparation for the vision.

Long cultivation of the spiritual sense had always been a seer. It was his eagle vision that saw Jesus in His preincarnate state, and he said, "in the beginning was the word and the word was with God, and the word was God." It was not an incident that John, rather than another, had this vision. Also his imprisonment that brought him fellowship with Christ in his sufferings, prepared him for beholding Christ in His glory. From prison has come great literature, some of Paul's letters, this revelation: "Consolations of Philosophy" by Boethius; commentary on Matthew by Grotius, "History of the World" by Sir Walter Raleigh; "Pilgrim's Progress" by Bunyan—but the list is too long to write. But best of all he was in a spiritual state of mind—"in the spirit." Sense relations were forgotten as he communed with God and thought on heavenly things. And then God gave him this vision. The day itself helped to put his mind in that frame, for it was the Lord's day, the first day of the week, which the disciples had been observing from the time of Christ's ascension, as a day of worship. So, we may say his native temperament, his long habit of mind, his sufferings, his meditations and the day itself conspired to prepare him for this vision.

2. His commission.

It was to write out what he saw and heard and send it to the churches. I think he meant it for all christendom and in all ages. It was secured to all the churches by being sent to special churches as most of Paul's letters were; by being sent to the churches in and around John's own home as a starting place and very important and influential churches; by being sent to seven churches, the number seven being a symbol of completeness and probably chosen that all the churches might regard themselves as included. These seven churches were in the province of Asia, a small part of what is now known as Asia Minor, and, in the order given, would be in a circuit very convenient for the messenger that bore the message. These messages contain the eternal principles for church life as well as individual life. At least four of those towns are in existence today. Ephesus exists only in its ruins.

The commission was given by Christ himself. As John's state was, for the time being wholly spiritual, the voice was not such as one could hear with physical ears, but adapted to him, as in our dreams what we hear harmonizes with the dream state. The voice was real, for spirit is as real as body. It was loud, clear, penetrating and unhesitating, for it was like a trumpet.

3. The Glorified Christ.

He was seen, not solitary, but in connection with his churches. Their pictures are taken together. As they were not persons the churches had to be represented by a symbol. He could not get a direct picture or image of the church, but must have a symbol. It was appropriate—a torch bearer, a lampstand. The seven of them represented the seven churches, their nature, mission, relation to each other and to Christ. They represent all churches. Their nature—spiritual purity, for they are "golden candlesticks;" their mission—to hold up Christ, the light of the world, as the stand upholds the light; their relation to each other—unity, in the one life and mission; their relation to Christ—obedience to Him, in all things; their obedience on Him in the churches of all times—typical and inclusive.

Christ Himself.

His identity. Again He is a Son of man, as in the days of His flesh. John must have felt the thrill of the old joy at seeing Him, after he recovered from his first shock.

His royalty. He has the robe of a king, for glory and beauty, and the golden girdle of a king, indicating strength and activity. These also belonged to priesthood as well as royalty.

His omniscience. His flaming eyes meant penetration into the secrets of man's hearts the motives of all movements and the meaning of all future things. That fiery look destroys as well as discerns.

His power—all are in His right hand.

His method of expression. It was through a voice, majestic, grand, deep, musical, and inspiring, in some respects, like the ocean.

His authority and power. In His hand He holds His churches and their teachers and His words cut into human motives, discerning and punishing sin. The total impression made on John's mind is that of the sun shining in His strength.

II.

"John Gets a Message From Christ." (Verses 17-20.)

"And when I saw Him I fell at His feet as one dead. And He laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not; I am the first and the last, and the living one; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore and I have the keys of death and of Hades. Write therefore the things which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches; and the seven caidlesticks are seven churches."

Orientals prostrate themselves before majestic persons. John did so. And yet he was really overcome.

(1.) There is the sympathetic touch that was like the old days.

(2.) There is the assertion of his eternity in several ways. He is "first and last," before all things, in all things, the end of all things. The "living one" is the one who has unlimited life. "Because dead" means that He voluntarily surrendered life. He has taken up life again. He had, and still has, life in Himself.

(3.) There is the assertion of His unlimited power. As one who has the key to a walled city He now has command over death and the grave because He has life in himself and has gained a victory over death. All this is a part of his message to the churches. As a master he holds the stars, the angels or leaders, of the churches, in his right and of power.

(4.) The subject matter of the message.

It was to be made sure in writing. It seems to include both what he already saw and what was, yet to be revealed to Him, "the things which are and the things which shall come to pass hereafter." From this it is argued that John was to write some current history as well as prophecies.

To John, as he looked, there was a mystery in the seven stars and the seven golden candlesticks. But Christ was soon to explain it. The word mystery did not mean something that could not be understood at all, but something that only the initiated or instructed could understand—as the mysteries of Free Masonry, for example. Jesus now proceeds to initiate John into the meaning of these symbols. The seven churches are symbolized to him and so are their pastors or leaders. Then follow the letters. Each church is characterized. Its good traits are pointed out and approved. Its weak points and sins are faithfully described, with warnings against their continuance. After those letters come the revelation, in symbolic language, of the conflicts then going on and those that were to come, with the concluding victories over all His enemies. It is a marvelous and fascinating book, difficult to understand, yet yielding rich and inspiring truths for our daily warfare now.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

Only those in the spirit can see the things of the Spirit. It was at first urged against the wireless telegraphy that anyone having a receiving instrument might secure the message. In a naval campaign, the enemy as well as the friend might receive information. "Not so," said Marconi; "instructions to hold communication with one another must be attuned." John, being in the Spirit of the Lord on the Lord's day, heard the voice of the Lord.—[Pollard.

With His right hand laid on us, strength and courage pass into us, and they need fear and do fear nothing who feel its magnetic touch and hear His encouraging whisper. But He does not merely bid us not be afraid, but He gives us the reason for the boldness which He enjoins. That reason is Himself.—[Maclaran.

Only one offensive weapon is ever to be thought of by the church of Jesus Christ, and that is, "the sword of the Spirit which is the word of God." Other weapons it has sometimes resorted to, but only to its own discomfiture and disgrace. "The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but spiritual and mighty through God to the pulling down of the strongholds of the enemy." The sword is a weapon for use at short range, and the sword of the Spirit is of all weapons the keenest, and it cuts whichever way you turn it.—[Wallace.

POINTS TO IMPRESS.

(1.) That only one who lives in the Spirit can learn spiritual things.

(2.) That a proper observance of the Lord's day will help us in the Lords' way.

(3.) That warfare always precedes victory.

(4.) That Christ approaches us in many ways and is a sympathizing majestic brother always.

(5.) That Christ's providence over us includes vision in advance of us, vision in behalf of us and arrangement for our benefit.

(6.) That teachers and pastors are the stars that His right hand holds and inspires.

(7.) That we are to hear and see for ourselves and then pass it on by speaking or writing.

(8.) That we find many a mystery explained as we listen to Christ.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

WITH THE FLAG FLYING.

Terse Comments Upon the Uniform Prayer-meeting Topic for the Young People's Societies, Christian Endeavor, Epworth League, Baptist Young People's Union, etc., for June 11: "Not Ashamed of the Gospel."—[Rom. 1, 13-17.

By William T. Ellis.

It may be necessary in modern warfare, as in the strife between Japan and Russia, to maintain an extensive secret-service department, wherein men live constantly under false pretenses, for the sake of gaining military information. The spy who wears the enemy's colors may be a true patriot and a loyal citizen. But in the kingdom's war this is never necessary. God's army has no secret service. Every soldier may display the flag of the cross. There is scarcely an imaginable situation in which a Christian is justified in concealing his colors. In Zion's war the old flag may be kept always flying.

Whoever stands up for the truth finds the truth standing back of him, as invincible support.

He who is ashamed of a friend is a friend to be ashamed of.

A man's pride gives us an insight into his character. That of which he boasts reveals his spirit. Some there be so debased that, as the Bible says, they glory in their shame. Others exult in possessions which are no sufficient cause for pride. Others feel exalted because of their honored name, of their birth, of their friends, or of their own accomplishments. Old Isaac Watts was wise, however, with a sense of eternal value, when he cried:

"Forbid it Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the cross of Christ my Lord."

If human nature has any worthy reason for pride it is that the great Lord of us all cared enough for our humanity to send His own Son, in the form of a man, to redeem us to our highest possibilities, and to make us heirs of the powers and glories of heaven.

That man is not worthy to walk with men who would deny the mother that bore him. And that Christian is lacking in the elemental traits of manhood and of religion who goes back on the dear Master who humbled Himself for man's salvation, and who esteemed it not beneath His kingliness that He should become the advocate of unworthy friends who are often ashamed to name His name.

The best book of Christian evidences is the open lives of consistent, outspoken disciples.

One of the anomalies of life is men should so often be proud of their worst and ashamed of their best. It is not at all uncommon to hear men boasting of their drinking or gambling escapades, while they would blush to confess that they ever take any thought for the higher concerns of the spirit, which the wise men of all ages agree in declaring the most important.

Christ stands by all who stand for Him.

A rough man had been converted in a rescue mission. He was made over in the new. When he returned to his family he resolved to start the Christian life aright, so he said that they would have family worship. The ordeal was hard, but the disciple was brave. When a chapter of the Bible had been read, all got down on their knees. But the man did not know how to pray. He could not think of a proper way to begin, or of a fit word to say. Beads of perspiration stood on his brow. At last, after several vain attempts to start, he burst out with "Three cheers for Jesus Christ." That was a good prayer. It breathed the true spirit of discipleship. When men can give "Three cheers for Jesus Christ" they will honor the Son and spread the gospel.

The world will be won by witnessing. When all "the redeemed of the Lord say so," the King will come to His own.

Paul said he was branded as Christ's slave, that he bore in his body the marks of the Lord Jesus, so that at all times and in all places men might know whose he was and whom he served. To show forth Christ in one's life, by word and conduct and spirit, is the highest and most effective form of Christian confession.

Loyalty to the gospel carried with it loyalty to one's highest self. Thus the best disciples of Jesus are the best men and women in the world.

NEWS AND NOTES.

The oldest living Methodist is said to be a local preacher named Brinsfield, of Little Rock, Ark., who is 106 years old.

An ex-Buddhist priest is among the colporteurs of the American Bible Society in Japan, having been recently converted at Kioto.

The minister in charge of the Nevada mission of the Methodist church a short time ago made an appeal for helpers, and sixty men have volunteered.

The Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip has opened a summer assembly for men at Pocono Pines, Pa., which, its promoters say, bids fair to rival Northfield and Chautauqua.

Because he was not allowed liberty to teach his views upon the Bible, Dr. Agar Beet has tendered his resignation as professor of systematic theology in Wesleyan College, Richmond, Eng.

During the past decade only one denomination, the United Presbyterian, has kept pace in its benevolent contributions with the increase in the wealth of the average citizen in the United States, which is 45 per cent.

The biennial conference of Railway Young Men's Christian Association will meet in Detroit September 28-October 1. The preceding meeting was held in Topeka, when more than 1500 railway employés were present.

ICE CREAM FOR ALL OUTDOORS.

Expensive Treat at the Game of the Knights.

Columbians Dumfounded at Local Hospitality.

Enjoyable Dance and Feast at Playa Del Rey.

"This meeting of the National Council of the Knights of Co- lumbus and its entertainments and lavish hospitality will soon be over. This council marks a red letter era in the history of the order. The Knights have passed resolutions expressing their feelings toward Los An- geles and California, but on oc- casions like this words are all inadequate to tell all that we feel. One and all, the visiting knights are surprised—almost dazzled—by the warmth of the greeting from all people; by the courtesies that have been extended by the Knights and the ladies. I said on my arrival that much had been promised by Joseph Scott. The Knights of Los Angeles, and everybody else in fact, have made every promise doubly good. The courtesies extend to all, in return, for the thanks which cannot be uttered in words."

Many events for the Knights of Columbus will close a week of the most generous pleasure-taking and entertaining ever attempted by Los Angeles for visitors.

Yesterday had been more than filled, and the small hours of early morning have been encroached upon by the many events and entertained. No one regrets that it has been a most exact- ing—yet no one regrets the ex- penditure. It was well worth while, and more than repaid the attractions of the city and its environs before one of the most magnificent gatherings of men ever assembled in the West.

The programme for today is as fol- lows:

9 a.m. trip through the orange groves.

10:30 a.m., free entertainment on the Farm. Promenade concert by band of the Cross Bar. After- noon reception by Ladies' Reception Committee headed by Madame Hel- ling.

GREAT PARADE.

KNIGHTS IN LINE.

One of the most spectacular events of the Knights of Columbus gathering will be the great parade this evening. The intention is to have the line in- clude every Knight in the city.

Many of the Knights left Los Angeles yesterday, some starting on their home- ward trip, but most of them continuing on their itinerary through California. However, there are still enough visi- tors in teh city to make an imposing array when in parade, and one striking feature will be the candidates for the Fourth Degree and those who have al- ready attained this distinction.

The parade will form at Cnetral Park, and will be in four divisions. The first division will be made up of Fourth De- gree Knights in full dress. The second division will consist of the candidates for the Fourth Degree in full dress. The third division will be made up of First, Second and Third Degree Knights in full dress. The fourth division will consist of all Knights not in full dress.

Members will assemble at Central Park at 7:15. The procession will start at 7:30 p.m. sharp. Line of march as follows: Down Sixth to Spring, Spring to Fourth, Fourth to Main, Main to First, First to Broadway, Broadway to Tenth.

The order will be as follows:

Escort of Police.
Rough Riders. Charles Donlan, Captain.
St. Vincent's Students.
Donatelli's Band.
Marshall, W. J. Goldsmith.
Members of the Fourth Degree and Candidates.
Carriages for the National Officers.
Forester's Band.
Members of the Third Degree.
Sherman Indians Band.
Los Angeles Council No. 621.

When the procession passes St. Vi- biana's Cathedral on Main street it will be reviewed by the prelates of the church who are now in Los Angeles, and by Supreme Knight Edward L. Hearn and the other officers of the Na- tional Council.

The doors at the armory will be closed at 9 o'clock sharp, and will not be re-opened until the work is over.

MORE COMING.

NORTH WILL BE HOST.

Leaving Los Angeles, the visiting Knights of Columbus will only have a brief respite until they again become guests of Californians anxious to do them honor.

The San Francisco Knights have gathered a fund of about $8000 for en- tertainment of these visitors, and they have arranged a programme to cover four days, beginning next Tuesday.

KNIGHTS' NOTES.

CATHEDRAL DECORATED.

The elaborate decorations on the front of St. Vibiana's Cathedral were illuminated last night by hundreds of electric lights. They have been placed in honor of the Knights of Columbus parade this evening, as the reviewing stand will be located at the Cathedral.

HE HELPED IN WELCOME.

One of the excursionists who is with us from Canada, and who uses numer- ous English terms in her conversation, tells of an amusing happening in one of the big downtown stores. She en- tered the store, and addressed an Irish attendant or porter. "Where is the lift?" she queried, as she could not see the elevator. The man looked up, and seeing the Knights of Columbus badge she wore, he grinned broadly and said: "Sure, ma'am, you'll find that the lift is over this way, and that's the roight on the oppisite side, ma'am; and I'm hopin' you're having a pleasant time with us, ma'am."

TESTIMONIAL FOR "JOE" SCOTT.

The visiting Knights of Columbus presented Joe Scott of this city a hand- some testimonial of their love and esteem, Thursday evening, and not for some time after he received the en- graved token did Mr. Scott discover that within it lay a check for $1000.

Automobile Artillery.

The Portuguese have adopted auto- mobile traction for a new battery of four quick-firing Howitzers of the Schneider-Canet system of 150 milli- meters. They were made at the Creu- hot works, France, and the motor is designed to draw all the four one be- hind the other, a load, that is to say, of about fourteen tons, at a speed of at least five and and a half kilome- ters an hour for all slopes. The auto- mobile besides carries five tons of mu- nitions, etc., and the artillerymen, ex- cept four, who will sit on the guns. The motor will also draw the guns by cable up hills of a gradient of 12 per cent. after the practice in recent Eng- lish maneuvers.—[London Globe.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Rebekah Reception.

Paloma Rebekah Lodge, No. 237, held a reception last evening at Fraternity Hall for their delegates to the Rebekah assembly.

Whisky to an Injun.

Miguel Gonzales, a Mexican, was yesterday indicted by the Federal grand jury for the offense of giving a pint of whisky to a reservation Indian, one Bernardo Resveloso. He is in the County Jail.

Body Identified.

S. C. Dodge of the Santa Fé planing mill, which was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning, identified the bod of the man who was electrocuted by a live wire during the conflagration as that of W. A. Trout, a carpenter, formerly employed at the mill. The remains were sent to Bresee Bros.' morgue, where an inquest will be held today.

Lanehart Case.

James P. Lanehart, the youth arrested two days ago for alleged mail robbery, was indicted by the United States Commissioners yesterday, and his hearing will take place next Tuesday. Although he is said to have have made a confession, he will probably plead not guilty. In case of his conviction, it is predicted that his sentence will be one year at hard labor in the local County Jail, in which he is at present confined.

Incorporate and Elect.

The Western Manufacturing and Promotion Company, with offices in the Fay Building, was incorporated yesterday. The election of officers resulted in the choice of Emil Southerland, president; W. B. Judson, vice-president; H. G. Bradford, secretary; John H. Fleming, treasurer; A. H. Putteamp, superintendent. The company will manufacture patents, and a factory will soon be erected. The concern is a close corporation, with no stock on the market.

Burglarized Yacht.

Ernest Moss was arrested in this city yesterday by Detective Davis, on a warrant sworn out by William C. Baker of Pasadena. Baker has a yacht lying at San Pedro, on board which Moss was once steward. It was recently robbed of articles valued at about $300, consisting of rods, reels, a compass, and many other articles of value. The robbery is said to have been traced to Moss, and he will be taken to San Pedro for examination.

Police Autos.

Two new automobiles for the use of the Police Department will be placed in service today. Yesterday a heavy touring car, capable of holding seven people, was purchased for the use of Chief Hammel and the detectives. The car cost the city $2100. The new electric patrol wagon, which was purchased last April, has been modified according to the ideas of the police and it will now go into commission in place of the antiquated wagon that has done years of service.

Arts and Crafts Society.

At a meeting held in one of the Chamber of Commerce rooms yesterday afternoon a number of people interested in arts and crafts discussed the question of forming a society, with the name given above. Representatives of painting, modeling, architecture, book-binding, miniatures, art metals, stained glass and decoration were in attendance, and a provisional committee to perfect organization was appointed. The committee includes R. Mackay Fripp, Mrs. Idah M. Strowbridge, Granville Redmond, Mrs. Macleod and Miss E. B. Underwood.

Seeking Brutal Husband.

A warrant was issued yesterday for Joe Welch, a furniture polisher, charging him with threats to kill his wife and four small children. On Wednesday he drove his wife out with threats and then placed all the children on a couch as if making ready to kill them. The frantic mother forced her way into the house, despite his threats, and found him with a revolver in his hand and wildly declaring that he intended killing the whole family, then himself. That there was much bluff in his threat is evident from the fact that the mother escaped with her children. Welch disappeared, and has not since been seen. Last month he was fined $15 for beating his wife.

Cumnock Commencement.

Commencement exercises of the Cumnock school were held Thursday evening at Cumnock Hall, a large audience of interested friends being in attendance. The chief address of the evening was made by Rev. William Horace Day, who chose as his subject "Culture and Service." The Krauss String quartette furnished a number of instrumental selections in the various interludes of the programme. In the course of his address, before the presentation of the diplomas, Rev. Day referred in a masterful way to the modern complexities of life, and the many avenues of culture and attainment opening out before the young people of today. The year's graduates at Cumnock are Gladys Aynon Edmonds, Dora Adelaide Haller, Mabel Elizabeth Hoffman, Frances Pixley, Nina Katherine Reed, Ethel Floy Taylor, Leila Beatrice von Ache, Frances Williamene Wilkes, Sadie Elizabeth Winslow, and Ernest Crozier Phillips.

BREVITIES.

The volume of "Liners" in the Sunday Times has become so great that it is found necessary to ask patrons to get their Sunday advertisements in earlier; especially Sunday real estate announcements, which in order to be printed must be in the office not later than 10 o'clock Saturday nights. The printing of all real estate matter, including advertisements, in a part by itself on Sundays involves somewhat slower press work, making it essential, in order to get the paper out on time, to stop receiving real estate ads at 10 o'clock Saturday nights. Dealers will confer a favor on The Times office if they will turn in Sunday copy on Fridays, when possible; or at least a part of it, and the balance early on Saturdays. Sunday "Want" ads will still be received by phone and over the counter until 11 o'clock Saturday nights.

The ladies' rest room on the top floor of the new wing of The Times' Building is open daily from 9 to 5. Ladies from town or country will find this a convenient place to write, rest or read. Stationery provided for correspondence. Both 'phones available. Take elevator in business office. All are welcome.

Make your home at Hotel Rosslyn, 432 So. Main st.; free bus to and from depots; meals 25c; 21 meals $5.

There are undelivered telegrams at the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company for Mrs. J. M. Davies, Dr. James F. Smith, Mrs. Clara M. Bretesham, J. F. McWilliams, Arthur P. Wilson, Ed R. Smith, Mrs. Josephine Buckner, J. W. Ball, M. L. Barlilao, W. Moss, W. G. Cohen.

BAKERSFIELD.

Thieves Enter House and Take Jewsled Rings from Sleeping Woman. Chloroform Suspected.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BAKERSFIELD, June 9.—The Sheriff's office has just given out the news that some time between 4 and 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning, the house at No. 2131 L street, occupied by Jessie Moore, was entered by thieves, and diamond rings valued at $2000 were taken from the fingers of the Moore woman while she was asleep. All evidence in connection with the robbery tends to show that the thieves resorted to chloroform. Three arrests have been made by the Sheriff's office.

SANTA BARBARA.

RIPLEY GIVES LOCOMOTIVE.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, June 9.—A feature of the closing days of the school year of the Anna S. Blake Manual Training School in this city was the presentation to the school by President E. P. Ripley of the Santa Fé Railroad of a miniature locomotive 9x24 inches in size, showing the valve motion. The gift was accompanied by a subscription to the Railway Review. The boys of the school who are studying machinery, are greatly pleased with the miniature engine.

LIGHT ON LIGHTING.

It was brought out at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night that the Edison Company is making frantic efforts to persuade the new electric light company to withdraw from the field and not construct the plant now under advisement. A proposition has been made by the Edison company to give a rate of 11 cents to the directors of the Merchants' company if they would not construct the new plant, but the offer was refused, on the ground that the offer would not benefit the citizens in general.

NEW WIRELESS STATIONS.

Commander Henry C. Gearing and George E. Hascomb and Mrs. Gearing of Mare Island arrived in the city yesterday and are registered at the Potter. These gentlemen are on their way north from San Diego. They have been investigating conditions on the Coast with the view of establishing a number of wireless telegraph stations which will be operated by the government.

SAM'S SECRET OUT AT LAST.

"Me and Disraeli" Episode of Hot Libel Case.

Frank James's Suit Against "Express" on Trial.

Amusing Deposition Made by Decedent Editor.

Police Commissioner Frank James's celebrated $50,000 libel suit against the Evening Express came to trial yesterday before Judge Monroe and a jury.

Joined as defendants were Sam. Clover, formerly editor of the paper, and E. Tobias Earl, who holds the meal tickets.

The scenario of this drama can be said with brevity.

Lew Simpson

Frank James

Figures in the libel suit of Frank James against the Evening Express for $50,000 damages.

Mr. Clover had modestly selected himself to tell Mayor McAleer how to run his administration.

To Sam's rage and consternation, the Mayor appointed Frank James, a well-known attorney to the Police Commission without consulting Mr. Clover.

As a fit punishment, Mr. Clover determined to give the Mayor A BAD SCARE and probably frighten Mr. James clear out of town.

That night the Express printed, without attempt at verification, a long editorial repeating one of the wretched and scurrilous stories that are always floating around police stations, and added that James was unfit to be a Police Commissioner because of this scandal.

The story was to the effect that Mr. James had taken $100 from Lew Simpson, the proprietor of a tough negro dive; promised to get him police immunity; failed, but did not give back the $100.

Mr. James called on Clover to retract, offering him proof of the absolute falsity of the article. Clover refused to retract.

The Express now claims that it didn't mean to insinuate anything against Mr. James's morals or reputation by intimating that he had attempted to blackmail the keeper of a negro dive.

Merely, Mr. Clover, in his infinite wisdom, did not consider a man who had any police court law business fit for a Police Commissioner.

Mr. James never has had a police court practice; but that inconsequential point was coldly ignored by the editor of the Evening Smelling Salts.

Since then, there has come up a coldness between Mr. Earl, the owner of the paper, and Mr. Clover, who has ceased to be editor.

When the case opened yesterday morning, they were both in court; but couldn't hardly notice each other.

CLOVER DISCOVERS EARL.

At last Mr. Clover accidentally discovered Mr. Earl who had been sitting for some hours about nine and one-half inches from his elbow, and bowed. Then Mr. Earl bowed back and a great gasp of relief broke out from the courtroom.

The Express was represented by J. W. McKinley and W. A. Anderson, Esqs.; Mr. James by Davis & Rush and Bernard Potter, Esqs.

There was no difficulty in getting a jury because no one seemed to have been a reader of the Express.

The plaintiff, Frank James, was called to the stand as the first witness. He looked white and glared down at Mr. Clover, who yawned in a bored way, just to "show him."

Mr. James said he was on his way home from business when he bought a paper and saw this amazing article peering out at him from the Express editorial page.

He went at once to the editorial boudoir and saw Mr. Clover, who was very cold.

"Why didn't you ring me up?" asked Mr. James. "I am not a tenderfoot. I have been here sixteen years. You could have found out about me and this story easily enough."

"The conversation became somewhat animated on both sides," continued Mr. James.

"But the words," protested his lawyer. "What words did he use?"

"I can't remember," said Mr. James, tartly; "and I don't know that they would be printable."

Mr. James said he explained the whole Lew Simpson incident in detail to Mr. Clover.

The Simpson dive had been put under espionage with a police officer stationed at the door. The dive keeper came to James to bring a civil suit in order to have the officer removed.

Mr. James told him he would have to put up security for the fee and Simpson agreed to have George Walker, the cigar man, guarantee the fee.

Later, he found out the nature of his prospective client's place of business and refused to go on with the case.

That was all the basis there was for this blast.

Mr. James even took Chief Elton down to the Express office to verify these facts; but Mr. Clover refused to speak to Elton, and was very high and mighty. Mr. James offered to help him in an investigation of the truth of his statements; but Mr. Clover turned him down in cold, unfeeling scorn.

He said he felt it his duty to protect the new Mayor from pitfalls. Mr. James went away dazed to learn that he was a pitfall.

SMOKE OUT GAMBLERS.

Police Stuff Chimney Pots With Gunny Sacks and Catch Lottery Players.

Heroic measures have been adopted by the police in their raids on the Chinese lottery games. The wily Chinks have surrounded their places with every precaution they thought necessary to keep out the blue-coats, but a solid oak door nearly a foot thick did not deter four of Capt. Auble's men when they wanted to get into Ah Kim's joint at No. 120 North San Pedro street last night.

Instead of hammering at the stout door, Patrolmen Boyd and Ingram first climbed on the roof and stuffed the chimney full of gunny sacks to stop the draught and prevent the Chinamen from burning their tickets. Then they boldly smashed in the side of the building with ax and crowbar, and caught a number of lottery players like rats in a trap. Over 1000 tickets and other paraphernalia were confiscated by the police.

Kim is said to be the king bee of all the lottery sharks in the city and the police have tried to catch him on many occasions but the foxy Chink would not bite. He was released on bail to appear in the Police Court this morning to answer a charge of having lottery tickets in his possession.

COURT ORDERS GATES BUILT.

Heber's Mismanagement Must be Retrieved.

California Development Co. to Check Flood.

Inland Sea Threatens Track of Southern Pacific.

The accompanying four pictures, from photographs, give an idea of the damage wrought by the flooding of the Salton Sink by the waters of the Colorado River wasted from the canals of the California Development Company under the mismanagement of its late president and general manager, A. H. Heber, who was ousted at the recent annual meeting of the company in Jersey City.

They are doubly interesting because of a decision handed down yesterday afternoon in the United States District Court by Judge Wellborn, enjoining the California Development Company from "diverting from the Colorado River any waters thereof in excess of the substantial needs of the people dependent upon the Imperial Canal for water supply for domestic and irrigation purposes; and the said waters so diverted, whatever may be the amount, shall be so controlled and used as that the same shall not flow upon the lands of the plaintiff (the New Liverpool Salt Company) described in the complaint; and the defendant is further enjoined from turning out of its canal any waste water at any point whence the same will naturally flow upon or over the lands of the plaintiff, and from discharging any water diverted from the Colorado River into any channel or water-course or waterway from or through which it would naturally flow into the New River or into the Salton Sink—provided, however, that this provision of the injunction is not to be construed as restraining the defendant from discharging the waters from this canal (either into the New River or other waterway) unless the amount so wasted or discharged shall be such as to form a flow into the Salton Sink and over the lands of the plaintiff or some portion thereof."

The order of injunction—which was asked for by the New Liverpool Salt Company incident to its big damage suit against the California Development Company for causing the conditions hinted at in the accompanying pictures—also directs the California Development Company to "proceed with all practicable diligence in the work of closing the lower intake to the Imperial Canal, and continue to prosecute the same without intermission and with diligence to completion;" and the company is further ordered to at once install in the banks of the Colorado River headgates to control the inflow of the river to the main canals, to prevent in future a recurrence of the immense damage already done to vast contiguous lands.

The fact that Heber is ousted, and that the affairs of the California Development Company have lately come into the hands of competent men, and that the Southern Pacific Company has advanced a loan of $200,000 for reconstruction purposes, will make possible a practical obedience of the court's orders—fortunate facts, considering that not only the prosperity of the New Liverpool Salt Company, but the safety of a transcontinental railroad and the agricultural future of the Imperial Valley settlers are at stake.

In the memorable floods of 1891, before the Imperial Canal system was built, the runaway waters of the Colorado River transformed Salton Sink into a lake ten miles wide, thirty miles long and five feet in greatest depth. This year, on the first of June, the waters of the Colorado, wasted under the mismanagement of Heber from the improperly-constructed main canals of the Imperial system, had flowed inland for seventy-five or one hundred miles and flooded Salton Sink to a maximum depth of seven feet; and since that date this immense inland sea has been deepening at the rate of one-half inch every twenty-four hours, so that now the maximum depth of water flooding the great salt fields is all but seven and one-half feet.

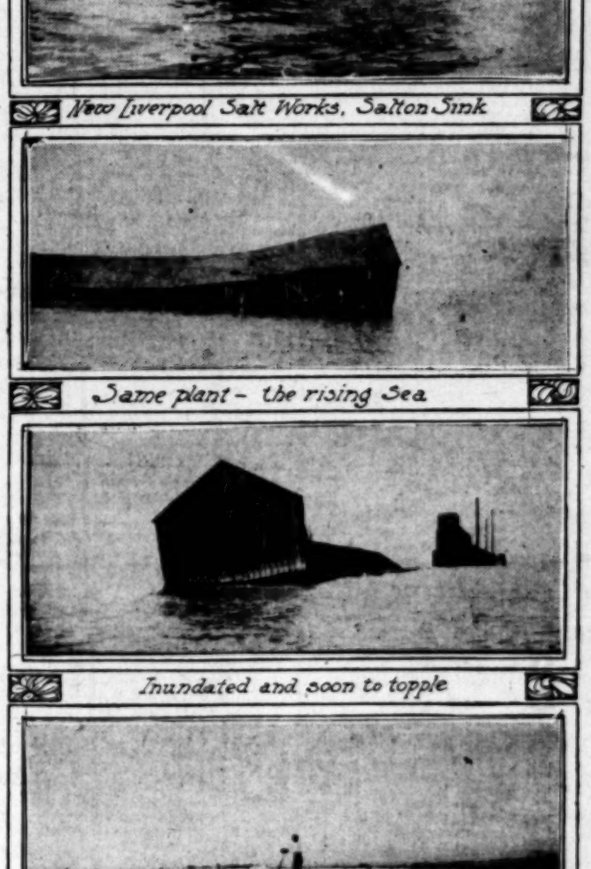
These measurements were taken at the site of the wrecked plant of the New Liverpool Salt Company, on the west edge of Salton Sink. Other and continuous measurements show that virtually none of this vast body of flood water made its way into the sink from Volcano Lake and the New River; to be exact, not in excess of twenty cubic feet per second; whereas the steady inpouring from the waste gates of the Imperial Canals has measured 7000 cubic feet per second.

These data show conclusively that the improper construction of the canal system, without headgates to control the intaking of irrigation waters from the Colorado, is alone responsible for

New Liverpool Salt Works, Salton Sink

Same plant—the rising Sea

Inundated and soon to topple



"How have the mighty fallen!"

the disastrous inundating of a great territory to the west and north, to say nothing of the losses brought upon the Imperial Valley settlers.

There appears but one way to end the inflooding of these disastrous waste waters, and that is by closing up with dams two of the three canal intakes. But while this would stop the flooding, there is danger that it would go farther and deprive interior lands of necessary water for irrigation; for it remains to be seen whether the shutting off of the main portion of the inflow will so reduce the current in the canals that all scouring force will be lost and the waterways will choke with silt. It is a hard problem.

At the present time the inflowing waters have crept to within 100 feet of the Southern Pacific's fill which supports the main east and west track of that road. It is therefore additionally necessary that steps be taken at once (as now they will be under direction of the court) to stop the rising of the inland sea.

If the inflow is stopped now, it will probably take one year or more for the Salton Sink lake to evaporate. When this has come to pass, the salt works will have to be wholly rebuilt before the salt-mining industry can be resumed on the sink.

Next Monday at the Chamber of Commerce, the president and general manager of the New Liverpool Salt Company, George Durbrow, will exhibit to the members of the Congressional irrigation committees a filtering system, of his own invention and patent, for the cleansing of silt-bearing waters; and it may be that the new directors of the California Development Company will adopt such means of keeping Colorado River silt out of the Imperial canals when the headgates are installed.

DOC. HOWTON'S RESIGNATION.

Leaves City Council Because He Was Mistered.

Another Crazy Performance by Sixth Ward Spook.

Councilmen Vote to Expunge Him from Records.

He chose to quit rather than to take the scathing denunciation which was coming to him from Attorney C. C. Wright, representing the Orphans Home, the officers of which institution were basely slandered in a Howtonesque harangue to which Mr. Wright had been compelled to listen.

The Council paid no attention to the alleged resignation of the freak from the Sixth Ward, except to instruct that the motion which Howton aimed at the management of the Orphans' Home be expunged from the records.

While claiming to be no longer a Councilman, Howton was careful to retain his passes on the street railways, also the transportation which he received from the Salt Lake Railroad Company, as a Councilman, to Salt Lake City and return.

Howton's last official and unexpected act was a motion that a recommendation from the Board of Health that the garbage man be fined three weeks' pay for failing to collect and burn garbage, be denied.

"To accept his resignation would necessitate calling a special election to fill the vacancy, and he isn't worth it," is the reason advanced by one Councilman for not acting on the bluff.

Howton brought this latest humiliation upon himself by trying to make good in the Council on a fake story which he worked off a couple of evenings ago on the Express.

Yesterday afternoon he indulged in a lurid harangue about the "awful ravages of a deadly epidemic" at the Orphans' Home. He said that Los Angeles has a higher death rate than any other city in the United States and darkly hinted that this is because some children at the Home have diphtheria. He wanted the Council to summon the Health Board and find out why they permitted these children to have diphtheria. He concluded by charging the presence of the disease to the matron of the institution. He said that she is a Christian Scientist and that just when the children got diphtheria she went away on a vacation.

THE UNEXPECTED.

Howton thought he was attacking the reputation of some defenseless woman. But his fate was that of the fool who didn't know the gun was loaded.

Attorney C. C. Wright had attended the Council meeting for the purpose of demanding an explanation of some of the false statements that Howton had made in the Express.

"Mr. President," began Attorney Wright, "I desire permission to reply to some of the slanderous statements which Mr. Howton has just made."

Howton saw what was coming. "Hold on," he called weakly, "I rise to a point of order. My name is Doctor Howton, if he does not apologize to me I move that he be not permitted to speak."

"Mr. Chairman," continued Mr. Wright, "I desire to refute the misstatements made by Mr. Howton. I certainly shall not apologize for what I have said."

Howton again interrupted and made a motion that Mr. Wright be not permitted to address the Council. This time Councilman Ford of the First Ward seconded his motion.

Howton made this the occasion of a flabby plea that the other Councilmen protect him from insult. "If you permit Mr. Wright to speak," he concluded, I shall resign from this body and shall never sit in this Council again."

Howton flushed red and with tears in his voice, again besought his brother Councilmen not to let Wright get at him. He had been insulted and if Wright talked he would resign, he said.

"I have no apology to make," grimly reiterated the now incensed attorney. "If 'Mr.' is good enough for the President of the United States it is good enough for a member of the City Council of Los Angeles. I certainly shall not address Mr. Howton by any other title."

"SOT ON."

Then came the vote and Howton's motion to prevent Mr. Wright's speaking was overwhelmingly defeated.

Howton rose from his chair into which he collapsed on hearing the vote. His voice was feeble and he appeared very nervous.

"Mr. President, I am compelled to resign as Councilman from the Sixth Ward. Please accept my resignation at once."

They had heard Howton make similar threats twice before. It is the third walk-out of the Spook Councilman in five months.

But he always comes back in time to draw his salary.

Before the Council adjourned he was making overtures to have the other Councilmen ask him to return. This they steadfastly declined to do.

Incensed at his puerile actions the Councilmen passed a resolution instructing the minute clerk to expurge from the records all motions made by Howton relating either to Mr. Wright or the Orphans' Home, also his lurid address attacking the Health Board and the home management.

FIRE IN ROOMING-HOUSE.

A fire in a large apartment-house at No. 218 South Grand avenue yesterday afternoon gave the fire department a hard fight, by getting between the top ceiling and the roof. The flames only broke out at the rear upper corner and were quickly extinguished. The loss on the building is estimated at $750, and $1000 on the contents, much of the loss being occasioned by water.

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

An additional section was yesterday appended to the anti-gambling ordinance permitting the sale of Paris Mutuals and auction pools at the ringside during harness races.

The Council yesterday raised the saloon limit for six days, in order to permit the sale of liquor at Agricultural Park during the coming meet of the Los Angeles Harness Men's Association.

The recommendation of the Board of Health that all money due the garbage contractor be withheld for failure to collect was yesterday afternoon denied by the Council; the board's recommendation that the contract be canceled was referred to a committee.

G. W. Bellamy, the colored orator, is again in trouble and made an appeal to Judge Smith yesterday, urging that he had been tried and he had won and that the District Attorney ought not to keep on nagging him for the same old charge.

Judge Bordwell and Attorney McKelvey crossed swords yesterday in a divorce proceeding, and the attorney—as was sure to be the case—got the worst of it.

HARNESS MEN MAY SELL POOLS.

BAN LIFTED FROM PARIS MUTUALS BY COUNCIL.

Anti-gambling Law Amended in Interests of Promoters of Racing at Agricultural Park—Saloon Limit is Raised for Six Days—Lucky Man is Garbage Collector.

The Council yesterday adopted an ordinance amending the present anti-pool selling law so that Paris mutuals and auction pools may be sold at Agricultural Park during the coming meet of the Los Angeles Harness Horse Association.

The Council also voted to grant a special license to the Los Angeles Harness Horse Association to sell liquor at retail in the park during the six days of the meet.

Under the provisions of the amended pool-selling ordinance book-making is still tabooed; the only privilege granted is contained in the following section which is tacked on to the present law:

"Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed as prohibiting the sale of auction pools or the sale of Paris mutuals on a trotting or pacing horse race within the enclosure of the race track where such horse race is to take place."

Dr. W. Q. Dodge advocated the passage of the ordinance before the Council. "We do not ask for this privilege in order to foster a gambling institution," he explained. "This association is composed entirely of local men, not one of whom would engage in a questionable enterprise.

"There will be no book-making; no sale of concessions. The racing will be strictly high class. It will be but for one week. About two hundred horses have been entered, the finest horseflesh that the coast can produce. This meet will be held in the interest of honest sport. There will be only harness races."

The ordinance was passed with but a single negative vote.

Then came the special liquor permit. It is said to be the first of the kind ever granted here. It is an addition for one week to the number of saloon licenses. The Association is required to pay $75 for the privilege.

If anyone cared to contest the grant it is doubtful if its legality could be sustained, for the reason that the location is outside the saloon limits—unless the ordinance granting this permit can be construed as changing the saloon district.

A permit for selling Paris mutuals and auction pools at harness races has never been denied harness men by the Council. The ordinance now in force is aimed at the professional running races.

LOCATE CREMATORY.

GOES TO SIXTH WARD.

Adopting a recommendation from the Board of Public Works the Council yesterday afternoon accepted the offer of F. H. Brooks to sell to the city a site for a garbage crematory on Santa Fe avenue just south of Ninth street, for $4800.

The tract of land contains six forty-foot lots. It is located east of the Hauser Packing Company's new plant. The Decarie Manufacturing Company has bargained to build the city an incinerator that is smokeless, dustless and odorless, but the property owners all over the city do not appear to take much stock in this guarantee. A number of sites closer to the business district were considered, but residents protested so vigorously that the Council could not stand the pressure.

The Decarie Company will commence work on the new incinerator within the next three weeks. Their contract calls for completion of the crematory by October 25.

NEW COMMISSIONER.

CIVIL SERVICE APPOINTMENT.

Mayor McAleer yesterday afternoon sent a special message to the Council announcing the resignation of Civil Service Commissioner J. B. Lippincott and the appointment of Lieut. Randolph H. Miner as his successor.

The appointment was ratified by unanimous vote of the Council.

Lieut. Miner was formerly an instructor in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis (Md.) Mayor McAleer believes he will be a valuable aid in selecting good material out of which to carve policemen and firemen.

COUNCIL GENEROUS.

ALEXANDER GETS MONEY.

The Council did not take kindly yesterday to the recommendation from the Board of Public Health that the city should withold the garbage man's pay for waste collection and incineration. The Commission recommended that Alexander be not paid for any work done since May 16.

Attorney Bowen told the Council that the city has not the authority to levy fines in that way, that it would be a violation of the contract. And the Council took his word for it and voted to deny the recommendation of the Health Board.

The other recommendation from the Health Board, that the garbage contract be cancelled for failure to collect, was not so easily disposed of. The contract makes the Board of Health the sole judge whether its terms are being lived up to satisfactorily.

Health Officer Powers submitted a report showing that not more than one-tenth of the garbage collected by the waste wagons is ever burned.

Attorney Bowen said that the fault lies with the householders who do not separate the garbage as they are required to do by a city ordinance. He said that the garbage man is more sinned against than sinning.

In concluding, he suggested that if the city wants to try collecting the garbage for a while, Mr. Alexander is willing to lease his wagons and teams for that purpose.

The recommendation for the revocation of the contract was finally referred to the Finance Committee.

City Hall Notes.

An amendment to the oil ordinance changing the specifications from a fire test of 110 deg. to a flash test of 100 deg. was yesterday adopted by the Council.

The Council yesterday purchased for the use of the Police Department an automobile touring car from the Western Motor Car Company; the price named is $3150.

Positions of clerk to the Building Inspector and to the Plumbing Inspector were yesterday afternoon created by the Council. The Building Inspector's assistant is to receive a salary of $65 a month; the clerk for the Plumbing Inspector will receive $75. Both are civil-service positions.

Adopting a recommendation from the Supply Committee the Council yesterday agreed to purchase an aerial ladder truck from the A. J. Coffee Company for $6470. The truck is for use in the fire department. Two truss ladders are to be purchased from the same company for $1485.

There will be no Council session Monday, as seven of the city's legislators will then be in Salt Lake. They expect to return for the session of June 13.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

MR. BELLAMY LOOKS BACK.

THINKS HIS ORATORY WASN'T DULY APPRECIATED.

Defended Himself and Won His Case but Feels Sad, Knowing That There May be Half Dozen Other Trials Facing Him in the Criminal Court.

"Gawge" W. Bellamy made an appeal to Judge Smith yesterday protesting against his being placed on trial for passing a fictitious check. He said that he had been tried once and acquitted, and that in law and fair dealing that ought to end the matter.

Bellamy is a coal black negro with such a sad face that he looks as if he were suffering from melancholia. But he can talk 150 words a minute, and when he was tried before he conducted his own case and knocked away the underpinning from the District Attorney's office. He was acquitted. Just long enough to grab his hat, his face wore a beatific smile, and then it relapsed again into the look of dejection and solemn piety that is always there.

The negro was arrested for passing a whole bunch of fictitious checks, and so trial after trial may be carried on until Bellamy is cinched, but his explanation of holding the bad papers in his possession is unique and ingenious. He said he wanted to go to the races last January, but when he got to the track he found that the programme had been nearly all run off, and as he wouldn't get value of his money he climbed a tree and got a long-distance free show, in company with a number of others. Later he was invited to join in a game of craps and was guided into the racing stables at the track. There he found a number of stable boys and hangers on and the crap game was soon in full swing. Bellamy's luck was such that he did the entire crowd up for their money, and in settling he found himself in possession of a number of small checks and a very little ready cash These checks were bogus, but Bellamy, with earnest persuasiveness, made the jury believe his story, and he was acquitted.

His appeal to the court yesterday was not successful. Judge Smith pointed out that each check formed part of a new transaction, though all might pertain to the same transaction. But Bellamy's comprehension was not acute enough to appreciate nice distinctions, and he thought it hard upon him to have to fight the same old battle all over again. He asked that he be furnished with the list of his witnesses used in the last trial, but said some of them had scattered, he didn't know where, and that in that again he had been placed at a disadvantage.

But Bellamy will have to furbish up his legal knowledge, and with his native cuteness and ability to chatter may explain away the possession of a check for $5.90 drawn on the California Bank by a fictitious personage.

SPAT IN COURT.

JUDGE BORDWELL CALLS TIME.

There was a little exchange of words between a lawyer and the court in Department Four yesterday morning, and Judge Bordwell called time on Attorney McKelvey.

The attorney was asking that the court make an order that the husband in the suit of Russell vs. Russell pay $100 for attorney's fees, such fees having to be ordered by the court before the case goes to trial, or lost, for the court is then without jurisdiction. The court reminded the attorney that an order for $25 had been made before, whereupon McKelvey remarked that if the costs and attorneys fees were to be taken out of that small sum—well, he wasn't doing that kind of business.

The remark probably nettled the court, but if so it was not to be seen, but immediately after Judge Bordwell refused the application, and thereupon McKelvey became angry.

"I've been doing business for eighteen years and I never yet heard of a ruling like that," he said, and he looked things at the court.

"This court doesn't care if you have been doing business for ten times eighteen years," said Judge Bordwell; "that is the order of this court."

Then, to give the last touch to the attorney's discomfiture, the court practically threw out a bunch of affidavits in the case and told McKelvey to bring in his witnesses if he had any and let them speak for themselves.

ZOBIANA NAUGHTY.

HER GUARDIAN CHANGED.

Little Zobiana Gervais, the cruelly-maltreated child for whose ill-usage her brother is now awaiting trial, was brought before Judge York in the Juvenile Court yesterday.

A week ago she had been given into the charge of the Sisters at the Home of the Guardian Angel, there to remain for one month. But it was reported to the court that Zobiana was incorrigible and that the sisters could not control her.

While her small offenses and peccadilloes were being inquired into, the bronze head of Zobiana was lying on the table with her hands underneath, and with her hair straggling partly over her pretty face the picture was one of childish grace. But Zobiana had been naughty; there was no doubt about that, and the court changed her guardianship from the Home of the Guardian Angel to the Sisters at the Home of the Good Shepherd.

"I didn't intend to be naughty," said Zobiana, when asked about it, "I was only playing."

It is to be remembered that at the Home of the Guardian Angel the Sisters rule with the very mildest sway, and they refuse to punish refractory girls placed in their charge. If a girl desires to be good the sisters will aid her in every way, but if such an one inclines to naughtiness the Sisters refuse to keep her. Zobiana's training has not been such as to make her an ideal child, by any means.

ROGUE GOES FREE.

CONDEE'S CASE DISMISSED.

It is probable that Robert A. Condee will not be called upon to answer any criminal charge in court. Yesterday he was to have had his examination before Justice Pierce for having obtained money under false pretences from V. Price Brown, but when the matter came up Brown made a talk, and the charge was dismissed.

The complaining witness said that though he had been greatly wronged, Condee is a young and inexperienced man, and has apparently learned the lesson that he needed. He has obtained a position paying a fair salary, and Brown said that in view of these facts he would, with the permission of the court and the consent of the District Attorney, refrain from pursuing the matter futher.

That ended it; the case was dismissed, and Condee lost a weight of trouble. There is another charge against him, however, of having embezzled money from Foster Bros., while he was connected with the Poultry Fancier, but that case also will probably be dismissed.

TERRIBLE MISFORTUNE.

IRLAND'S DAMAGE CLAIM.

An extraordinary claim for damages has been made by H. T. Irland against the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad Company, and the injuries alleged are enough to have killed half a dozen men.

Irland was in the employ of the company as a pile-driver hand, and was at Siding 7, about thirty-five miles north from Daggett, when he met with an accident. It was on September 13 of last year, and the gang were engaged in the construction of a bridge. According to the claim set up, something was wrong with the hoisting drum, and unexpectedly the heavy hammer of the pile driver fell and struck Irland on the back of the head, crushing his face against the rub board of the driver.

The impact was such as to crush both cheek bones, smash the nose and flatten it completely; the palate was indented, and the upper jaw was crushed back three-eighths of an inch and broken, the left side being left hanging lower than the right. Sense of taste and smell is alleged to have been destroyed, and the left arm and shoulder are paralyzed. Those are merely the more important injuries, and Irland makes it a matter of additional complaint that he was not enabled to have his jaw set and his injuries attended to for about seven days, when, he avers, he might have been conveyed to a hospital within twenty-four hours.

But, despite the terrible nature of the injuries alleged, the plaintiff says that he was in the hospital only four weeks and then confined to his home for two weeks longer, though he continued taking treatment for five months.

It is claimed that the mishap was caused by the company not having the driver machinery in proper condition and order, and Irland estimates his damages at $12,000.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

TORE HORSE'S TONGUE OUT.

AWFUL DEED OF CRUELTY TO BALKY ANIMAL.

Isaac Miller's Vicious Pull—Night Stroll With Lady-love and a Stolen Watch—Arrested in San Diego. Costs Good Money to Lie to the Police.

The most repulsive case of cruelty to animals that has ever appeared in the Police Court of this city, is that brought against Isaac D. Miller. Miller was arraigned yesterday before Justice Chambers, charged with an unheard-of inhuman act in actually having pulled a horse's tongue out by the roots.

Miller hails from the classic neighborhood of Second and Savannah streets, near where the brutal child-beater was found a few weeks ago. Must be something brutalizing in the stench of the city garbage dump.

On Thursday afternoon Charles Chrisman, a teamster, was in that neighborhood drawing a heavily loaded wagon with a pair of horses, one of which was a young, nervous beast, inclined to balk.

Chrisman had stopped to rest his team and when he undertook to start again, the nervous horse began his usual tactics and it was here that Miller butted-in.

He could fix the horse—he just knew how to make him pull like an old "wheeler." The butter-in always knows. He went fooling about the horse's mouth and pulling at him, but from where Chrisman sat on the wagon he couldn't see what the fellow was doing.

Suddenly Miller fell backward in the middle of the road, with the miserable beast's tongue in his hands, having pulled it forcibly from its roots.

The horse bled terribly and the scene on the road was like a slaughter-house, while his agony is said to have been terrible until he was shot some time later in the evening.

Miller offers as an excuse for his beastly deed, that he slipped in the road and his weight was suddenly thrown on the animal's tongue, around which he had tied a piece of rope, with the result that it was torn out. There is a witness, however, who saw the whole proceeding and she will be in court this morning at 10 o'clock to testify against the defendant.

THEY TOOK A WALK.

DID WILLETT ROB LADY?

Felix Willett, Edward Williams or Edward Chambers, whichever of the trio of names he belongs to, was brought up from San Diego yesterday by Detective Smith and arraigned on a grand larceny charge before Justice Chambers. He had been arrested under the name of "Williams, alias Chambers," but he told the court his name is Felix Willett, possibly because if the worst comes, it will look better on the roster.

The details of the charge are that on the evening of June 3 he met Florence R. Stallings, of No. 436 South Hill street, at Central Park and they took a walk. The hour was unseasonable and the locality chosen is not one common to good society at that hour of the night. Miss Stallings avers that at about 10:30, as they approached the corner of Second and Los Angeles streets, her escort suddenly struck her a blow in the side, grabbed her gold watch and ran away with it, leaving her to find her way home.

There seems to be a salt-water flavor to the story, but Willett hadn't made up his mind yesterday what to say to the charge, and was given till Monday to think it over.

DON'T FOOL THE COP.

IT COSTS GOOD MONEY.

H. W. Meyer yesterday paid the heaviest fine yet assessed in the Police Court against anybody for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk. It was half for breaking the law and half for deceiving the officer, who had tried to make it easy for Meyer.

He gave a false address several days ago when picked up, and failed to appear in court according to promise.

"Why did you fail to appear in court?" asked Justice Chambers.

"Well, I thought the officer didn't mean it," was his reply.

"How about giving the officer a false address?" was the next poser.

"Well, I—I used to live at that place," he said, staring at the floor, with visions before him of several $5-fines that had just been imposed on other unfortunates, for the same offense.

He was squeezing the eagle on a "five" when the breath was knocked out of him by a call of the judge for a pair of them. He had them.

GRASSY WAS GREEN.

WENT TO STATION DRUNK.

Louis Grassy was green enough to suppose that he could lie out of having on board an overdose of booze when he butted in at the Police Station.

He first appeared at the station holding his hand over his mouth indicating where some fellow had swatted him a good one. It was seen that he was drunk, and wishing to give him a chance he was told to go home and was led out of the station. Three times he returned, each time sitting down and falling to sleep on the bench in the corridor. The third time he was locked up as a drunk.

In the Police Court he not only denied being drunk, but declared he didn't drink, and was given a few days to think it over on the chain-gang.

BOYCOTTERS IN SAN FRANCISCO RESTRAINED.

Judge Murasky Grants Temporary Restraining Order Preventing Interference With Business of Seattle Brewing & Malting Company.

The Seattle Brewing and Malting Co., manufacturers of Rainier beer, which is bottled in San Francisco by John Rapp & Son, and in Los Angeles by Henry Braun, have applied to the Superior Court of San Francisco to enjoin the Labor Council, several of the local branches of the United Brewery Workmen of America, and Peter Hanson, a delegate from the Northwestern Brewers' Unions, from prosecuting a boycott on its beer. Judge Murasky issued a temporary restraining order and the matter will come up before the court for further hearing on June 9th.

And it is hereby further ordered, that in the meantime, and until the hearing of said order to show cause, said defendants, and each of them, and each of their agents, servants, attorneys, confederates, and all persons acting in aid of, or in conjunction with them or any of them, be, and they are and each of them is hereby directed to absolutely desist from in any manner, by word or act or by means of circulars or cards or printed notices, or by any other means, or in any other manner, threatening or attempting to threaten the patrons or customers of plaintiff, or the public at large, or the servants or employees or agents now engaged or who shall hereafter be engaged in distributing the beer known as "RAINIER BEER," or any person or persons, for the purpose, and with the object of deterring, preventing or coercing said patrons or customers, or servants or employees or agents, or other person or persons from entering into or having business relations with plaintiff or its agent, JOHN RAPP & SON, or from patronising the said beer known as "RAINIER BEER," or from distributing or selling or attempting to distribute or sell or engaging in the distribution of the said "RAINIER BEER."

This suit is an outcome of a strike on the part of the employees of the Northwestern Brewers' Association, comprising all of the breweries of Seattle, Tacoma, Everett, Bellingham Bay, Olympia and other points on Puget Sound. It has been the custom for many years for the employees each year to make demands for an increase in wages, etc., and each year the employers have granted these demands in the endeavor to maintain harmony. This year, however, the demands of the employees were so autocratic as to practically mean a surrendering of the business into their hands. Not only did they ask for twenty-four dollars ($24.00) per week, an increase of four dollars per week for brewery workmen, but they wished to deprive the employers of the small privilege of selecting their men from the unemployed list.

Under the agreement which was presented the employer would be forced to take the oldest man in the list, regardless as to whether he was satisfactory or not, and then the employer could not discharge him except by first giving good reasons and gaining the union's permission.

The employing breweries held several conferences with their men and offered numerous propositions, in the endeavor to have harmony. They offered to grant the same conditions and sign the same contract as that now in existence in San Francisco, Los Angeles, etc., but this was refused and a walkout resulted. After the walkout in the northwestern breweries, the unions followed this by calling out the men employed in the agencies of California of the northwestern breweries. The men were called out simply because they were handling an unfair product. None of them had any grievance and none of them wanted to quit work, but the old method of the union, "intimidation," prevailed.

While the California agents regretted their loss of men, they have filled their places and business was resumed without the loss of an hour's time.

The unions are now denying that they asked an increase of four dollars per week, claiming that they only wanted one dollar per week increase. It is true that they are now willing to accept the proposition originally made to them, providing for an increase of one dollar per week, but the men now employed are giving satisfaction and have been guaranteed permanent employment, and in consequence it is too late for them to accept the proposition which was originally made to them.

SUNDAY REAL ESTATE "LINERS." 10 O'clock Saturday Nights.

The volume of "Liners" in the Sunday Times has become so great that it is found necessary to ask patrons to get their Sunday advertisements in earlier, especially Sunday real estate announcements, which in order to be printed must be in the office not later than 10 o'clock Saturday nights. The printing of all real estate matter, including advertisements, in a part by itself on Sundays involves somewhat slower press work, making it essential in order to get the paper out on time to stop receiving real estate ads. at 10 o'clock saturday nights.

Dealers will confer a favor on The Times office if they will turn in Sunday copy on Fridays, when possible, or at least a part of it, and the balance early on Saturdays.

Sunday "Want" ads will still be received by 'phone and over the counter until 11 o'clock Saturday nights.

HIDEOUS DEATH FOR BABY BOY.

PICO HEIGHTS LINE CLAIMS ONE MORE VICTIM.

Little Gordon Nicklin Ground to Pieces While Playing in Front of His Home Late Yesterday Afternoon — Motorman Powerless to Avert Accident.

Four-year-old Gordon Nicklin, son of E. T. Nicklin of No. 2724 Roxbury street, was ground to pieces underneath the wheels of car No. 326 of the Pico Heights line at 6:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon while he was playing at Pico and Normandie streets.

Accompanied by several other small boys, little Gordon was swinging on the rear of a buggy traveling down Pico, and when they reached the corner he dropped to the ground and darted suddenly across the street in front of an eastbound car. Motorman G. W. Goff and Conductor Jones both saw the child, but before the power could be cut off and the brakes applied the car had struck the boy. The fender proved useless, and the body was fearfully mangled by the wheels. Eye witnesses say no blame can be attached to the motorman.

The remains were sent to Pierce Bros. undertaking establishment, where an inquest will be held this morning.

HUNTINGTON CAPTURES ANOTHER FINE PROPERTY.

Hundred and Sixty Thousand Dollars Paid for Fragment of the Great L. J. Rose Estate—Land on Line of Proposed Electric Road to Pomona.

One of the biggest of recent deals in realty, and one that has hung fire for several weeks, was consummated yesterday morning when the Huntington interests absorbed another of the vast holdings of the Rose estate, known as the Rosemead Rancho.

Land belonging to this estate has been parcelled out in big chunks from time to time, and the present transaction is one of the most important from the fact that seevral large buyers have finished a neck-and-neck race for the valuable prize.

The tract of land comprises about 200 acres, and lies in the San Gabriel Valley between San Gabriel and El Monte. The property is choice and is capable of being cut into several rich pieces of ranch property, or will form a nucleus of a townsite.

The tract is perhaps one of the most valuable pieces of acreage of the size that has been recently placed on the market. The price paid is $160,000.

This purchase adds another to the large estates controlled by H. E. Huntington, and is on the direct route of the proposed Los Angeles-Pomona Electric Railway.

The air of secrecy that has surrounded the transaction has whetted the appetite for news of the realty dealers and promoters of large tracts, and has set the business world buzzing with speculation as to the disposition of the estate.

THEFT OF AUTO.

Cheeky Sneak Dashes Away With Big Machine from in Front of the Huntington Building.

Since the stealing of bicycles has become too tame a sport for the sneaks some of them have taken up automobiling as a make-shift, the latest instance being robbery of an auto belonging to F. M. Phelps, a local real estate man. Up to Thursday night Mr. Phelps owned an almost-new Stevens-Duryea runabout, with a dark-red body and a top on. Thursday evening about 6 o'clock he left it in front of the Pacific Electric building at Sixth and Main streets while he went on a business trip out of town on an electric car. He returned about 11 o'clock but up to this time his auto has not. He presumes that some thief made away with it for he has called up a number of his friends and they know nothing of it. The case has been reported to the police. The auto had the number "1817 Cal." on it.

Arrest of Sixty-five Men at Gravesend.

Well-planned Raid in Jockey Club's Behalf.

"Battling" Nelson and Britt. Golf Championship.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sixty-five men, selling tips at the entrance to Gravesend race-track were arrested today in a bunch by Capt. Dooley and all of his reserves, including a half a dozen mounted policemen.

The raid was well planned. The time was set for 2 p.m., and as the touts got busy, the police began to pile them into three wagons. Some of the prisoners fought the police, and there was plenty of excitement for the crowds attending the races. As the wagons started away with sixty-five men in them, each prisoner, at some time, tried to escape, and six of them got away. They were quickly captured and landed in Coney Island Police Station. The men gave all sorts of fictitious names, such as Togo, Rosevensky, John Gun, I. Cigarette, William No Name, etc.

The cause of the raid was complaints from the Jockey Club and from parties who had been swindled by fake tips. Venders of "sure winners" to "easy marks" will be out of commission for one day, at least, when the cases come before Magistrate Voorhees tomorrow.

SIR KNIGHTS WERE DRUBBED.

ST. VINCENT'S BALL TEAM TOO MUCH FOR VISITORS.

Columbian Aggregation of "Has Beens" is Shown a Good Time by the Youngsters—Phillips Pitches in Good Form and With Excellent Effect—The Rungetting.

St. Vincent's College, 11; Knights of Columbus, 2.

How good old "has-beens" playing in the name of the Knights of Columbus ran up against the baseball artists of St. Vincent's College yesterday on the field adjoining that institution and was most ingloriously routed after a game that was more than usually well mixed with funny features.

The Knights mostly forgot their bats, only one of them connecting safely with a. Phillips, the latest acquisition to the Catholic collegians, was there with the elusive inshoot, and had most of the Knights clawing up the dust half way to third base getting out of the range of his fast slants.

Jimmy Flynn who officiated in the box for the Knights, did good work and mowed down a dozen opposing batsmen on strikeouts, but his support was such a thing to be proud of either in the field or at the bat.

The St. Vincent's lads did not smash much furniture around the infield until the third, when three hits and as many errors netted them five runs. Bob Fitzwilliams's two-bagger and a single base followed by Peck's single and another in the fifth.

A base on balls and consecutive hits by Phillips, Talty and Lamer went for three more in the sixth.

Another stickfest in the eighth proved legal tender for the final four runs, Phillips, Lamer, Fitzwilliams and Peck, all contributing bingles.

The Knights made one of their scanty runs in the third when Sheehan singled, stole second, went to third on a passed ball and scored on Lane's error at first.

Ed Moriarity's base on balls and two cleverly executed steals, followed by some coarse infielding by the Saints accounted for the other tally in the fourth.

Nearly 1000 spectators were present at the festivities, refreshments being served.

ONE RUN AT FRISCO.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—An unusually close game was played today between the home team and Oakland, not a run being scored until the last of the ninth inning, when a lucky hit gave the home team the victory. Although San Francisco made three hits each inning, they could not score. Van Haltren and Moskiman each pitched good ball, and the local man was given perfect support, the only error on his side being made by himself. Score:

BASEBALL TODAY.

PORTLAND-LOS ANGELES GAME.

As many of the local fans now know, there was no baseball game yesterday at Chutes Park, the scheduled game being postponed out of respect for the death of Mrs. Tim Flood, wife of the second baseman of the local team. The regular game, however, will be played this afternoon at the usual hour. Mr Flood will leave tonight for Denver with the remains of his wife, and will not join the team until it reaches the North.

The line-up of the locals will necessarily be changed, and in all probability Spies will play first base, Dillon second base and Eager catcher. Goodwin will pitch and Brashear is assigned to short, with the outfield the same as heretofore.

Cates will probably pitch for Portland, but it is not known yet whether McLean will go in as catcher. He is to be married this evening at 6 o'clock, and expectant grooms are generally so nervous before they hear the wedding march that they are not good for much, and particularly in such a strenuous business as baseball.

PORTLAND'S NEW PLAYER.

ANOTHER MEMBER IN SIGHT.

Manager McCreedie of the Portland team has another player in view for his team in Miss Rose Knepper of St. Louis, who will sign a Portland contract this evening at 6 o'clock, when she will be married to Larry McLean, the Portland catcher, who is said to be the biggest man in the Pacific Coast League. Miss Rose met Larry while he was catcher for the St. Louis Cardinals last year, and at that time she was a stenographer for the Brown Bros.' Shoe Company of that city. Of course the best wishes of all the ball players and the fans will go out like a benediction to the couple, with the hope that there will never be any strikes or errors to mar the percentage column of their lives.

A MAY ADVERTISING RECORD.

The Times printed 475 columns more advertising for the month of May, just past, than for May, 1904. The record for the month was 3653 columns, a volume nearly equaling the aggregate amount printed by any other three Los Angeles newspapers. These figures do not include any public city advertising, which amounted to 316 columns. Other than office announcements, no free advertising was, or is ever printed by this journal. The Times is not given to "frenzied" newspaper faking of this sort.

NOMINEES FOR THE SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST.

ALREADY there are many entries for The Times Scholarship Contest well backed up with letters and nominations. Other intending contestants are holding back a few days. A list of those received with nominating letters follows:

COGSWELL, Bessie, 4418 Central avenue, Los Angeles.

GORHAM, Lonnie, Moneta.

GRAHAM, Myrtle, Lock Box 185 Covina.

GILSON, Cecil R. E., Glendale.

LAWSON, Reta, Palmdale.

MILLER, Florence, South Pasadena.

NEWTON, Andrey, Ventura.

STEIN, Ernest Waldo, 1390 Newton street, Los Angeles.

Bessie Cogswell, 4418 Central avenue, enters this contest in the right spirit. In a letter accompanying her nomination she says that she feels quite confident of winning one of the scholarships in the coming contest, but if she fails, she hopes the experience this summer will enable her to be successful in 1906. Her letter follows:

Scholarship Manager, Fourth Floor, The Times Building, Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Sir—I wish to enter your lists as a contestant for a Free Scholarship in The Times contest of 1905.

My first choice of schools is a girl's boarding school or Throop Polytechnic Institute, to take a complete course in literary training; my second choice is a scholarship in free-hand drawing and elocution, as I am interested in the arts of drawing and reciting. My studies in the Los Angeles High School this year have been interrupted by sickness, as I have been too closely confined to rooms. An outing in the country has given me the vigorous exercise they say I need and I am now equal to the task of winning a scholarship and of attending school next year on account of it. If I don't win the scholarship it won't be because I have not worked hard for it; but, failing in this contest, I will return to the High School next term, and then I shall be qualified by experience to be more successful in 1906, if The Times offers scholarships then. Respectfully yours,

BESSIE COGSWELL.

4418 Central Ave., Los Angeles, Cal.

Cecil Gilson of Glendale is nominated by Lillian S. Wells of the same place, with the following remark: "This boy's mother is a widow, and dependent upon her own exertions for the support of herself and two children." This candidate so far is supported by a larger number of recommendations than any other nominee. From the storm of white blanks which are pouring into the office of the Scholarship Manager in young Gilson's favor it would appear that Glendale is an active and enterprising community, and has set its heart on sending Cecil Gilson to one of the very best schools of The Times' lists next year.

At the beginning of the contest last year twenty-four scholarships were offered. The list was increased as the number of contestants grew until at the close of the contest there were forty-two awards. Among the fifteen contestants having the highest average in credits $1000 in cash was distributed, in sums from $300 to $35, according to the relative standing of the contestants. Besides this, considerable sums were earned by the students in special commissions.

This year The Times offers more inducements than in previous years. The scholarships already secured represent the best institutions of Southern California. Announcement of some of them will be made tomorrow. Entries for the 1905 contest will be received until June 26. Nomination blanks filled out by responsible parties and letters of recommendation should be sent at once to the Scholarship Manager, The Times Building. For the convenience of patrons a form is printed on this page.

Elton to say that he had gone up with Mr. James to the Express office; Clover had refused to hear his vindication of James.

Mr. Clover himself was put on the stand merely to state that he was at the time of the publication the editor of the Express.

That was the case for the plaintiff.

The defense opened with Clover's famous deposition, taken shortly after the case was begun. His attorneys read it to the jury instead of putting Samuel back on the witness stand; they felt he might not again attain to the high state of repartee therein displayed.

THE HAUGHTINESS OF CLOVER.

In this deposition Mr. Clover had displayed a hauteur that froze the lawyers where they sat.

He repeated at great length the conversation had with Mr. James when the latter came to his office to demand a retraction.

"Did you take notes of all that long conversation?" asked one of the lawyers weakly.

"Notes!" said Mr. Clover haughtily. "I never take notes."

He admitted that he hadn't asked anyone about these charges against James except his police reporter. Just hurled 'em into print.

He said one of his own reporters came into his office and expressed surprise that the paper should have "got after" James.

"But of course," said Mr. Clover loftily, "we were not in the habit of discussing the policy of the paper with reporters."

He said he had nothing against Mr. James. "No more," he said, "than I had against Earl Rogers. He was a friend of mine, but I advised against his being put on the Police Commission."

He added complacently: "Rogers would have been appointed but for my editorial."

Ha, ha! Also he, he!

Mr. Rogers will be amazed to learn that this was the reason he did not serve on the Police Commission!

In speaking of his absolute failure to investigate the true facts of the story Clover said it didn't matter who told Lew Simpson he could keep police hands off his place for $100.

"Wouldn't you want to know the name of the informant if Mr. Earl said he heard you were a horse thief?"

Clover looked down at the lawyer more in pity than in pain and asked: "Did you ever read the life of Benjamin Disraeli?"

"ME AND DISRAELI."

"Well," said Clover, "Disraeli's motto was, 'Never complain; never explain; let results tell.'"

After Clover came William G. Taylor, the reporter who gave the information to Clover for his famous article; Taylor is now assistant city editor of the Examiner.

He said that Clover asked him one day in the local room what kind of man James, the prospective Police Commissioner, was.

"I told him," said Taylor, "that I didn't know anything against his character except that he had been mixed up in a disreputable affair with Lew Simpson."

Lew Simpson, a yellow negro with hard blue eyes, sat in the court all through this; sat there while they described his character in lurid hues. He laughed and looked foolish, gazed at the ceiling and out of the window and didn't have a very good time.

Taylor said, when Clover bristled up his ears at this charming gossip about James, he was ordered to telephone to Simpson's place and get him again to state the sad sweet story.

Taylor said Simpson told him over the telephone that "a man" had intimated to him that he could have the police officer, guarding his place and spoiling his business, removed for $100. He was to deposit the $100 with George Walker, the cigar man.

The officer was not removed, except for a short time, and Simpson never got back his $100. There was not a thing to indicate from Simpson's conversation, that James ever touched the $100.

TAYLOR'S FENCING.

"Well," said Mr. Davis, when Taylor was turned over to him for cross-examination. "You knew that Simpson, from whom you got this information, was a disreputable man?"

Out in the audience Lew Simpson gazed attentively at the ceiling.

"I knew he was running a disreputable joint," said Taylor.

"And that he was disreputable?"

"That his business was disreputable."

"But what did you know him to be?"

"Proprietor of this joint?"

The lawyer was getting vexed. "I want you to tell me," he said severely, "what you knew of his reputation for truth, honesty and integrity."

"We—ll," said Taylor, "I guess Lew would tell the truth under ordinary circumstances. (Lew gave him a grateful look)—if it suited his purposes." (Lew looked glum.)

"You think, then, he would perjure himself?"

"I don't think he would consider it in that light."

"Now candidly," said the angry attorney, "What did you know of his reputation; was it good or bad?"

"Rotten; bad," said Taylor cheerfully.

"And you relied on what he told you?"

"He and others."

"Others! What others! Who else told you?"

"I think ex-policeman Frank Fowler told me the same thing."

"Frank Fowler was discharged from the police force wasn't he?"

This question was ruled out.

Somehow or other an old scandal was dragged into this. Clover had dragged into his editorial the name of former Police Commissioner Ling who left the commission in a hurry.

Taylor, it seems, had been employed by the Committee of Safety as a detective.

Davis made hot protests against dragging in the names of this man and of Attorney Phibbs, who were not there to defend themselves, but hot disclosures were made anyhow.

Taylor said that Ling and Phibbs had become involved in a scandal which was carried to the grand jury. Three $100 bills were marked and Taylor was employed to trace them. He followed Phibbs out of the town on three trips.

"What was this for?"

"We wanted to find out by putting up a job, whether Phibbs could tell the truth or not."

It came out that Ling left town the night after the marked bills had been paid. The Express had stated in this editorial that Ling had resigned under fire.

"He didn't resign did he?" they asked Taylor.

The witness looked down at Attorney McKinley with a most peculiar expression in his face. "No," he said, "but he wrote out his resignation and placed it in the hands of an attorney to hand in, should the scandal grow too hot."

"Who was the attorney?"

Taylor hesitated and looked down at McKinley who buried himself in a legal paper growling out, "All right; let's have it."

"Judge McKinley was the attorney," said Taylor.

Mr. Davis gazed at the witness mournfully and asked: "You have known Frank James for many years?"

"Yes, sir."

"Haven't you always believed him to be an honest man?"

"Oh, yes, as far as lawyers go."

Lawyer Davis flushed and asked indignantly, "Do you mean to say that there are no honest lawyers?"

Taylor thought a minute, then said politely, "Well they have a different code of morals from other people."

"Do you mean that there are no honest lawyers?"

"Oh, yes, I guess there are," said Taylor in an unconvincing tone.

"But you knew of nothing else against James's moral character?"

"And that?"

"He was a member of the California Legislature."

Taylor denied that Policeman Walker had told him the reason of his withdrawal of an officer from Lew Simpson's place was due to Simpson's promise to reform the character of his house.

Pen Points

After all, the difference between a summer girl and a winter girl is merely a matter of a few freckles.

Norway ought to make an ideal republic. It's people have brawn and brain and an inherent love of equal rights.

When King Oscar read the letter announcing the secession of Norway, it is stated that "he vented his feelings in unrestrained terms." In other words, he swore like a trooper.

A young man should not hastily marry a girl simply because she looks well in a bathing suit. She won't be satisfied to wear that kind of an outfit as a regular costume.

It is not to be wondered at that high-toped educators like Dr. Schaeffer of Pennsylvania are protesting against the fool outbreaks of Chicago University's freak professors. They are the laughing stock of the country.

Norway may yet become a republic, and why not? Isn't it better that she should chase a ruler from the flower of her citizenship than to mount some soft-headed prince as a puppet on the throne?

Looking at the matter seriously, however, we need have no fear of hostile fleets if they should come to this coast. The real estate men at the beach towns would soon leave them without enough money to get away on.

The Kaiser and his uncle, King Edward, are both carrying on a desperate flirtation with La Belle France. Ed'ard is getting a little old, now, but there was a day when he could leave fellows like Wilhelm a mile behind him in a sparking game.

How did the splendid word "royal" ever come to be applied to the blood in a human being's veins? Most of that kind of blood as it now exists is so tinctured with scrofula and insanity that to call it royal is to scandalize the English language.

Vladivostok, gay with circuses, comic operas and dance halls, is putting up a rather fair illustration of the old fourth reader favorite, "There was a sound of revelry by night," with the chances of also fully illustrating the immortal stanzas that follow.

The Scandinavians are almost as funny about the names they have as if Charles Dickens himself had handed them out. We are now hearing of Minister Dude, Minister Grip and a baron called Wedel-Jarlsporg. Withal the Scandinavians are a serious people.

According to the Los Angeles Express, the San Francisco Knights of Columbus have raised $7,000,000 with which to entertain their visiting brethren during the next four days. Gee! It will take a lot of matches to burn that wad up in the half of a week, won't it?

The chances are that when young Alfonso returns home the girls "in old Madrid" will look pretty good to him, after all. But what will it avail him? He will have to marry some pie-faced Guelph, or Teuton, or Hohenzollern, anyhow, instead of a dark-eyed beauty of Spain, if the Ministers decide to fix it up that way.

One soldier and two saddle horses have been captured at Yinyipienmen, according to a dispatch from Tokio. Does the Mikado expect us to thrill over a little thing like that? And so soon after the sea fight of Togo, too. The Jap is a good fighting man, but he has no sense of humor, whatever.

Japan offers any amount of her laborers to dig the Panama Canal. Each Jap will work for 75 cents a day, and save money at that. He'll take his chances on yellow fever, too. And he will do the work. If you want food for thought, then here it is. We are face to face with the yellow man at every turn of the road.

It is noticeable that nearly all these large legacies that are unexpectedly cropping up fall to women. But very likely the first thing those same women do will be to divide the money with men, or give it all to them. It is woman's nature to be generous and man has never yet failed to encourage her in the practice of that noble sentiment.

BUSINESS.

Firmness in the Chicago wheat market developed after trading was well under way. The close was firm, with July at 85½@86½. Heavy falling off in the activity of trading on the New York Stock Exchange was responsible for a sharp decline in the price of seats, a sale being recorded at $72,500, while the previous sale, ten days ago, was at $78,000.

THE OIL ERA.

There is little doubt at present that California leads all States of the Union in the output of petroleum. Indeed, petroleum is becoming to California today what gold was to the State fifty years ago. At the same time, it is encouraging to note that the consumption of petroleum, for fuel and other purposes, is constantly increasing. One after another the railroads are adopting it as a fuel. Steamships are also beginning to use petroleum, one large vessel having successfully made the trip from New York to San Francisco, burning oil. It will not be surprising if within a few years war vessels should adopt this fuel. Extensive experiments along this line have already been made by the United States government. When a majority of the steamships of the world burn oil instead of coal, we shall no longer hear any talk about over-production, or complaint about unreasonably low prices.

Still other uses are being found for the oil, which permits an ever-widening market. The use of oil on roads has proved a great success, removing the only serious drawback to California as a summer resort. Oiled roads will doubtless become more and more the regular thing, until practically all the highways of the State are treated in that way. Again, big eastern factories are adopting crude petroleum instead of coal. A recent dispatch from Omaha announced that the Cudahy Packing Company had decided to use petroleum in all its plants. It was also recently announced that a European had invented a new fuel, composed of some material the nature of which is not disclosed, mixed with a large proportion of petroleum. So that, taking it all in all, the outlook for the petroleum industry of California was never brighter than it is today, notwithstanding a few clouds, that must soon be dissipated by the sun of public demand.

PRESIDENTIAL DISCRETION.

A remarkable address on "The Constitutional Discretion of the President" was delivered, as noted in a New York dispatch, before the Phi Beta Kappa Society of New York University at its annual meeting on Wednesday, June 7, by Hon. Charles A. Gardiner, a member of the New York bar, and also a regent of the University. Mr. Gardiner's discussion of this important subject is able, scholarly, and luminous. It is, beyond all question, a notable contribution to the literature of civil government, and it is certain to attract much attention from those who are interested in the science of government, or the more inclusive science of sociology.

Mr. Gardiner's conception, to state it briefly (and therefore incompletely) is that the President is the highest embodiment of the sovereign power and majesty of the people; that his functions are not merely administrative and ministerial, but that he is vested with discretionary powers higher than those of Congress and the courts; that he is answerable to neither of these branches of the government in the exercise of his discretion; that, his powers being derived solely from the people, and limited, only by the Constitution, there is no power in Congress to pass laws limiting his discretion; that in the exercise of his discretionary powers, he has the right to construe the Constitution according to his best judgment, and that there is no power to reverse or annul his construction, except by impeachment, in which it must be shown that the President has abused his discretionary powers.

It has been said that the President of the United States has larger powers than any constitutional monarch in the world. If Mr. Gardiner's conception of the President's powers and functions be correct, this assertion comes near to being literally true, for under his conception there is practically no limit to the power of the President, excepting the constitutional limitations, which he is empowered to construe for himself. It may be doubted whether this conception of the almost limitless power of the President will be generally accepted. Mr. Gardiner's arguments are strong, logical, and forceful, but they reach conclusions which the majority of Americans will probably be rather slow to accept. His remarkable address closed as follows:

"The President is a corporation sole. I have defined his abstract constitutional discretion as I conceive it to exist, and as I would define the discretion of any other corporation. Whether the President should exercise it depends upon an infinite variety of considerations—none of which are now before us.

"I conceive that we have entered upon a new era of political development. This is the age of executive expansion. The supremacy of Congress is giving way before the irresistible domination of the President. In 1790 Congress numbered ninety-one members, the Supreme Court six, the executive force 2000. Had all kept pace with our population, Congress would now number 1865, the Supreme Court 123, and the executive force 41,000. Had all increased in proportion to our wealth, Congress would now number 13,741, the Supreme Court 906, and the executive force 302,000. Instead Congress now numbers 476, the Supreme Court nine, and the executive force 240,000.

"Thus while other departments have stood comparatively rigid and inelastic, the President has grown with the country's growth, expanded with every phase of its development, and more automatically than any other department has assumed those Protean forms required for the constantly increasing and varying demands of the republic. And this great army 240,000 strong, in its myriad forms, is everywhere and always the President, whether Postmaster in Maine, or Collector in Alaska, or Consul at Peking, or Ambassador to Great Britain, or Chief Executive in the White House—it is everywhere and always the President, inspiring, guiding, and dominating the irresistible onward march of this mighty and ever-expanding people.

"I rejoice in such a President, I exult in such an Executive, I glory in such a Chief Magistrate; in all his proportions, a majestic, constitutional figure, uncontrolled by Congress, unrestrained by the courts, vested with plenary constitutional power and absolute constitutional discretion, a sovereign over eighty million people, and the servant of eighty million sovereigns; and grading up to his colossal stature are all the departments of government, centering in him is a hierarchy of office, and a hierarchy of power as well, and running through the whole vast organism is a constitutional appeal over and beyond the courts and Congress and the Senate on up to the President himself, in whom reposes the highest discretion of the government, and beyond whom there exists in the republic no human discretion whatsoever except the omnipotent judgment of the mighty and multitudinous tribunal of the people."

A BLOODLESS REVOLUTION.

The dissolution of the political bonds between Sweden and Norway has been accomplished without bloodshed, and thus far there have been no intimations that bloodshed may ensue. The revolution is peculiar in that it has been accomplished so quietly, so quickly, and with so little apparent friction. No serious excitement is reported from either Sweden or Norway.

The crisis, however, is not wholly past, for at Stockholm "there is a firm determination not to recognize the action of the Storthing as definitely achieving the dissolution of the union," while in Norway the dissolution is looked upon as an accomplished fact. In this situation there is a suggestion of an irresistable force meeting an immovable body. But as the force in this case is not entirely irresistible nor the body absolutely immovable, it is quite improbable that disastrous results will follow.

As Dr. Nansen, the celebrated Norwegian Arctic explorer, has declared in a dispatch to a London paper, that which has happened could not well have been longer avoided. The controversy over the consular question has been raging for some time, the Norwegians desiring and demanding separate consular representation. The crisis was precipitated when King Oscar recently vetoed the measure presented to him by the Council of State, providing for separate consular representation. This question, however, seems to have been more an excuse for the dissolution of the union than the cause of it. The bill was evidently designed to bring the whole question of foreign relations to a head, and it answered that purpose in the fullest sense.

"The crown," says Dr. Nansen, "was compelled to veto the consular bill or else it would have lost Sweden to him. We understand this without bitterness, as there is now no way back. Our hope is that the Swedish people will understand that this was the best solution of the difficult crisis, for the continuance of the quarrel between the two countries would be a perpetual danger and weakness." This is undoubtedly a right view of the question. The two countries, if unable to live together harmoniously under one king, would probably have come to blows sooner or later. A peaceful separation—if it is to continue peaceful—is certainly a better solution than war.

Norway is now, to all intents and purposes, separated from Sweden, although King Oscar has entered a vigorous protest against the action taken by Norway. The Norwegian tri-color floats from every place in Norway where formerly floated the union flag, and a new government is in process of formation.

But what of the future? Recognition of the new régime has not yet been secured from the great powers of Europe. These powers will probably determine, to a large extent, the fate of Norway. There is an unmistakable drift of sentiment, in the latter country, toward a republic, and this may be the outcome—if the European powers will permit it. The "throne of Norway" seems to go begging, and it is certainly not a very desirable resting place under existing conditions. The Norwegians are an intelligent people, and they are unquestionably capable of self government. But the present state of affairs is such that it is hardly safe to make predictions of any kind as to the ultimate outcome.

"WATCH HIM, TIGE."

KEEPING TIME.

Let a band within the street
Play a something when you pass;
Notice how your rebel feet
Quick they beat upon the pave
To the memory farondole,
Or they pace them, slow and grave,
To an air that sads the soul.

And as foot will surely keep
So a soul (the wonder deep!)
In another one it heeds
Sounds that make the spirit whole
Noble thoughts and gentle deeds
That are music of the soul!

Brother, since 'tis even so,
And the music that we make
In our spirits here below
Doth such consequences wake,
Let us pray no discord mars
Spirit music that may send Others happy 'neath the stars
Or in sorrow to the end!

REHEARSING FOR WAR.

The Military Game that is About to be Played Around Chesapeake Bay.

[Pittsburgh Gazette.] The army and navy war exercises this year will go over the scenes of the Chesapeake campaign of 1814, the most disgraceful in our national history, when 5000 British troops marched fifty miles through a populous country, scattered a force of 7000 militia gathered to oppose them, and captured Washington, President Madison and his cabinet fleeing to escape capture. The craven spirit in which the battle was fought by the forces of the National Government is disclosed by the order given by the commanding general to the artillery, which was, "When you retreat, take notice that you must retreat by the Georgetown road." When the same British force attacked Baltimore they met with a different reception. State and municipal authorities acted with energy. The militia were well posted behind entrenchments and after an encounter in which the British commander was killed, the British retreated. The struggle gave to the nation "The Star-Spangled Banner," some of whose lines commemorate the lack of patriotism in the politics of the period.

Great progress has been made since then in the military organization of the nation, but Chesapeake Bay still remains a weak point in national defense. Penetrating deeply into the Atlantic seaboard, close to the national capital and to a number of large cities, it would be an inviting mark for attack if ever that sudden dash of a punitive expedition should be made which has been the subject of calculation by the general staff of the German army. Doubtless the intelligence departments of more than one foreign army contain careful military studies of the Chesapeake. Hence it is an especially fine field for the war exercises to be begun on June 11. The scheme is to go through the movements of the attacking and defending forces of 1814, bringing modern naval and military science to bear upon the problems presented. An attack will be made upon the bay forts, and upon the defenses of Washington and Baltimore, and effort will be made to work out the strategy of the campaign as carefully as in real war.

This sort of thing is called the war game, but it is liable to be played in earnest some day, and we must be prepared to play it so that come what may there shall never be a repetition of the inglorious campaign of 1814.

Wagers on the War.

Some extraordinary bets have been made on the Japanese-Russian war. A number of Japanse officers have bet that they would be killed in battle. The money was to go to their widows. One officer, on starting for the front, made the following wager: If he were killed within a month his heirs were to receive $500. After that date he was pays his opponent 10 yen ($5) a day until he had survived 100 days, after which the bet was to cease. He undertook to expose himself to danger only when military conditions demanded it; in other words, he was not willfully to let himself be killed.

In a moment of excitement Lomakin, a Moscow merchant, undertook to "eat his boots" if Japan were not forced to sue for peace by July 1 last. Against this his opponent bet 500 rubles. Lomakin ate the boots. But as no time limit was imposed he cut off and swallowed only a tiny strip each day, completing the achievement on November 20. His opponent absolved him from eating the nails.

A captive Japanese officer, imprisoned at Omsk, in Siberia, bet the Russian officer in charge of the prisoners a kopek for every minute that Port Arthur held out after June 1. He owed the jailer on October 1 nearly $1000. The Russian asked for payment on account and offered to terminate the bet. The Japanese said nothing, retired to his room and shot himself dead with a revolver.—[Chicago News.

The Bonaparte Smile.

It has been sometimes remarked that Charles Bonaparte in his face and figure resembles the Little Corporal. People who seek to flatter him by saying that only irritate him, for Mr. Bonaparte knows that he is taller and in other respects physically unlike his famous ancestor. His body is thick and sturdy looking, and his hands and feet are as small, almost, as a woman's. His neck is large and strong, as it should be to support his massive head. This head is a double-decker, a vast round, rugged head, with curious rises over the temples. One writer has described as "the cannon-ball head of a warrior, with room for two sets of brains"—and it is bald for the larger part, and smooth and shiny. When Mr. Bonaparte takes off his hat and begins to roll this head—a trick that he has—it seems almost monstrous.

"Beneath the forehead," the same writer continues in his personal description, "lurks the Bonaparte smile. It is there all the time—morning, noon and night. It is there when its owner arises in court to pronounce a eulogy upon a dead judge, it is there when he lashes the 'leaders' on the stump, and it is there when he is in a case and the witnesses on the other side begin to perspire coldly. This smile, though even its owner may not have known it, was one of the chief assets of the Baltimore Reform League in the year of grace 1895, when the ancient and odorous Democracy of Maryland faced 'Soup-house Charlie' and went tumbling into a heap of writhing grafters, scared 'leaders' and twisted machinery. It is a smile of fascination and woeful troubles—sweet, oily, insinuating, seductive, deceitful, sarcastic, sardonic, terrifying, paralyzing and diabolical."—[Philadelphia Press.

Italy's New Navy.

If Italy is to maintain the position she now holds as a naval power she has not much time to lose in beginning the programme which is to be spread over twelve years. Of battleships she has four that are modern and effective, one completing, two building, and one projected. Of the other vessels that fill out her naval list a number are old, and others have lost the prestige they once had. Thus the Dinlio and Dandolo, which were designed thirty years ago and greatly impressed the naval imagination of the time, are now hopelessly obsolete for modern warfare. The Italia and Lepanto, each of nearly 16,000 tons displacement, are twenty-six years old, and though their armament is powerful their armor is so antiquated that it would be no protection whatever in battle. The battleships now building are designed for wonderful speed for their class, twenty to twenty-two knots, and Italy has half a dozen good armored cruisers. Twenty-five years ago her navy was much more formidable than ours. Today ours is vastly more formidable than hers.—[Boston Transcript.

PIANOS AT AGENTS' PRICES

It is a fact that you can buy a piano of us here and now at a price that agents and small dealers pay for similar goods. We buy our pianos from the factory direct at the lowest cash price. We not only buy in carload lots, but contract for hundreds at a time to be delivered at specified dates. Does it not seem reasonable to believe that the little dealer or agent who has to buy pianos from the San Francisco jobber will be compelled to pay an additional middleman's profit? The prices at which we have been selling our pianos the past week are as low as ever quoted for similar goods, and in addition to the low prices of $167, $209, $282, $338, $377, $429, etc., quoted, we allow the $25.00 coupon to apply as first payment. No other payment required at time of purchase and the balance may be paid in small payments. Could anything be fairer? Now a word as to the class of pianos offered. The goods are our regular stock—well-known and famous makes—Weber, A. B. Chase, Kimball, Schumann, Whitney, Hallet & Davis, Arion, Brewster, etc., etc. We positively have the pianos and will sell them to reliable customers at the prices quoted and on the terms named.

In addition to these regular style new pianos we have taken in exchange quite a number of second-hand and slightly used pianos which we will close out at great reductions. If you are interested in the purchase of a piano there is no excuse for a further delay. Call or mail the coupon now. OPEN NIGHTS.

PLAYHOUSES AND PLAYERS.

MASON OPERAHOUSE. Nat Goodwin revived last night what was probably the most notable success of his long career, "A Gilded Fool." As far as Mr. Goodwin himself was concerned, the presentation was satisfactory; but the supporting company, in most instances, was lamentably feeble.

Now, these things should not be. The bills pay enough for this show to make the star's manager group good actors around him. The day of the one-man performance is supposedly dead in America, and if the farce is to go, the day of the one man will finally terminate.

Mr. Goodwin, in the part of Chauncey Goodwin, brings to his impersonation the intelligent fruits of a great deal of experience, an unusual fund of both refinement and humorous humanity, and the development of stage art possessed by few people. Sometimes Goodwin acts with enthusiasm; at other times he is bored. He acted enthusiastically last evening, and the good-sized audience which turned out to see his work was correspondingly pleased.

The support didn't elicit much demonstration, however. The best of the lot was Neil O'Brien, assigned to the small role of Perkins, valet to "the Gilded Fool." O'Brien has a touch of comedy in his work that is missing elsewhere, and he became, for the time being, a real servant.

Andrew Ruthren, interpreted by Fedora Saunders—possessor of a great stage name—could have been made well done by any actor in Mr. Goodwin's company at the Grand Opera-house. Dick Vivian could have given Goodwin's juvenile a double handicap and then beaten him, while William Sorrel would have easily walked away with all the "heavy" honors of the aggregation. The part of Rev. Dr. Howell was absolutely colorless as at the same time one could not help thinking what life Tom Oberle could have thrown in the characterization—and it hasn't been so many years, either, since Oberle was a member of Belasco's dramatic force.

The women of the company were unobjective, with the exception of Miss Mackay and Miss Flora Parker.

This afternoon Goodwin will repeat "The Charmer," concluding tonight with "A Gilded Fool."

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Humanity.

The name of humanity received a few mentions from the fervid words of Rev. Hugh K. Walker at the Friday Morning Club yesterday, and the reading of "The Evolution of the Humane Idea" by Miss Cora M. Williams.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is better off by thirty new members on account of the words of the morning and the petition that will be presented to the authorities to place the matter in the hands of the S. P. C. A. the new names added to its long list.

The Misses gave an exhaustive exposition of the humane idea, as evolved through hundreds of years of cruelty and brutishness. She reviewed the cruelties in the earlier civilizations down to the last hope for humanity today—helping animal life lay in the tenets of the Buddhist faith, and traced it down to a later civilization in the growth of humanity to man in altruism that extended to the lower creation. Almost every problem that has confronted a thinker along these humanitarian lines in its practical application was discussed by Miss Williams, even to the vagrant problem with which so many have failed to their own destruction, the waste of life in any form, and the infliction of pain upon one set of beings that another might live.

"Let me," said Miss Williams, "there is always an answer to these questions of conduct: remain true to the highest instincts of the race, to those finest things that are the latest results of our evolution from primitive protoplasm."

Rev. Hugh K. Walker said that in days gone by the minister preached the sermon and then another came along to speak on the "arousement." "Miss Williams has preached you a sermon, now she is going to put on the 'arousement.'"

She did put it on. He spoke for the long suffering brute creation groaning under man's inhumanity.

He spoke in words and incidents that burned into one's brain. "And you must put on the blinkers," said he. "Else women can trail their skirts through this city unheeding these atrocities, unheeding the agony and the torture. I need to be told. I almost weep sometimes with Ella Wheeler Wilcox. She said last winter that Los Angeles is the most cruel place in the world except Vienna.

"Join the S. P. C. A. Society, ladies," was the eloquent advocate. "Fifty cents will make you a member for a month of it, barely more than what you sometimes pay for a bonnet."

The work of the S. P. C. A. Society was set forth by Dr. Walker and the necessity for a larger interest and more funds to keep the fair fame of Los Angeles from bearing the stigma of cruelty as dead as that of Thursday whereby the tongue of a poor horse was pulled out by the roots, by a fiend who had a rope to it for this purpose.

One feature of Dr. Walker's plea was to meet the approval of the women. "The poor brutes have no future world to look to where these wrongs may be righted," said he. "I tell you people," said Mrs. T. W. Sidebotham, who presided at the club yesterday, "who are fit to go to heaven; not my horse, the other is my dog." The club echoed the sentiment.

Mrs. L. E. Giese and Mrs. Mary A. Jaro had charge of the dog pound at the club. Mrs. Jaro von Tilzer, Mrs. W. D. Turner, Mrs. Mary Leach, Mrs. Granville McGowan, Mrs. Rayme and others are circulating the petition, and receive all signers gladly. Those not able to reach the club are requested to sign at the office of the society.

Next Monday Morning's next programme is furnished by the noted Dr. Kenneth McGee, M.D. The lecture will be one of great interest, and only one guest will be allowed to each member.

The social event of the year, "A Morning of Impersonations," which will be given by the R. L. S. will be open to members and their guests are expected.

Elaborate costumes are planned for this occasion, from the simplest impersonation of a book or character, to elaborate costume. At this meeting every member will represent something or somebody. One member is to be "Lace and Lavender," and a lavender frock and lace hat are required for trimming.

Four new chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution have recently come into life, one at Pasadena, one at Santa Monica, with Mrs. Robert J. Burdette as regent, and one at Santa Monica, with Mrs. Dudley as regent.

This good news was announced at the meeting on Tuesday of the Eschscholtzia at the residence of Mrs. Roscoe B. Ashley of West Sixteenth street.

The State vice-regent, Mrs. Cameron Erskine Thom made the announcement, and hinted at others still to come.

The meeting was well attended, and most enjoyable. Mrs. McLeod read a paper on the formation of their chapter, and Mrs. Grace Brown Salisbury gave a stirring patriotic address.

EXCURSIONISTS READY.

Chamber of Commerce Men Will Leave for Salt Lake City This Evening.

The train will start at 9 o'clock p.m.

THE TRAIN will start at 9 O'CLOCK THIS EVENING!

Gurley and Skinner of the Chamber of Commerce swear that upon the emphasizing of this point hangs the very salvation of the big Salt Lake excursion.

"Great Scott! I hope everybody reads that in The Times tomorrow morning," said Skinner. "You know they'll come in here for tickets, and as they go out they'll remark—'I know when the train goes—10 o'clock, isn't it?'—or some such thing. They're business men, and I hope to goodness they won't do as lots of us, buy a banquet ticket and find it hanging on a hook three days after the dinner."

And there is another point that Gurley wants brought out: all unclaimed tickets will be forfeited at 12 o'clock noon today, save by special arrangement. Nearly forty are waiting for a chance to go, and to these will be given the neglected opportunities.

Both Skinner and Gurley, and the rest of the executive committee, want all excursionists to understand that there will be use for real spike-tails—no Tuxedo effects, if you please—at the brilliant reception planned.

The train will leave in two sections, the first to contain sleepers Nos. 1 to 4, inclusive, a baggage car and a dining car. Section No. 1 will stop only at Riverside.

Section No. 2 will contain sleepers Nos. 5 to 12, inclusive, two dining cars, and baggage accommodations. This section will stop at Ontario and Pomona.

A special representative of the Western Union Telegraph Company will accompany the excursion to frank all business and social telegrams, and to expedite the forwarding of press matter.

Last evening the managers of the affair reported that everything was going smoothly, and that although a small collection of tickets remained unclaimed, they were speedily going out.

Personal signatures are required on these bits of transportation right, and if Jones of Jones & Smith decides to go in Smith's place at the last moment, he will have to take infinite pains to imitate Jones's signature, or the conductor will throw him off the train and confiscate his ticket.

DEATH OF MRS. FLOOD.

Wife of Second Baseman of the Local Team Died Yesterday Morning of Peritonitis.

The many friends of Tim Flood, second baseman of the Los Angeles team, were saddened yesterday to learn of the death of Mrs. Flood of peritonitis early yesterday morning, after an illness of several days.

Her death was in a measure unexpected to her friends, for while she was known to be seriously ill the reports from her bedside were favorable and her husband believed her in such little danger that he played his regular position in the Los Angeles team in the Portland-Los Angeles ball game on Thursday, although he was in close communication with her bedside at the hospital all that afternoon. A sudden change for the worse came late Thursday night and despite the best of medical aid she died about midnight.

Mrs. Flood was formerly Miss Jessie Johnson of Denver and was born and raised in that city, where her family now reside, her father being a member of the contracting plumbers firm of Davis & Johnson. She was married about four years ago and leaves a baby boy twenty-six months old. Several weeks ago her mother and sister came here from Denver to visit her and were with her when she died. The remains will be shipped this evening to Denver for interment and will be accompanied by the surviving members of the family.

ONE MAN HOLDS UP RAILROAD.

GARDEN GROVE DOCTOR SLIPS AWAY FROM SERVICE.

Route of Trolley Line from Los Angeles to Santa Ana Runs Through Center of His Parlor and Corporation Fails to Agree on Price of Property.

ANAHEIM, June 9.—A few days ago the Los Angeles Interurban Company filed suit against Dr. D. W. Head of Garden Grove to condemn right of way across his property for the use of the new electric line now being constructed between Santa Ana and Los Angeles and officials have been searching every nook and corner in the county to locate Head so the legal papers could be served on him.

Up to today they have failed to find this prosperous farmer and from an inside tip it is learned it will be several days, or perhaps weeks before the papers are served, as Head is now probably out of the reach of the officers of this State, so far as serving legal papers is concerned.

Head has a valuable place at the Grove and the road according to the survey will pass through the center of it. The home he has occupied for about thirty years will also have to be move i, as the line of the road passes right through the center of the parlor. Head is holding out for at least $2000 damages. The electric company first offered him $100 and then raised it to $1200, but Head would not think of accepting this. As the railroad company can go no further with the suit for at least thirty days unless the papers are served, the completion of the road will be delayed, it is believed, two or three months.

Head, who is the father of Dist.-Atty. Head and who served this section (then a part of Los Angeles county) in the assembly about twenty years ago, is in the fight to win, he says. The officers almost ran over him once or twice, but did not know it.

Court Renders an Opinion Sustaining the Contention of Attorneys for City That the Grounds Alleged in Complaint are Insufficient to Constitute a Cause for Action.

SANTA ANA, June 9.—W. S. Whitney's suit against the city to invalidate the $60,000 issue of electric light bonds was given a body blow today by Judge West in an opinion sustaining the contention of attorneys for the city that the grounds alleged in the complaint are insufficient to constitute a cause for action.

Whitney in his original complaint assumed the ground that the Board of Trustees had exceeded its legal powers in calling the bond election, and in subsequently advertising the issue for sale. Attorneys for the city entered a general demurrer, alleging insufficient ground for action, and argument was heard before Judge West June 2. The opinion today leaves Whitney without a basis for prosecuting the case.

Unless the action is dropped entirely his only recourse will be to carry it to the Appellate courts on an appeal from Judge West's ruling as given today.

SANTA ANA NOTES.

N. Mera, the Fullerton Mexican who has been in jail here for a week past awaiting examination on a charge of attempted rape upon the five-year-old daughter of J. Duarte of Placentia, had a hearing yesterday, and was discharged. The evidence obtainable was so uncertain that a conviction would have been impossible.

Adelphia Ames was granted a decree of divorce today from Daniel Ames, on the ground of desertion. Both live at Yorba.

Charles E. Mapel, aged 21, a resident of Los Angeles, and Florence Allis Wheaton, aged 19, a resident of Pasadena, were granted a license today to wed.

COLTON.

STRYCHNINE END OF DRUNKARD.

COLTON, June 9.—Charles Mitchell, residing in East Colton, was found dead at his home at about 8 o'clock last evening when his wife returned from her day's work.

When discovered the body lay on the floor in the bedroom. Life had probably been extinct for several hours. Near by was strychnine, which drug had evidently produced his death. When Mitchell fell to the floor he struck on his face, which caused a hemorrhage from the nose.

The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict to the effect that Mitchell met his death through strychnine poison administered by his own hands with suicidal intent.

Mitchell was a Frenchman about 45 years of age, and had been in the habit of drinking wine very freely while his wife supported the family by going out washing and doing other work. She was working away from home when Mitchell took his life. It is presumed that he was drunk at the time, although he had several times threatened to put an end to his earthly existence.

ALLEGED DESERTER.

Constable M. A. Bagley made a trip to Los Angeles today to bring up a man, William Thomas, for whose arrest a warrant was issued some time ago upon complaint of Supervisor West, charging him with deserting his family of motherless children.

The man fled, and no trace of him was found until he was arrested in Los Angeles.

COLTON BRIEFS.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Langdon expect to leave Colton in a few dhys to make their home in Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blake and Horace Lemmon of Los Angeles are guests of J. C. Blake.

The grammar schools here closed today. The High School will be open another week.

When Mrs. M. L. Ferguson and S. Hatchette yesterday drove up to the foot of Slover Mountain to inspect the forty acres of grain which Mrs. Ferguson has planted near there, they were taken by surprise to find in one corner of the field several suits of men's clothing. Some were the worse for wear, while other articles of apparel were new. The clothing is supposed to have been stolen and left there by tramps.

SAN BERNARDINO.

MORTON OUT OF JAIL NOW.

SAN BERNARDINO, June 9.—C. W. Morton, charged with throwing red pepper into the eyes of George Drescher on the night of April 6, and robbing him of $140, was released on his own recognizance by Justice C. S. Thomas at the close of the defence in the preliminary examination today. An adjournment was taken until tomorrow to give the prosecution an opportunity to secure information concerning a passage ticket which was purchased at Manvel on the afternoon of April 5, supposedly by Morton.

In the examination today the accused took the stand and testified that he was drunk at Manvel the night that the robbery was committed here, and that he slept that night on the desert in a tent.

DO SKIN TEXAS ON ONIONS.

EXCITEMENT AT COACHELLA OVER THAT VEGETABLE.

One Melon Vine Makes Growth of Five Inches in Twenty-four Hours. Ranchmen Estimate Returns of Two Hundred Dollars Per Acre from Sweet Potatoes.

COACHELLA, June 9.—Many of the ranchmen in the valley are reported to be "onion crazy" since the successful experience of A. W. McGill of Thermal. Mr. McGill has succeeded in raising a crop of White Bermuda onions and placing them on the market a month earlier than those grown in Texas. Commission men have assured Mr. McGill that he has reached the stage of perfection in raising onions, and have paid him 5 cents per pound for his entire crop.

GROWS, DOES THIS VINE.

An effort was made recently to measure the growth of a melon vine in twenty-four hours. On Monday at 3 p.m. a stake was placed at the end of a runner, which at 7:20 o'clock the next morning had grown four inches. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon it had grown another inch, making a total growth of five inches in twenty-four hours.

MELONS AT HOLTVILLE.

The melon crop at Holtville in the Imperial Valley, according to Mr. Amend, an expert grower and shipper of Rocky Ford, Colo., will be an abundant one, but the melons will not mature in sufficient quantity for shipping until late in June. Mr. Amend was sent to investigate by Hiram Woods of Chicago. He figures that by the time the melons at Holtville mature a profitable market may be found for them, as by that time the Coachella crop will have been shipped, and the Arizona crop being a failure, the melons of Holtville will no doubt reach the market while prices are high and obtain good returns.

VALLEY NEWS NOTES.

D. P. Smyth, Southern Pacific agent, has returned from his vacation. Frank F. Huntington has been appointed his assistant.

Tom Elliott, traveling agent for Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, has been so occupied with melon shipments that he will remain here all summer.

Mrs. Best, her son Robert and Miss McKibben, all of Mecca, went up into the San Jacinto Mountains on Saturday, under the guidance of J. P. Read, to examine and take samples from the medicinal clay mines in which Mrs. Best and Mr. Read are interested. The curative properties of the clay have already been satisfactorily tested, and should the parties for whom Mrs. Best is making the investigation be satisfied with her report, the mines will doubtless be opened soon. The party returned Tuesday evening.

Rev. E. H. Cressy, pastor at Thermal, will be stationed at Indio during the melon season, as the Thermal people will be busy Sundays until the cantaloupe season is over.

Sweet potatoes are raised extensively in this section, and ranchmen estimate returns at $200 per acre. One grower devotes his energies so exclusively to the raising of this vegetable that he is widely known as "Sweet Potato Bill."

R. D. Smith of Coachella is in receipt of a letter from a Los Angeles commission man with a check for $4.12 for four sacks of Kentucky Wonder wax beans, which brought ready sale. This variety is said to return the producer a premium of 1½ cents a pound more than any other variety.

Coyotes have been causing considerable destruction to poultry about Mecca.

P. W. S. Sherwood, owner of the Piñon mines, wis in Mecca last week, and left on Wednesday for the mines where he has a force at work developing and expects to start his two-stamp mill this week.

Mr. Cram of the Brookly mine visegg plants, from which he hopes to see the Supervisors about repairing the road, in order to freight from Mecca instead of from Amboy on the Santa Fé.

One ranchman is seeding ten acres to eggplants from which he hopes to make a handsome profit, as eggplant is marketed in certain seasons at 25 cents per pound.

C. C. Abbey, who owns a ranch near Thermal, is said to have a fine crop of early grapes that will soon be ready for the market. Some of the bunches will weigh five pounds each.

PUSH THE CASE AGAINST HAYS.

SO SAY STOCKHOLDERS OF THE RIVERSIDE BANK.

Owners of Shares in the Defunct Institution Appoint a Committee to Employ an Attorney to Make an Expert Examination of the Evidence Against Erstwhile Cashier.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RIVERSIDE, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Stockholders of the defunct Orange Growers' National Bank express a determination to press the charges against Tom Hays, the defaulting cashier.

At a meeting this evening a committee composed of D. C. Chapman, L. S. Darling and P. I. McFarland, presented a report in which it was stated that a number of attorneys in Los Angeles had been consulted on the question of the sufficiency of the evidence against Hays.

Another committee was appointed to engage an attorney to make an expert examination of the evidence. This committee is composed of George Frost, president of the First National Bank; F. H. Herrick, president of the Citizens' Bank, W. A. Hayt, L. S. Darling and G. Rouse.

SHERMAN GRADUATES.

The second commencement exercises of Sherman Institute were held this evening at the United States Indian Industrial School buildings. Nine of the dusky redskins graduated from the school where a number of them had attended since they were small children at the old Perris buildings. Those who received their diplomas were: John Gall, Theresa Giddings, Ignacio Guanche, Myra Harris, Charles Huntley, Frances Lawrence, John Morongo, Alexander Toltes and Solida Tortuga. A lengthy programme was presented.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS DAY.

The custom of holding an annual class day at the High School, which was begun three years ago, was celebrated this afternoon at the High School building. The thirty-two members of the graduating class were the monarchs of all they surveyed, the teachers turning the entire building over to their care. The programme commenced at 2 o'clock and the entire class, attired in white with green sashes, marched up on the great platform of the main auditorium and started the festivities with their class song. A short programme followed, the class poem and prophecy being read and at the close the class retired to plant the annual trees and shrubbery. This year the graduating class devoted their whole time to the planting of English and Boston Ivy around the building. A large crowd of visitors and members of the alumni gathered to witness the ceremony.

RIVERSIDE BRIEFS.

The fact that some miscreant has been selling liquor to the Indians was forcibly revealed this morning when Antonio Dimas was arraigned before Justice Potter for drunkenness. The Indian pleaded guilty, but could not be made to divulge the source of his purchase. He was fined $5, but on his failure to pay he is detained in the City Jail.

The championship debate for the Swing cup which took place tonight between Riverside and Corona high schools, resulted in victory for Riverside. The question as stated declared in favor of woman's' suffrage. The speakers for Riverside were Carroll Batkin and Frank Elwell. For Corona the debaters were Charles Masten and C. L. Clayson.

SAN LUIS OBISPO.

RAILROAD MAN UNDER CLOUD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN LUIS OBISPO, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Auditor Huntley of the Pacific Coast Railway today swore out a warrant for the arrest of F. B. Stanton, for years station agent and chief dispatcher for the company in this city, charging him with embezzling funds of the company.

Stanton was at once taken into custody but was soon after released on $5000 bonds.

Stanton, in addition to other duties, had charge of the lumber yard of the company in this city, and in the sale of lumber it is alleged that the defalcations occurred.

VENTURA.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

Tax on Imbeciles.

The State lottery is one of those questions about which much has been written in Italy, and about which animated discussions are constantly going on. The opinions are much divided. Some say it is immoral and dishonorable that the State, instead of setting a good example, should be an incentive to gambling, while others, independently of the large amount which this institution brings into the budget of the country, maintain that after so many centuries it is impossible to abolish it, as, if it were done, it would merely abandon the people into the hands of private speculators, who, besides keeping up the gambling habit, would not surround it with the guarantees of honesty insured by the government. Foreigners do not perhaps know exactly in what this "scandal" consists. Out of the numbers of from one to ninety every Saturday, five winning numbers are extracted. For the player to win it is necessary to draw one or more of these numbers. If you draw one right you gain fourteen times what you paid—that is eighty-five probabilities in favor of the government. If you draw two numbers you gain 250 times what you paid, but you have only ten probabilities in your favor, while the government has 3,995; if you draw three, you gain 4,250 times what you risked, but while the probabilities in your favor are still ten, those of the government are 117,470. The same proportion is maintained if you draw four or all the numbers, so that the Socialist paper "Avanti" calls this lottery the "Tax on the Imbeciles."—[Pall Mall Gazette.

Canada Prepares to Arm.

The Dominion government is about to enter upon the construction of gigantic military works in the city and district of Quebec, which will involve a very large expenditure in money, and at the same time add materially to the military strength of the country.

The government, besides making extensive repairs to the citadel and existing fortifications, will overhaul the three forts at Point Levis, which are to be armed with long-range guns.

The most important work, however, undertaken by the Dominion government is the construction of two forts at Beaumont, nine miles from Quebec, on the south shore.

These forts will be located at a point which will command a full view of both the north and south channels of the river, and when completed will have cost, it is said, about £600,000.

Work on these forts will be commenced in the course of next month, when the ground will be broken. On being completed these forts will be armed with long-range guns of the most modern pattern, which will sweep the St. Lawrence for many miles.—[London Mail.

Gave Himself Away.

Mr. Dorothy had given it out that he was going to spend the day in the country and commune with nature.

WOMAN MISSING, DESERT MYSTERY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN BERNARDINO, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sheriff Ralphs this afternoon received a dispatch from Deputy Sheriff Preciado at Victorville, stating that miners have just arrived there who say that Oscar Wilcox of this place is wandering crazy on the desert.

He left Box Springs yesterday morning with a San Bernardino livery team for Hesperia or Victor. The team was found in a perishing condition near the latter place.

That a double tragedy may be involved in the affair is the belief of Sheriff Ralphs, who leaves tonight to join in the search for the missing man.

Wilcox, who for many years drove the Bear Valley stage, left here Tuesday morning with Mrs. Charles Henry, who was going to Gold Mountain, where her husband is superintendent of a mining property. The trip should have been made in a day, the distance being but fifty miles, and Wilcox should have returned here last night.

Nothing has been heard from Mrs. Henry since Tuesday, and fears are entertained for her safety.

Wilcox was familiar with the mountains, and his employer, Al Leedom, is puzzled to account for his condition, and cannot reason out how Wilcox managed to get out as far as Box Springs, or was headed for Hesperia or Victor, which are not on his way to Gold Mountain by forty miles.

Mrs. Henry is a sister of Mrs. R. P Kleinhouse, wife of a Santa Fé engineer, residing here.

Aged Lady Weaves Wonderful Basket.

Mrs. Lucy M. Pearce and the basket as big as a barrel that she made

Mrs. Lucy M. Pearce, an invalid lady of 74 years residing at Huntington Park has just completed what experts in this city claim to be the largest raffia basket ever finished by a white woman.

It is a work of art in every sense, designed for a clothes hamper and twenty-seven inches high by five feet in circumference, worked in an Apache Indian design, the colors being cream, burnt orange and black.

Only those versed in basketry will be able to appreciate the difficulties of plaiting together such a large piece of work, and when it is considered that the maker is not only advanced in years but in poor health as well, her perseverance in sticking to her arduous task for four months and three days is nothing less than remarkable.

Mrs. Pearce's big basket was finished last Saturday and is now on exhibition in the window of a Main street seed store. She has made many baskets before, but never attempted anything of such size until she began the present one.

If we have proved our ability and success, we are entitled to so state it in a modest and becoming manner. In such troubles as VARICOCELE, HYDROCELE, WEAKNESS, CONTRACTED DISEASES, PILES, BLOOD TROUBLES and STRICTURE, we claim superiority simply from the fact that a long, practical experience with conscientious endeavor to perfect methods of treatment have placed us far in advance of the ordinary specialist and physician. We cordially invite ailing men to call and interview us. Many of our cured patients reside in Los Angeles, to whom we are at liberty to refer.

WEAKNESS

This trouble—the bane of men of all ages—we cure. Our treatment is direct, effective, and the cure sure and lasting. We take pleasure in making clear to every man who calls for consultation the cause, the course and the outcome of his particular case. There is no charge for consultation.

Varicocele Cannot Be Cured Without Detention From Work

No man was ever cured of varicocele without stopping his work to be treated. We want our patients one week to guarantee a cure, but we solemnly promise not to use a knife or any wide-open surgical operation. We remove the diseased tissue completely by a painless operation known only to us. You can eat three times a day and sleep every night while under treatment. We can show you a hundred business men who will tell you from personal experience if the above is true. We will examine you free and show you the proof of our cures here in the city for 11 years' successful work without one failure.

CONTRACTED DISEASES AND BLOOD POISON

If You Come to Me I Will Remove the Cause of Your Trouble

My treatment is the most potent, most rational, and the most effective known; it removes the cause directly responsible for the trouble. This is accomplished by personal attention, and not by guessing through the mail. Patients coming to the city are furnished rooms free of charge.

FUNCTIONAL WEAKNESS

When I treat these cases I will see and know the exact condition and will know how to accomplish the desired results. My facilities are the best and especially adapted to the requirements. This condition is referable to many causes—excesses and diseases which tend to weaken the reproductive system, which in turn lowers the standard of vitality. I am getting the most satisfactory results every day.

VARICOCELE

I make definite claims for my cure of varicocele which invariably is from 4 to 6 days. I can introduce you to any number of cured patients, which is convincing of the claims I make over all other treatment not so well founded.

STRICTURE

No operation is necessary to effect a cure. Many men complain of operations which should be avoided to prevent future trouble or conditions which require periodical treatment. I remove the exact cause responsible for the trouble and the cure is permanent.

CONTRACTED DISEASES

Immediate results follow my treatment. I cure every case by getting at the exact cause. The treatment destroys every germ and all poison is driven from the system. I accomplish more in one week than can ever be accomplished by any other known treatment.

BUSHELL SIDE ORDERED OUT.

COURT RULES IN PASADENA COLORED CHURCH CASE.

Preacher Who is Alleged to Have Turned from Good Old Baptist Doctrines to "Holiness" and "Sanctification" Loses the Law Suit. Three Students' Fine Showing.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 5 South Raymond Avenue, June 10.—The curtain was rung down on the sensational troubles that have been stirring the inner circles of the Friendship Colored Baptist Church when a permanent injunction was granted yesterday by Judge Conrey of Department 2 of the Superior Court against Rev. D. Bushell, the alleged astute minister, who is accused of having turned over the church property to the "Holiness" band.

The feud of long standing has been a source of strife in the church, and it finally grew to such proportions that the anti-Bushellites got clear out and bought a cheap temporary church of their own, meanwhile securing a temporary injunction against Bushell. The latter refused to hold the South Vernon-avenue effort of worship in defiance of a decision of the ex-parte counsel headed by Attorney Robert J. Burdette. The malpractices maintained before the court against Bushell, after turning from good old Baptist doctrines to "Holiness" and "sanctification," taught a species of "loose life" was was not sinless.

Attorneys Jones & Drake have injured their clients, Mrs. M. L. Knott and others here that the court has granted a perpetual injunction, and the petitioners now have the right and privilege to take possession of the church building. This leaves Bushell and his coterie of followers legally without a church. But those who are satisfied with the doughty divine's quality declare it will take something more than a paper document to oust Bushell out, so it would appear there may be something happening in Raymond Sunday morn.

STUDENTS SHOW WORK.

Yesterday was exhibition day at the Polytechnic Institute, and during the day at least a thousand patrons and friends of the students visited the school buildings. Much favorable comment was heard on every hand concerning the high intrinsic merit of the work, and those most specially favored by public opinion seemed to be the art departments and the woodturning and carving. Some exceptionally fine pieces of craftsman furniture, besides the work of pupils, were shown, specimens of the wood carving appearing in finenesss of detail those seen around a Japanese shop. Fabrie Wood had several exhibits of clay modeling from life, and there were many others of equal merit so numerous for detail. Other branches of art are also well represented.

The farewell rendezvous proved the success of the cooking class, in charge of Miss Hutton and a coterie of expert pretty young girls rolled out cakes and kneaded bread and made other goodies for the delectation of the palates of admiring visitors last evening the Throop Manual Training Club, under the direction of Mr. Bushell, after turning from good old Baptist doctrines to "Holiness" and "sanctification," taught a species of "loose life" was was not sinless.

BRADEN WILL STAY.

Despite published rumors to the contrary, Physical Director Claude Braden of Throop announced yesterday that he will remain at the Polytechnic for the next term.

"I did receive a tentative offer from Pomona College," said he, "but the authorities of Throop have made it more than worth my while to remain here next year. However, there will be a special football coach and I will have general supervision over the gymnasium classes and the teams in basketball. In the athletic department I will be assisted this year by Miss Chita Craft, Stanford and the physical department will be run on a broader and firmer basis than ever before."

THE CITY PARAGRAPHED.

The Grand Knights of Pythias from Los Angeles were entertained with a rousing reception by members of the local lodge in Kinney-Kendall Hall last night.

Colonel W. H. Holland of the Garfield School last evening gave a supper party for the members of the graduating grade who will enter the High School next year.

C. C. Bolt, president of the San Gabriel Valley Bank, expects to leave for Europe. In his absence affairs of the bank will be in charge of Cashier H. W. Magee.

Members of the Pasadena High School are rehearsing daily for the class play, "The Ward of Esperanza," to be given at the operahouse next week. The play was conceived by six of the students in collaboration—Genevieve Stehman, Florence Gaylord, Jean French, Ruth Talbot, Carroll Owen and Will Hahn. The playlet has no reference to the late lamented C. M. Hatfield, who was dubbed as Esperanza's wizard.

Messrs. Colfax Tuller and I. H. Merewether of New York are to conduct an institute of Sunday-school music in Pasadena and Los Angeles, and will hold the first session at the First Congregational Church in this city Monday evening.

Word was received in Pasadena indicating that the body of Dr. J. E. Lowes, who died in this city three weeks ago will be taken state at his home in Dayton.

Professor F. S. Allen has prepared plans for a seventeen-room mission-style apartment-house which an owner contemplates erecting on Orange Grove avenue. The contract has already been let to T. J. Schmitz.

By the explosion of a gasoline stove the dwelling building at No. 23 West Mountain street yesterday morning damage to the extent of $100 resulted. The house is occupied by the painting firm of Hamm & Hamm.

OCEAN PARK.

PLANS TO CELEBRATE.

OCEAN PARK, June 9.—Tomorrow will be a red letter day locally in Ocean Park. In the afternoon the cornerstone of the new projected Masonic building will be laid with imposing ceremonies. The lodge here has just been chartered and the building now being erected to be its permanent home. Grand Master M. H. Flint and a hundred Knights Templar from Los Angeles will be in attendance to conduct the services, which will begin with a parade from Santa Monica's Masonic Hall at 2:30 p. m. The programme will be enacted at the corner of Navy street and Trolleyway.

The Carnival Company that held forth here during two weeks in March has gone to pieces. Oakland was the scene of the death struggle.

The Los Angeles-Pacific is busy with a force of men in the vicinity of Venice, putting in a broadguage loop for connection with the old Santa Fé branch—the Inglewood line. This will enable through cars to reach this resort over the Southern Pacific and Santa Fé lines without change.

TAKES HOME OF PIO PICO.

WHITTIER CITY ACQUIRES HISTORIC ADOBE.

House, Once the Domicile of Last Spanish Governor of California, Becomes Property of Municipality. Two Societies Working on Scheme for Preservation of Old Homestead.

WHITTIER, June 9, 1905.—Through the payment of $4000 by the City Councilmen, the city of Whittier comes into possession of the old adobe ruin which was at one time the home of Pio Pico, last Spanish Governor of California. The dwelling, or what is left of it, stands in the midst of valuable water-bearing land, adjacent to that already owned by the city, on which are the wells now supplying the city with water. Wells will be sunk thereon as a part of a new and up-to-date water system. The picturesque ruin, the scene of many a gay gathering in its palmy days, is the object of much interest, and it is hoped that something may be done to preserve it from further decay.

Of the part still standing, a museum could easily be made, several large rooms, one of them having a curious fireplace, and each one unique in some tiny window or queer door, making the work of reconstruction easier. An old fig tree still stands in the dilapidated court and near it is the old well which gave the inmates their supply.

The walls are in a fairly good state of preservation, but the old roof is just ready to fall. In recent years the place has fallen upon evil days, part of it being used as a barn, and another part as a blacksmith shop and wagon repair shop, while from the darker corners the visitor could drive out a frightened hen at almost any time.

The members of the Whittier Woman's Club and of the East Whittier Improvement Club are alive to the idea of preserving the old homestead, and have each one appointed a committee which will work together to the desired end.

Whittier Chapter, R. A. M., was constituted Tuesday evening by John F. Hughes, grand king, and his associates and the officers of the new chapter installed. After the ceremonies of constitution and installation a banquet was served and informal speechmaking listened to. The officers of the new organization are: E. H. P., W. G. Reichling; king, B. M. Longfellow; scribe, W. M. Hiatt; treasurer, Stephen Butler, secretary, J. F. Powers; C. of H, W. R. Morris; P. S., Roger B. Powell; R. A. C., Paul Dahlitz; M. 3 V., Will A. Smith; M 2 V, A. P. Henry; M. 1 V., O. B. Griffin; sentinel, Milo Allen.

WOMAN'S CLUB.

The members of the Whittier Woman's Club held their annual meeting yesterday. A feature of each annual meeting of this club is the reception to the "club babies." This year the address of welcome to the little tots was given by Mrs. W. S. Fawcett, Mrs. G. W. Monroe giving the response. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Albertson and Miss Jenkins, the latter a guest of one of the club members. The installation of the recently-elected club officers was to have taken place, but was postponed until the 20th inst.

CATALINA ISLAND.

WHITTIER LADS' VACATION.

AVALON, June 9.—The usual yearly vacation of the inmates of the State School at Whittier, which is spent at Camp Whittier, on this island, will be given them much earlier than common this year. The first installment of boys is booked to arrive here on the 17th inst., the remainder to follow on the 20th, and the girls three weeks later.

Capt. W. E. Connors, from the school, has been here arranging matters and has a detachment getting the camps in condition for occupancy.

On invitation of the Meteor Boat Company, a number of personal friends yesterday afternoon witnessed an exhibition of deep-sea diving. Herbert A. Young, who for several years has been plying the vocation of diving at Honolulu, is now here with his apparatus and he and the guests were taken out in the power glass bottom boat Cleopatra, which was anchored off Sugar Loaf. The diver operated under the boat and his every action was plainly observable through the glass bottom. He gathered a pailfull of sea urchins, abalones and various other shell fishes found on the rocks. Capt. Clarence Jargstorff was master of ceremonies.

John Traylor of Denver, with Capt. Danielson, captured two black sea bass this morning, one weighing 210 pounds, the other being in the kindergarten class, and weighing but forty pounds.

E. N. Dickerson of New York, who, on account of the illness of his wife failed to reach Catalina last summer, came over last night in his yacht, the Lillian, which has been laid up in San Diego Bay for two years in charge of Capt. Fowler. Mrs. Dickerson was prevented from coming because of the illness of their daughter.

A large number of Knights of Columbus, who did not fancy coming with the crowd of yesterday, visited the island today.

POMONA.

TRAMP'S LEG CUT OFF.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

POMONA, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A 20-year-old tramp with his left leg below the knee hanging by only a few strings of muscles and tendons, was found by a freight crew in the weeds by the Southern Pacific track, a mile west of Pomona this afternoon.

He said he had been beating his way on a freight train and had been riding between two cars, when he was jolted off. He did not give his name.

The unfortunate fell so that the wheels of several cars passed over his left leg. He was taken to a Los Angeles hospital.

It is comparatively easy to boycott an inferior article, but the reputation of Rainer Beer is so firmly established that simply calling it "unfair" makes small difference.—[Adv.

TOWN SHOCKED BY GIN MILLS.

PROHIBITIONISTS IN LONG BEACH GET JOLT.

City Marshal Says He Can't Afford to Hire Detectives Out of His Private Purse and There are No Other Funds for Gathering in the Unseeing Porcines.

LONG BEACH, June 9.—The temperance people of this city, lulled to sleep by the monotonous music of the claim that "Long Beach has no saloons," have suddenly been jolted into a conscious and horrified wakefulness by discovering that there are a half dozen "blind pigs" in operation in the city. The owners are said to have been operating with such carelessness as to amount almost to defiance of the existing ordinance, which was supposed to be double-riveted and copper-bottomed proof against the evil. Others have seen it, but the temperance people have been blind as also the City Trustees, who have made no provision for the enforcement of the ordinance.

This sudden awakening has been caused by the arrest of a young man who was found last night in a beastly state of intoxication. He came here a few months ago a model young man with a lovely sweet wife, but he fell into bad company. This morning he confessed that he purchased his booze at a confectionery and a drug store on Ocean Front and was willing to swear to a complaint against both joints, but in the absence of corroborative evidence, the Marshal doubted if he could make a case.

Marshal Conklin knows of the existence of these joints, but says his police force is too well known and there are no funds available to hire outside detectives. He successfully conducted a case several months ago against a druggist, who escaped with a $25 fine, leaving the Marshal out of pocket for the services of his detectives and the price of the liquor purchased.

Conklin was promised reimbursement by the temperance people, but was never paid. He says he is willing to push the breaking up of these joints to the limit, but not out of his own pocket. The search warrant being rendered inoperative by a Superior Court decision makes detective evidence imperative to secure a conviction. As the situation stands it seems to be for the City Trustees to back the Marshal up in a strict enforcement of the ordinance.

SEASHORE RIPPLES.

William Uber and daughter were en route home last evening, when their horse shied and made a short turn upsetting the buggy, throwing both occupants to the ground. Mr. Uber's shoulder was dislocated and his face badly cut. Miss Uber escaped with a severe shaking up.

A scaffolding broke this morning with three men on it, and all fell ten feet. Two were uninjured, but Oliver Moore had a bone in his ankle broken.

This morning while two small children were playing together, the 2-year-old son of R. J. Craig was struck a blow with an ax by its companion. The weapon struck the child's temple cutting a gash to the bone and probably injuring the skull.

Fifteen Chinese members of the Chinese Gospel Mission in Los Angeles were guests of honor at the home of D. C. Merriam on Ocean avenue and Eighth Place this afternoon. Misses West and Swan in charge of the mission work came with the party. Mrs. Lee and Fiske and Miss Stewart, former assistants, were present. The hostesses were Mrs. D. C. Merriam, Miss Blois and Miss Marie Paine.

Miss Jennie Hagan of East Ocean avenue in charge of the music department of the State Normal, entertained at a house party tonight Miss Ray Hanna, president of the Glee Club and Miss Isabel Collins who will assist her in entertaining the members of the musical organizations Saturday at the beach. The Glee Club is composed of twenty-five young ladies. They will arrive Saturday on the morning car and use their own pleasure in passing the forenoon in the surf and plunge. At noon they will have a picnic lunch on the lawn at Miss Hagin's home. The Glee Club will have as their guests the Choral Society which is the musical class of the Y.W.C.A. of the school.

A unique basketball game was the exhibition contest today between the U.S.C. and Long Beach. The forwards and guards of each team were divided and the work was solely individual playing. As a result team No. 1 composed of Grace Meyers and Ethel Hogan, forwards; Alta Thornton, center, and Nora Taylor and Gladys Armstrong defeated No. 2, by a score of 14 to 2. The vanquished team was Mabel Peyton and Hazel Dawes, forwards, Laura Brown, center and Mabel Taylor and Lora Woodhead, guards. Miss Myers, Long Beach, did the best work, throwing five of the six field goals, while Misses Taylor and Armstrong did the best work of the guards. The game was a clean one without a single foul goal. Miss Wiltshire was umpire and Oliver West acted as referee.

The city officials of Long Beach have been singularly unfortunate since the first of the year. First City Clerk Hargis was ill for several weeks. Then City Treasurer Heartwell was laid up but was hardly on his feet before Attorney Knight was on the hospital list. Then Mayor Eno was indisposed, and now City Engineer Foster is ill.

The Fairchild-Gilmore Company this morning began work on the Pine avenue approach to the beach. It is to be graded and paved with asphalt.

The Long Beach contingent on the excursion to Salt Lake will consist of E. Musselman, J. H. Munholland, W. W. Lowe, G. H. Hughes and F. L. Wingard.

The grammar schools of the Long Beach district closed today for the summer vacation. The High School will be in session until June 30.

John Z. White of the Henry George Lecture Association of Chicago, will lecture Sunday night at the First M. E. Church under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans has started a subscription to erect a monument to the soldier and sailor dead. The lack of a permanent monument was strongly called to their attention on Memorial Day, and it is planned to erect a monument to cost $600.

Saturday the free beach attraction will consist of the "Jayville Band," swimming and sack races, greasy pole climbing and the Alabama Jubilee singers. In the evening there will be an exhibition of fireworks.

"Opening Sale of Japanese Art Auction commencing this afternoon at 2 o'clock, by Japanese Auctioneer. Interesting talk on Japanese-Russian war."

MONROVIA.

ASK FOR BOND ELECTION.

MONROVIA, June 9.—The petition circulated by the Board of Trade for a special bond election in which the purchase of Granite Bank building is to be submited, has been signed by 200 names, and C. A. Sargeant is prosecuting the work vigorously, as chairman. The building will be examined by an expert appointed by the Board of Trade.

The directors of the Saturday Afternoon Club Auxiliary, the organization that has been incorporated to build the clubhouse, have been elected for the ensuing year. The new board is composed of W. A. Chess, B. F. Crews, F. J. Cornes, L. Butts, R. Baker, Ammette Nye and A. H. Johnson.

SANTA MONICA.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION.

SANTA MONICA, June 9.—The High School of Santa Monica closed this evening, after a successful term. The commencement exercises were held in the assembly room of the Lincoln school building, which had been prettily decorated. There was a large attendance of the parents of the district. The class consisted of Bonnie Barrow, Ara H. Brown, Ruby S. Dunn, Edith Henry, Edith Hinderer, Gertrude Reed, Marion Sadler, Ethel Shanks, Katherine Whelan and David Smith.

Music by the High School Orchestra and the Euterpean Quartette enlivened the evening's programme. The valedictorian was Bonnie Barrow and the salutatorian Ethel Shanks.

The British ship Jessomene, 148 days out from Newcastle-on-Tyne, has not yet been sighted off Port Los Angeles. She brings a general cargo consigned to Balfour, Guthrie & Co.

At the home of the bride, on Seventh street, on Wednesday evening, Miss Evaline Schwenk was married to Walter Scott, the ceremony being performed by Rev. F. G. Stevens in the presence of a few near friends. The home of the groom is in Los Angeles, and after a brief honeymoon journey to Santa Catalina, that city will be their residence.

The Postal Telegraph Company has gained a foothold on the beach and in the smaller settlements lying between Los Angeles and the sea. Stations are now in operation at Santa Monica, Sawtelle, Sherman, Inglewood and Hollywood and one will soon be established at Redondo. The wires follow the Los Angeles-Pacific electric line, being on the railway company's poles.

"AT HOMES" AT SCHOOLS.

HOLLYWOOD, June 9.—The primary and intermediate departments of the Fremont School, under the direction of the teachers, Miss Stephens, Miss Miller and Mrs. Hilliker, entertained parents and friends this afternoon at the Masonic Temple. There were recitations, vocal and instrumental solos, fan and flag drills.

Prof. Clark, Miss Kinder, Miss Towne, Miss Sackett and the pupils of the Grant schools gave a reception at that building this evening. There was an exhibition of school work, a May pole dance, and a Mother Goose play.

The grammar schools will have their closing exercises next Friday evening.

The W.C.T.U. baby show will be held on the 22rd inst. There will be four classes of children, 6 months and under, 6 months to 12 months, 12 months to 24 months, 2 years to 5.

The Hollywood National Bank will open July 1, with a capital stock of $35,000. Dr. E. O. Palmer is president and G. C. Greenwood is cashier.

LORDSBURG.

BURGLARY ON RANCH.

LORDSBURG, June 9.—Although burglaries have been of frequent occurrence in this town for several years, it is seldom that these light fingered men wander out to the homes of the ranchmen.

Last night the home of Frank Wheeler at La Verne was entered, the drawers in the chiffonier were ransacked, and his clothing taken from the bedroom and carried down stairs to the dining-room. The thieves secured $34 in cash, a lady's gold watch, two gold watch chains with two Knight Templar charms which had been presented to Mr. Wheeler by the officers of his commandery, and a valuable diamond brooch.

Burned matches were scattered around the house. For the past two months Mr. Wheeler has acted as Deputy Assessor for the district and doubtless the thieves knew that he collected considerable money. Yesterday, however, he had been to Los Angeles and turned over his books and the money collected, to County Assessor Ben E. Ward, returning in the evening with his month's salary.

Associated Oil stock continued to go down on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange under the efforts of the bears, who have obtained possession of the market. What probably aided the movement yesterday was the number of shares offered for sale by holders who evidently needed money. Be that as it may, the bears had things pretty much their own way, and 19,005 shares changed hands at prices ranging from 96¾ to 96¾, quite a recession since a week ago, when Associated was strong at nearly 10 points higher. The bears call it a healthy reaction; the others assert that someone is absorbing with a view to large profits in the future when Associated recovers. The stock closed at 96¾.

Continental was in much request, but only 2000 shares were sold at 27¼ to 28, closing at 27¾. Mexican Petroleum gained 3¼ points, closing at 46, and Union recovered the ½ lost the other day, but United Petroleum declined 10 points.

Associated Oil bonds lost ½, closing at 95½, and Home Telephone stock also went to a lower level, closing at 60, and Sun Drug declined 5 points.

Lloyd L. Elliott, manager of the Merchants' Trust Company, who has returned from a two weeks' business trip in the East, says that eastern banks are now according much better treatment to western securities than they have heretofore, as the result of a better knowledge of these securities, and of the conservative methods employed here.

A banker who has just returned from a visit to Mexico states that $680,000 in American money has gone into mines, ranches and railroads of that country.

The Los Angeles Western Mining Stock Exchange reported sales as follows: 1000 Indiana Tonopah, 2½; 600 Belmont, 95 to 1.16; 1000 Golden Anchor, 76 to 77; 2000 Gold Mountain, 1c; 2500 Great Western, 4 to 5½; 2000 Jim Butler Extension, 25¾ to 26; 500 MacNamara, 48; 200 Midway, 1.50 to 1.75; 2000 North Star, 46½ to 47; 2000 Ohio, 36 to 38; 4000 Tonopah Extension, 4.25 to 4.95; 10 Tonopah Nevada, 13.00; 4500 Black Butte, 28 to 29; 1000 Diamond Field, 42; 1000 Dixie, 30; 2000 Goldfield Mg., 47 to 50; 1500 Jumbo, 74 to 78; 2000 Jumbo Extension, 17¾ to 20; 2000 Kendall, 14 to 16; 1000 Lone Star, 4 to 5; 3; 4000 Red Top, 40 to 42; 4000 Sandstorm, 35 to 37; 4000 Silver Pick, 7 to 7½; 2000 Nevada Southern, 8; 500 Bullfrog, 1.00; 200 Bullfrog National, 22 to 24; 1000 Bellhope, 97; 800 Gold Bar, 25 to 30; 500 Lige Harris 4.

DAILY REPORT OF THE ORANGE MARKET.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The price of navel oranges advances steadily at auction sales, each succeeding offering bringing 10 to 20 cents per box more than the one before it. The market for navels is hardening under decreasing receipts, and cold storage men are buying all they can get to put away. Wholesalers say that there is a stronger demand for good navels, and that purchasers are willing to pay more than they were a week ago. Other varieties are doing better since the competition of navels decreased. Retailers report fair trade, but not as active as a week ago. Foreign lemons are weak. The government sold a cargo of abandoned Sicily lemons today at low figures.

WHEN DECLARED BANKRUPT. The Supreme Court of Minnesota construed, in the case of Cavanaugh vs. Fenley et al., section 67, subdivision F, of the National Bankruptcy law of 1898, which provides that "all levies, judgments, attachments or other liens obtained through legal proceedings against a person who is insolvent, at any time within four months prior to the filing of the petition in bankruptcy against him, shall be deemed null and void in case he is adjudged a bankrupt." The court held that this subdivision applies to both voluntary and involuntary proceedings against the debtor; "that a garnishment of funds belonging to an insolvent person, within four months of the time he is adjudged a bankrupt, is, within the meaning of the bankruptcy act, dissolved and rendered null and void by the bankruptcy proceedings; that this result follows notwithstanding the insolvent person made no reference in his schedule of assets to the fact that indebtedness had been garnisheed, and that a judgment entered against the garnisheed person after he is adjudged a bankrupt and before his final discharge in the bankruptcy proceedings, upon a provable claim existing at the time he was adjudged a bankrupt, and from liability for the payment of which he was relieved by his discharge, is canceled and annulled by such discharge, and the bankrupt has the absolute right after obtaining his discharge, if he proceeds with reasonable diligence, to have execution upon the same perpetually stayed."—[Bradstreet's.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Cherries advanced in the produce market yesterday owing to unusually light receipts and an improved demand. The arrivals for the morning trading were 60 boxes all told, though 272 more were expected on the afternoon train. Black Tartarians were jobbing at 1.25 to 1.50, bulk 14 to 15 cents; Royal Annes, 1.40 to 1.50, bulk 13 cents. The arrivals of strawberries were 650 crates of Monetas and 1500 trays of Tropicos, prices being about the same as they were the day before, 4 to 5 cents. Raspberries were steady at 8 to 10 for Tropicos, and 10 to 12 for Orange county. Dewberries and loganberries were weak at 7 to 8 to 4, and red currants hardened at 60 to 65 cents a box, 1.25 a crate.

Valencia oranges were in good demand at 2.25, and Mediterraneans at 1.50 to 1.75. Grapefruit was active at the prices already quoted.

Most of the apricots that came in were of rather better quality than previous arrivals, and met a snappy demand at 50 to 75 cents.

Clyman plums were in brisk demand at 75 to 85 cents, and Mikados at 90 to 1.00.

The local and shipping demand for butter was reported active, and both Coast and Valley were well cleaned up.

Mixed shipments of barley and oat hay arrived and were jobbing at 9.00 to 10.00. Local offerings were light, and arrivals of old No. 1 hay were selling freely at 15.00.

STATE OF TRADE.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P. M.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say that although trade reports are still irregular, and in many cities below expectations, there has been improvement in response to higher temperature and less rain. Manufacturing activity is fully extended in textile fabrics, and there is an enormous output of iron and steel, despite some reduction from last month's record-breaking rate of production. Building operations are large and materials in excellent demand. Foreign commerce for the last week at this port shows a splendid gain compared with 1904, imports increasing 43,127,944, and exports gaining 41,420,305. All returns for May make favorable comparisons with the same months last year, railway earnings increasing 8 per cent., while bank exchange rose 1.2 per cent. Further weakness has developed in packers' hides, the only supporting factor being the light supply of cow hides that are sought by tanners of upper leather. Country hides are in relatively better position, and South American dry hides are firmer here than in Europe. Failures this week in the United States are 236, against 196 last week, 221 the preceding week, and 227 the corresponding week last year.

Bradstreet's Review.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Bradstreet's will say tomorrow that this week may be summed up in the phrase "better feeling," which is predicted on rather more seasonable weather, allowing better crop progress, a larger volume of trade and improved reorder business at wholesale. These, in turn, are reflected in a more assured tone as to fall business in distributive lines. Relatively favorable come from surplus cereal crop-producing regions, but the feeling in the South is likewise better. Against this is to be noted some temporary quieting, due to rains or cooler weather in the Northwest, the lake region and steel is smaller, while new business in iron and steel is smaller, but the latter is still large. All measures of trade movement still point unmistakably to large gains in all lines over a year ago. Business failures for the week ending June 8 number 194, against 234 last week, 171 in the like week in 1904; 181 in 1903, 165 in 1902, and 188 in 1901. In Canada failures number 21, as against 19 last week and 18 in this week last year. For the month of June are 1,479,840 bushels, against 1,899,224 last week, 1,982,272 in this week last year. From July 1 to date the exports are 60,007,550 bushels, against 129,248,461 last year.

NEW YORK MARKETS. SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P. M.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—Today's stock market made further progress towards a condition of absolute stagnation. Even the temporary spurt of the first hour, which had come to be expected as the result of the testing efforts of traders to find an available course for a movement of prices, was lacking. The first hour's dealings today were only slightly above the average. The marking up of one or two stocks of the southern group late in the day, was attributed to operations by a few of the traders who have not abandoned the market entirely. It is supposed that a pool exists in these stocks. The narrow fluctuations of the market maintained some appearance of coherency early in the day, but the later movements were entirely confused and irregular. Such a market can have only a negative significance, as prices suggest no interpretation, but the idleness in itself is an index of the condition of doubt and uncertainty which oppresses speculative sentiment. Some influence is attributed to the fact of the coming Whitsuntide holiday in London, which drove the London market into a condition of idleness almost equal to our own. The heavy falling off in the activity of trading is responsible for the sharp decline in the price of stock exchange seats, a sale being reported at $72,500. The previous sale, ten days ago, was at $78,000, and the high price of $82,000 was paid within the year. Some of the disposition to defer operations was attributed to the desire to know the completion of tomorrow's government report on the June 1 condition of the grain crops. The wavering movement in the grain markets indicated some unsettlement over the immediate prospects. It is not expected that any pronounced position will be assumed in the stock market on the basis of the year's harvest until the critical period for the crops, several weeks hence, has been passed. The Equitable Life affair furnished no immediate incident for discussion today, but its great influence in deterring from any ventures in the stock is unimpaired. Opinions over the bank statement are mixed, owing to the large special operations which have occurred, including the shifting of deposits incident to the transfer of the Japanese loan proceeds. Call money was slightly firmer, but not enough so to be an influence. Some consideration is beginning to be given, however, to the preparations for the half-yearly settlements. The usual interest-bearing disbursement may have more than the customary supplement in the demand to replenish reserves by the trust companies. It is reported that the operations of this week have been to the advantage of trust company reserves at the expense of the bank reserves. The sub-treasury has absorbed during the week about $1,580,000 more than the banks have gained on the interior movement. Some large changes in the various items of the bank statement are likely to result. There was more variety in the bond market than in stocks, and prices there were well maintained. There was an active speculation in Central of Georgia income bonds. Total sales, par value, $2,770,000. United States 3s, registered, declined ¼ per cent. on call.

A Record Breaking Clothing Sale

1000 Men's $15.00, $17.50, and $20.00 All Wool Suits at $8.95

A Chance to Buy a Stylish Summer Suit at Less Than the Value of the Material

THERE never has been a sale like it in Los Angeles. We are the leaders in all the big merchandise attractions, but up to now have never been able to feature such an offering of men's clothing as the present. When you think of purchasing a suit new in style and faultless in make at really less than the material cost by the yard, you can appreciate what a big saving you are in position to effect.

OUR New York buying organization purchased the entire overproduction from the most reputable manufacturer of men's clothing in New York City. This purchase consists of ten hundred suits made up of from one to a half dozen of a kind—in some cases broken as to sizes, but a full complement of sizes in the aggregate. Naturally to get any firm to handle such a large surplus stock for ready cash necessitated the manufacturer making price the object. After several days' wrangling our offer was accepted, the goods were packed and shipped by fast freight, have just been received and will go on sale Saturday.

THE materials in these suits are strictly all wool Cassimeres, Cheviots and Tweeds; the styles 3-piece single or double breasted; the coats in the new long cut with deep vent in side or back; lined with Serge, Venetian or Brilliantine and are in sizes 34 to 46 for slims, stouts and regulars.

BE ON hand early Saturday morning and get the advantage of first selection. We will have an extra force of salespeople to wait on you promptly, plenty of dressing rooms without inconvenience, and every suit displayed so as to be easy of access, shown under strong light that the patterns and texture may be easily discerned. We state positively that they are $15.00, $17.50 and $20.00 values. All go into the one big sale priced at, choice.....
